DEFEAT IS FEARED

THE "WETS" IN CHICAGO ARE IN REVERSE OF A HAPPY FRAME OF MIND.

"DRYS" BUSY PUSHING THINGS

Routed By Mayor Busse's Ban on Liquor Selling in Resorts, the United Societies Plan a Parade of Protest at Early Day.

Chicago, Feb. 22.—To curb the glee of temperance workers resulting from "dry" petitions and Mayor Busse's ban on liquor selling in resorts, the united socialists have announced a plan for a monster parade in protest.

Fully 30,000 men, fearing that Chicago will eventually go dry, will march throughout the Loop district. The wets are determined to eclipse the efforts of temperance workers recently, when General Frederick Dent Grant headed the column.

Mayor Busse's order limiting the sale of liquor to resorts holding city licenses came as a surprise to the resort keepers. W. C. T. U. crusaders practically had demanded it weeks ago.

Resort keepers holding liquor licenses make no secret of their plans to furnish liquor to unlicensed dives, thus evading the effects of the executive ban.

It is announced at the W. C. T. U. headquarters that another march on the city hall will be made to demand the abolition rather than the restriction of the red light district.

BIG STRIKE THREATENED

Philadelphia Usion Men All to Go Out in Sympathy With Street Car Men.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 22.—President Murphy, of the Central Labor union, has called a general strike of organized labor in Philadelphia, in sympathy with the striking street railway employes. It is claimed that between 75,000 and 100,000 men will respond to the call.

Strike Leader Under $3,000 Bond.

Strike leader Pratt was given a hearing this morning and held in $3,000 bail, charged with inciting a riot, conspiracy and disorderly conduct.

LYNCHING TALKED

WALKING HOME WITH THE WIFE OF HIS NEIGHBOR SMITH ASSAULTED HER.

BOTH ARE PROMINENT IN SOCIETY

The Accused Is Married and Has Children—He Denies In Emphatic Language That There Was Anything Like Attack.

Comer, Ga., Feb. 22.—Accused of having criminally attacked Mrs. Martha Graham, the young wife of his neighbor, John G. Smith, a prominent man, has been arrested and held without bail.

According to Mrs. Graham, who is a bride of a few weeks, the alleged attack was committed several days ago. Smith and Graham are neighbors and the families have been intimate.

Mrs. Graham was at Smith's house recently and when she started home Smith offered to accompany her.

On the way, Mrs. Graham charges, Smith made love to her. She repulsed him and then she says he made her submit by force.

Smith is married and has children. He bitterly denies that there was any attack. The Grahams are prominent and their friends are so bitter that there is talk of lynching.

The jail is strongly guarded.

BIG PURCHASE OF BONDS

They Were Issued By Johnson County for Drainage Work.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Harris, the former connected with the new First National bank at Columbus, O.; Thomas Smith, representing Little & Hayes, St. Louis brokers; T. J. Grace, representing McCoy & Co., investment bonds of Chicago; Fred Emmert, representing W. R. Compton & Co., of St. Louis, and A. C. Spiker, of Bloomfield, all of whom were at Warrensburg Monday with a view of purchasing $190,000 of drainage bonds, were in the city today on their way to their respective homes.

M. A. McGruder and A. L. Crandall, who were financially interested in the disposal of the bonds, returned home last night.

The bonds were purchased by Compton & Co., at $102.22.

THE MEDICAL SOCIETY

Meeting Was Held at the Court House Last Night.

The Pettis County Medical society met with a large attendance at the county court room at the court house last night, Dr. F. R. Morley presiding.

The paper of the evening was read by Dr. F. L. Sutton, on "Iritis." Dr. Guy Titsworth discussed the paper.

Dr. W. A. Beckemeyer, of the M., K. & T. hospital staff, was admitted to membership.

The members of the society as a body decided to donate to the day nursery for one year their services, at the request of Miss Harriet Gold, secretary.

The election of a member of the society to read a paper before the state meeting, to be held at Hannibal on May 3, 4 and 5, was deferred until the next meeting.

Several communications from the editor of the state journal were read wherein he asked that all papers read before the society be sent to the state journal for publication.

At the next meeting of the society Dr. M. T. Collins will read a paper on "Emergencies in Obstetrics."

A BIG HAUL OF FISH

THE CATCH BROUGHT HIM $7,200

He Loaded the Fish Into Two Freight Cars, Sent Them to Market, and Has Just Received Checks is Payment.

Red Wing, Minn., Feb. 22.—With a seine 1,800 feet long and several men to assist him, David Gautenbein took from the upper Mississippi river inland lakes in one afternoon $7,200 worth of fish. He loaded the fish into cars, got them to market and has just received checks in payment for them.

Gautenbein got the fish from Tetonka lake, near Waterville. There were 100 tons of them, mostly of the buffalo species, and were unusually large. One of them tipped the scales at 47½ pounds.

Had it not been that his seine came in contact with heavy snags in the bottom of the lake his haul would have been still larger. One end of the seine was partly destroyed and several tons of fish escaped.

The fishermen who accomplished this feat made another prize haul last winter further up the river, when they gathered 60,000 pounds.

It was rather an expensive haul, however, as his entire crew worked for two months clearing out snags from the river bottoms. Seven cars were required to ship the fish to eastern points. The fish are simply thrown into rough boxes and are not packed.

POLICE COURT CASES

Victims Who Were Before Judge Gresham This Morning.

Marion and William Locks, brothers, who engaged in a fistic encounter last night, resulting in their arrest by the police, were fined $5 each by Police Judge H. M. Gresham today.

Tom Atkinson, who was arrested last night for fighting, was fined $10 by the same magistrate, while the cases of Mr. and Mrs. George Bartlett, also charged with fighting, were continued until Monday, February 28.

RATHER STAY HERE

HEAVEN DOES NOT APPEAL TO THE REV. W. C. BITTING, OF ST. LOUIS.

PARADISE DOESN'T LURE PASTOR

Tells Students He'd Rather Remain on Earth Than to Thump a Harp and Wear a Crown In Land Beyond the Skies.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Feb. 22.—"The world is good enough for me. I do not want to go to heaven," said the Rev. Dr. W. C. Bitting, St. Louis pastor, in addressing an audience of university students.

"I had rather be here today than be in heaven. It is not heaven to me, either to thump on a harp or wear a heavy crown of gold and attend eternal prayer meeting. Most of those meetings we have today are bad enough."

The speaker paid his compliments to some of the church selections in the musical lines, saying:

DIDN'T GET "PROFESSOR"

The Man Who Victimized Sedalians Not Yet Located.

Chief of Police W. H. Boullt learned last evening that Prof. Robinson, the clairvoyant, who skipped out from Sedalia after fleecing a number of patrons out of money and jewelry, was not at Hannibal, as was suspected.

Information reached Chief Boullt Sunday that Robbinson was conducting his scheme in that city. A telegram was sent to the chief of police requesting the latter to ascertain if the clairvoyant there was the one who had victimized a number of Sedalians.

When the Hannibal authorities went to search for the clairvoyant he had disappeared.

BACK TO PETTIS COUNTY

Ten Thousand Dollar Suit Against Telephone Company.

The Kansas City court of appeals Monday reversed and remanded the case of Miller vs. the Missouri and Kansas Telephone Co., sent up from Pettis county, wherein Miller had originally brought suit in this county for $10,000 damages against the telephone company for injuries sustained in falling from a telephone pole.

The accident occurred years ago. At that time the telephone company was engaged in removing its poles and wires from overhead. Miller had ascended a pole and when nearly at the top of it fell a distance of about eighteen feet. He alleges he permanently injured his spine.

Through his attorney, W. D. Steele, he sued for $10,000. He secured a verdict for $5,000. The case was taken to the supreme court, and when the legislature passed a law that no suits under $7,500 shall go to that tribunal the case was transferred to the Kansas City court. It was argued there last December, Steele for Miller and Judge George F. Longan for the defendant.

Were Wed By Judge Hoffman.

William E. Wills, of Joplin, a traveling salesman for the Price Mercantile company, of Kansas City, and Miss Nora Russell, also of Joplin, were united in marriage by Circuit Judge Louis Hoffman last night.

HIRED MAN INSANE

KILLED THE WIFE OF A PROMINENT FARMER IN BUENA VISTA COUNTY, IOWA.

ARRESTED AND CONFESSED CRIME

His Excuse Was That He Murdered Her to Prevent Her Killing Her Children—Will Be Sent to an Asylum.

Marathon, Ia., Feb. 22.—The home of Guy Roberts, a prosperous Buena Vista county farmer, living near here, was the scene of a murder yesterday, his wife being the victim.

Henry Johnson, who was arrested charged with the terrible crime, is mentally deranged. He confessed his guilt last afternoon saying he killed Mrs. Roberts to prevent her killing her children. He probably will be sent to an insane hospital.

The murderer cut his victim's head to pieces with an axe. Johnson had been employed on the Roberts farm for a year and had not shown any signs of insanity.

A summer kitchen in the rear of the Roberts farm house was the scene of the tragedy.

Mrs. Roberts had gone to the kitchen to prepare the family clothes for the wash and while engaged in this task was attacked by the murderer.

At the time of the murder Mr. Roberts was in the house and when his wife did not return he went out and found her lifeless body in the kitchen terribly mutilated.

NO MORE SHEARS

Supply Having Been Exhausted, It Impossible to Give More Away.

The Democrat-Sentinel will be unable to furnish any more shears as gifts to its subscribers, as the last shipment has been entirely exhausted and it has been impossible to obtain any more. In consequence the shears offer is withdrawn.

Egg beaters and fireless cookers can still be had, however, and they will be furnished according to the offer made to all who care to avail themselves of the opportunity.

COLOR IS CHANGED

MISSOURIAN GROWS FLOWERS TO ORDER BY THE USE OF RADIUM.

EXPERIMENTS AT THE UNIVERSITY

Changes the Color and Also the orm., and Matures Them in One-Half of Nature's Time, it Is Claimed.

Columbia, Mo., Feb. 22.—Plants may be made to order, according to Prof. C. Stuart Gager, who for two years has been experimenting with radium at the University of Missouri.

An entirely new species of primrose has been originated by the use of radium, and it has held true to the new form through three generations of the plant.

The color of the flower was changed, and the leaves changed from broad to narrow.

It is possible to accelerate or retard the growth of plants by exposing them to the radium.

Several seeds of oats were planted in the same flower pots with tubes of radium, and the seeds germinated in half the regular time and the plant grew twice as fast.

In another experiment, in which the amount of radium had been increased and used in bromide form, the germination of the seeds was retarded.

SEDALIANS ARE "IN IT"

Subscribe for Stock in Osage Transportation Company.

Plans are being perfected in Sedalia for the incorporation of the Osage Transportation company, and up to date a number of well known Sedalians have decided to become financially interested in the corporation.

John Montgomery, Jr., Charles F. Welch, Coby Bloch, Lee Lovinger, Damon Porter and J. T. Turner have subscribed for stock in the company, and will be among the financial backers.

The company is to be organized early this spring by Claus Shoemaker, a popular resident of Yeager's Ferry, who is well known to many of Sedalia's fishermen, who have frequently been guests at his home on the Osage.

The purpose of the company is to build a boat to do passenger and freight business on the Osage river from Warsaw to the mouth of the river at Linn Creek.

The Sedalians who are interested in the project feel confident that it will be a paying invtstment.

Entertaining for Mrs. Evans.

Mrs. J. C. McLaughlin, jr., is entertaining at cards this afternoon for her sister, Mrs. Will Evans, who leaves soon for Excelsior Springs to locate.

TO LAY FURIOUSLY

CAYENNE PEPPER AND HORSERADISH CAUSE A BOOM IN THE MARKET.

HE TELLS THE WORLD THE SECRET

County Official Has Biddies Working at Pace That Promise to Made Him a Rockefeller In Short Time.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 22.—The secret of our successful poultry man has leaked out. Henry Ahlers, deputy assessor of St. Louis county, residing on the Watson and Olive street roads, yesterday said the diet most conducive to a prolific crop of eggs is a combination of cayenne pepper and horseradish.

Ahlers brings his eggs to Clayton when he comes to work in the morning, and the regularity with which he has been bringing them during the cold weather caused him to be closely questioned yesterday by his friends. Ahlers, in reply, said:

"Oh, I just feed them a little cayenne pepper and horseradish once in a while. I have a large horseradish patch next to my poultry yard. I have found that even the dried horseradish leaves are good for chickens."

Ahlers said yesterday that he has between sixty-five and seventy hens, and that some weeks he gathers as many as twenty-five dozen eggs. He said he averaged about twenty two dozen a week. During December and January he received as high as 50 cents a dozen for eggs.

ELLIS IN THE LIMELIGHT.

Mr. Taft's administration is perpetually in hot water. The appointment of Assistant Attorney General Wade Ellis to take charge of the party fence repairing in Ohio has uncorked new vials of criticism—not so much from the opposition as from the reform elements of the republican party.

Representative Mann of Illinois, known as the great republican objector, because of his chronic disposition to ask embarrassing questions when party measures of doubtful complexion are up for passage, jabbed a hook into Mr. Ellis the other day and twisted it violently, just because Ellis had written, since his new job was thrust upon him, a letter indorsing a senate bill providing two new federal judges in Ohio.

The Ellis letter was read on the floor of the house in support of the bill, and Mr. Mann demanded to know if it were written before or since Mr. Ellis had become Ohio state chairman.

On being informed that the letter bore date since the Ohio appointment, the Illinois statesman denounced with indignation the spectacle of the Ohio state chairman recommending the creation of new Ohio judgeships while the attorney general himself keeps quiet. Mr. Mann declared that he smelled politics in the whole business, but as the olfactory nerves of his republican colleagues are inured to rancid smells the bill was passed.

Meanwhile a hue and cry against the appointment of Ellis as political manager in Ohio has been raised in that commonwealth. George W. Bope, a prominent republican of Columbus, O., has written a letter to United States Senator Dick in which he charges that the Standard Oil trust brought about the first nomination of Ellis as attorney general of Ohio through Mark Hanna and that no case against the Standard was ever pushed to a finish in the courts during Ellis' administration.

Furthermore, Bope says, over 40,000 farmers in Ohio petitioned Ellis when he was attorney general of that state either to compel the International Harvester trust to obey the laws of Ohio or get out of the state, to which Ellis' reply was that there was no harvester trust. But now we are told that the government is preparing to proceed against this trust on the very grounds suggested to Ellis by the Ohio farmers.

Mr. Bope is not content with this exhibit of Ellis' tenderness toward the trusts, but strengthens it with the further charge that no longer ago than Jan. 19, 1907, in an address before the Ohio Society of New York, with John D. Archbold, of Standard Oil, at his right, and Henry H. Rogers, of the same corporation, at his left, both applauding, Ellis declared that the prosecutions against corporate interests must cease, and that the public welfare demanded that "a halt be called on the violent outbursts of a radical and intoxicated national administration" against such benevolent institutions as the predatory trusts.

These charges can not be lightly brushed aside, and unless disproved must inevitably hurt the republican interests in Ohio, as well as demonstrate that two more gigantic blunders are to be charged up to the account of the administration, in the employment of so good a friend of the trusts as special counsel for the government in trust prosecutions, and his subsequent appointment as field marshal of the already badly demoralized party forces in the president's own state.

To the Chicago Tribune's question, "If you could vote for president today, for whom would you cast your ballot?" out of 3,038 republican editors in the western states only 1,093, or a little more than one-third, answered "Taft." Roosevelt polled many more votes, 1,369 in all; 197 favored La Follette, 122 were for Hughes, 65 for Cummins, 30 for Pinchot and only 14 for Cannon. Forty confessed contrition for the past mistakes of judgment and announced that if the election were held today they would vote for Bryan. The result of this poll will be decidedly more pleasing to the "Back from Elba" propaganda than to the friends of the present administration. It is a true index of the strength of the anti-Taft and anti-Cannon sentiment throughout the western states. The same paper is now polling eastern editors to secure their views on the same subject. The result will be awaited with interest and trepidation at the White House.

Harper's Weekly has always been a staunch friend of the republican party, but its gifted editor, George Harvey, who has been watching recent performances at Washington, with eyes and mind keen to grasp their significance, has reached the limit of patience and hope, and in a conspicuous place on the editorial page of a recent issue of his publication he prints the following:

The republican party is busted. It hasn't a majority in the house and probably not in the senate. It can not enact the Taft measures. Its fighting elements are irreconcilable. Both want to see the democrats carry the next house and elect a lot of governors. Each proposes to really nominate its own candidate for president. This is official. Democrats get wise—and busy.

This is but another straw in advance of the forthcoming democratic landslide.

Long-Lived Irish Family.

Mrs. Annie Gallagher, two of her sons and one daughter, who live at Fanaghan, County Derry, are in receipt of old age pensions and within a year her third son and second daughter will also have qualified for pensions. All the sons and daughters live with their mother, adds the London Evening Standard.

Fewer Canadian Oysters.

Oyster production in Canadian waters is steadily decreasing. The yield fell from 35,757 barrels in 1903 to 27,297 barrels in 1907. Canada imported $271,760 worth of American oysters in 1908 out of a total export of $653,832 worth.

Affected by Competition.

Ten years ago the Standard Oil Company refined 90 per cent. of the oil produced; now it refines only 80 per cent.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

MINE OWNERS MEET

Committee Appointed to Consider New Wage Scale.

Kansas, City, Mo., Feb. 22.—That the coal miners of Missouri, Kansas Oklahoma and Arkansas will demand that the operators accept the wage scale agreed upon by the national convention of United Mine Workers of America at Indianapolis two weeks ago, and that the operators will insist upon reducing the presest scale was the gossip before the representatives of the miners met the operators and mine owners in conference here this afternoon.

The joint meeting today was largely perfunctory. The miners submitted their demands and committees were appointed and retired to consider the wage scale. An early agreement is not looked for.

MR. D. B. BULKLEY'S CLASS

Practice Yell and Organize Basket Ball Team Tonight.

The young men's Bible class of the First Methodist Episcopal church met Sunday morning at the usual hour and was very well attended, there being fifty-one present.

The Y. M. B. C. pennant was awarded to Mr. Rodehouse, his "yell" being considered the best and most appropriate for the Bible class.

Dr. E. D. Holbert, superintendent of the Sunday school, made the presentation speech and tendered the pennant to the worthy winner.

The class will meet at the Y. M. C. A. rooms tonight to practice the class yell and also to organize a basketball team.

This is certainly a wide awake class of young men, ranging from the age of 15 to 25 years. If you are a young man you are missing a treat by not being associated with an organization of this kind.

This class has an increase in membership of from three to ten every Sunday. If you wish to join you will not be alone in doing so.

Many young men have joined the church in the past few weeks from the influence of the class association The object of the class is to help young men to do the thing that is right, to live right and to serve the Lord. The class started with three members and now has eighty-seven active members. We absolutely do not ask young men to leave their church or Sunday school to join us. We have some young men who have joined this class of their own free will from other churches, and are working with us for the uplifting of the young men. In cases of that kind we welcome them with open arms, for where there is unity there is strength.

In conclusion, I, as the teacher, will say this is God's cause and His work. If you are in harmony with God's work you will not try to tear down, but to build up

Strangers, you are welcome. Visitors, you are welcome. No age limit placed on visitors. Come and be with us next Sunday, Feb. 27, at the First M. E. church, corner Fourth and Osage streets. at 9:30 a. m.—D. B. Bulkley, Teacher.

Woman After Target Honors.

Mrs. G. W. Butler of Troy, N. Y., is ambitious to win the trap-shooting championship. She is one of the best wing shots in the country, and in the last few months she has shown great improvement in steadiness and accuracy. Her score in the national championship at Travers island was 74 out of 100 targets, which falls far below her best record. It was not until she was several minutes at the traps that her nerves became steady, and it was then too late to overcome the handicap of many easy misses. Mrs. Butler's work on the second 50 targets was excelled only by a few of the crack shots gathered from all parts of the country. She intends to enter for the championship next year, and meanwhile will gain practical experience by entering in as many competitions as possible.

Effective Charitable Work.

Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth has opened a house in New York where the wives of criminals will be provided with work to enable them to support their families while their husbands are in jail. The place is called the Rainbow house and the principal work done there will be washing and ironing. The basement is fitted up with laundry tubs, the floor above is for ironing, while on the upper floors are offices, bedrooms and nurseries where the children of the women are cared for during the day. Maj. Sprague and Capt. Pardee of the Volunteers Prison league live at Rainbow house and have charge of the work. The laundry prides itself upon doing each wash separately, not mixing people's clothes.

CLAY CLEMENT'S BODY

Burial of the Actor Is to Be on a Ranch Near Paris, Texas.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 22.—The body of Clay Clement, the actor who died in Kansas City yesterday, will be sent to Paris, Tex., Thursday morning. No local funeral arrangements have been made, as Mrs. Clement is at the Victoria hotel awaiting answers to telegrams sent yesterday.

Col. Sheb Williams, who lives on a ranch near Paris, will arrive in Kansas City tonight. He will accompany the body to Texas.

Mr. Clement had spent many days on the ranch of Col. Williams, who was one of his best friends, and it was the actor's request that he be buried on the ranch.

Effect of Penny Postage.

The British postmaster general in his annual report says: "The result of penny postage with the United States, established in October, 1908, is an increase of about 25 per cent. between the two countries." During the year 84,825,000 telegrams passed over the post-office wires, a decrease of 1.3 per cent., owing to the increasing use of the telephone. Conversations by telephone numbered 22,502,024. The year's postal revenue was $90,000,000 and the expense of operation was $65,000,000. The net profit was about $23,500,000. Telegraphs and telephones earned $17,500,000 net, a decrease of about $1,500,000 from 1907-07.

A Word for the "Tight Wad."

In France they have an expressive phrase, "liquid money." It means that part of the family income which is used for the necessities and luxuries of life. It is quite apart from and kept apart from the more serious, substantial part of the income, which is the saved part. In America the entire income is "liquid," and the man who attempts to make part of it solid is called a "tight wad." A "tight wad" is really a man who creates a principal, a capital, in other words, and he is the living example of what every private business must be and of how the country's resources should be handled.

To Cook Without Stirring.

To keep food that burns easily hot upon the gas stove, or to cook anything of the kind without constant stirring a simple device possible to any housekeeper helps out greatly. This is made by securing a small tin such as baked beans are sold in by delicatessens and grocers. Puncture the bottom of the can with several holes and invert it over the flame. Place the pan in which the food is to be cooked on this, turn the gas very low, and it will keep warm or simmer (according to the height of the flame) without scorching the contents.

Pretty Gift for Mother.

Mrs. G. E. Walker-Bridge, wife of the mayor of Bournemouth, England, has received as a gift from the aldermen and councilmen of that place a silver stork and cradle. The gift marks the birth of a daughter a few months ago, shortly after Mrs. Walker-Bridge's husband took office as mayor. The stork is poised on one leg, with the cradle swinging from a silver chain in its beak. The chain near the beak is caught in a true lover's knot. The miniature cradle is oval-shaped and richly engraved.

Specialty.

POOR MOSES AGAIN

PAPERS CLASH ON QUESTION OF WHETHER HE WAS YELLOW JOURNALIST.

WOMAN'S EDITOR HAS RESIGNED

Miss Mary Paxton Quits Independent at Columbia Because Article Criticised Teachings of Dean Walter Williams.

Columbia, Mo., Feb. 22.—Was Moses the first yellow journalist, or was he not?

In a recent address before the school of journalism, Walter Williams, dean of the department, asserted the aforesaid, declaring that Moses told the criminal news.

In the next issue of the Independent, an uncensored weekly, E. E Childs denied that the Hebrew prophet knew anything about journalism. Furthermore, Mr. Childs stated it was wrong to justify the mistakes of modern newspapers by an appeal to the Scriptures. He intimated very strongly that such an appeal savored of irreverence.

Mr. Childs' article was resented by the students of the school of journalism. It also caused dissension in the staff of the Independent, Miss Mary Paxton, women's editor, resigning.

Miss Paxton, who is a daughter of J. G. Paxton, of Independence, Mo., attorney for the Swope estate, said yesterday that her resignation was not inspired by personal motives, but was a matter of principle.

"Personally, I like every member of the Independent staff," said Miss Paxton. "The only article to which I object is Mr. Childs' contribution criticising the utterances of the dean of the school of journalism, in which I am a student."

Miss Florence Torneau has been appointed editor of the women's page of the Independent to succeed Miss Paxton. Miss Mary Coglon will be associate women's editor.

GAMBLERS WERE FREED

Patrolman Joins in Game and Loses Case in Court.

St. Louis, Feb. 22.—Because he engaged in a game of craps Sunday in order to clinch his case against other participants, Policeman Heckel, of the Dayton street station, lost his case in Judge Pollard's court yesterday, when the court acquitted two of the men to whom Heckel lost 30 cents before he made the arrest.

Heckel and Policeman Hockreader, both in citizens' clothes, saw a crowd playing dice at Elliot avenue and Benton street.

They asked to get in the game and were welcomed. Heckel shot 20 cents and lost. Then he risked another dime and lost again. Then the policeman tried to arrest the crowd, but succeeded in capturing only Henry Dinklekamp, 2849 Montgomery street, and Albert Andrews, 2808 Howard street.

Judge Pollard ruled that Heckel, in playing with the others, was aiding and abetting the crime, and discharged the two men.

A SUITOR LEAVES FORTUNE TO A WOMAN WHO WAS WED TO ANOTHER.

PRETTY ROMANCE IS UNEARTHED

Mr. E. D. Ennis, Formerly of Birmingham, Ala., Leaves $250,000 to Mrs. Clauddie Vester, Old-Time Sweethcart.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 22.—A remarkable romance was unearthed here yesterday by the location of Mrs. Clauddie Vester, who was in Nashville, Tenn., and who is the heiress to an estate of about $250,000.

The estate was left by E. D. Ennis, who formerly lived in Birmingham, and was a suitor of Mrs. Vester, then Miss Clauddie Clark.

Ennis shot a man here in 1892 and fled from the city. He went to Jamaica, where he amassed a fortune.

About three years ago he was fatally injured in a fight with a Spaniard. Before his death he willed his entire estate to "Miss Clark," and the Jamaican authorities have since been trying to find her. She married about eight years ago and moved from Birmingham to Nashville.

Daniel Jones Alcade, of the Island of Jamaica, is in Birmingham, and it was due to his efforts that she was found yesterday.

The governor of Jamaica has offered a reward of $1,000 to any one who would give inforamtion as to her whereabouts, and this money will be equally divided between Mrs. Mary Lytle and J. B. Smiley, a former suitor of Mrs. Vester, both of Birmingham.

The Singing Kettle.

It is said that the Japanese, so ingenious in the making of curios and fascinating devices of every kind, manufacture them. An iron tea kettle, otherwise quite ordinary, has the almost lifelike characteristic of bursting into song when the water boils. The sounds, they say, are produced by steam bubbles escaping from sheets of iron fastened across the kettle near the bottom. Skill is required, not only in making them, but in regulating the fire under them. These curious kettles have been in use for many, many years.

Disappearance of the Dinosaur.

An unsolved problem in geological history is the disappearance of the gigantic dinosaurs, which may be said to have ruled the animal world in the cretaceous period. They are known to have lived in nearly all lands until the close of that period, says Dr. A. S. Woodward, and there is no reason to believe that they suffered from a struggle with any warm-blooded competitors. They seem to have died a natural death.

Tobacco Growing in America.

While some tobacco is produced in almost every state, less than one per cent. of this country's crop is grown west of the Mississippi, Texas being the only trans-Mississippi state in which the industry has gained much importance. Kentucky leads all the states in tobacco growing. It produces more than one-ninth of the entire crop of the world.

German Women in Africa.

The kindergarten has found its way to southwest Africa, and is in itself the sign of higher culture that is working its way into the remotest parts of the world. The German Colonial society has affiliated with it the German Colonial Woman's union, and this organization is sending out women to South Africa in the present capacity of governesses, seamstresses and so on, but with the hope that ultimately they will become home-makers. The German society has announced that it will pay the way of women seeking homes in the colonies, knowing that only by way of the home is the German supremacy in that part of the world assured.

Ski for Postmen.

Recent experiments made at Braemar with ski for the use of postmen when the country is snowed up have proved so successful that the post office officials in various other districts in the Highlands, including Speyside and Donside, are to be similarly equipped. Frequently during the winter the conditions in the remote Highlands are quite arctic, the country being impassable to ordinary traffic. It has been found that the use of ski enables the postmen to cover their journeys even when the snow is soft and badly drifted.—London Daily Mail.

VICTORY FOR "JIM" REED

That Is the Way Fred W. Fleming Has It Sized Up.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 22.—"I have no hesitancy in predicting that Senator Warner will win easily over Gov. Hadley or any republican aspirant," said Fred W. Fleming, of Kansas City, yesterday, in speaking of the Missouri senatorial race.

"On the democratic side James A. Reed, ex-mayor of Kansas City, whom many regard as the ablest lawyer in Missouri, will be opposed by former Gov. David R. Francis and perhaps others.

"It is just as certain that Mr. Reed will defeat his democratic opponents as that General Warner will get the decision over his competitors on the republican side, and as the legislature can do nothing else but take the popular verdict, one of these two will be the next senator.

Grafters and intrenched plunderers never had a more unrelenting foe."

FIGHT FOR SNELL FARM

Willed to Mrs. McNamara By Col. Tom, Son Enter Suit.

Bloomington, Ill., Feb. 22.—That Richard Snell wil make a determined effort to redeem the farm which the late Thomas Snell deeded to his grandniece, Mabelle Snell McNamara, is concluded from a statement of E. J. Sweeney, Richard Snell's confidential attorney.

Mabelle has never had possession of this land, said Mr. Sweeney, and has never received a cent from rent, and Mr. Snell will not tolerate her having this property in view of the history of her connection with this estate.

A suit was filed yesterday in which a vigorous prosecution will be made to have this land redeemed to the estate. The land is occupied by P. M. Smallwood, adjoining the village of Weldon, and is worth about $10,000.

London "Bobbys" Taught Politeness.

Instructions to policemen, railway employes, cabmen and others in the art of being polite is the latest fad of London's society women. They seem to have banded together to instill the rudiments of courtesy into the manners of those they consider their inferiors. Few of them, however, are so particular in bringing up "the lower classes" in the way they should go as was a wealthy matron of Park lane. It was testified in the Needham Market police court, in the English capital, that this woman, pursuant to her policy of insisting upon the most punctilious politeness on all occasions, had reprimanded severely a policeman who came to see her about her carriage license. The "bobby" indignantly said his involuntary hostess had kept him waiting for half an hour, and then had told him: "You must say, "Please, will you be so very kind as to show me your license?"

Used as a Scarecrow.

A small farmer, living in the neighborhood of Amsterdam, some time back lost his wife. Though the couple had always lived together without dissension, the love he bore his spouse did not equal that with which he regarded the fruits of his farm. So, at least, did it appear, for he hit upon the grewsome idea of utilizing the dead body as a scarecrow, the good housewife being found by some neighbors, a day or two after her decease, dressed in a discarded suit of her husband's and keeping guard in a small orchard behind the house. Popular indignation was at boiling point, but luckily for the farmer he was nowhere to be found.

RUNAWAY CAR KILLS ONE

Seventeen Hurt in St. Louis in Quarter-Mile Dash on Incline.

St. Louis, Feb. 22--Its brakes out of commission, a Park avenue street car dashed a quarter of a mile down a steep incline on Park avenue at full speed last night, spreading death and destruction in its wake before it was halted by colliding with the curb.

One man was killed outright, seventeen passengers were injured, seven of them seriously and two carriages were demolished, while the car was completely wrecked.

John Voyce, 54 years old, was thrown beneath the wheels of the car when it struck his carriage at Park and Grand avenues and crushed to death, while his companion was badly hurt.

Pursuing its wild career, with the motorman helplessly trying to apply the brakes, the car crashed into another carriage at Vandeventer avenue, demolishing the vehicle and injuring its two occupants.

A block further down the street the car jumped the track and tipped over on its side when it struck the curb. Seven of the passengers on the car were women and three of them fainted during the hair-raising ride. All of them were more or less seriously hurt.

One man jumped out of a window while the car was running at a high speed and he is in a hospital with a probably fractured skull.

DAL-WHI-MO COURT TO BE PAVED

Contract for Paving West Broadway Let to the Midland Bridge Co.—Sewer District Proposition Defeated.

The regular session of the city council was held last night, Mayor J. L. Babcock presiding and Aldermen Johns and Pringle being absent. The minutes of previous meetings were read by Clerk Baker and filed.

The following ordinances and resolutions were adopted:

A resolution to pave the same thoroughfare between the streets designated in the foregoing.

The contract for curbing West Broadway was let to the Midland Bradge company, of Kansas City, at fifty-five cents per lineal foot.

An ordinance providing for a sewer district in Southeast Sedalia was defeated.

W. M. Johns, Charles Hoffman and Mrs. G. S. Hayden were confirmed as members of the City Cemetery association following their appointment by Mayor Babcock.

Alderman Brown's motion to have Clerk Baker advertise for bids for new city hall guttering carried.

It was ordered to have a watering trough placed at Main street and Grand avenue, and a permit was granted to Murray & Schmid to construct a platform alongside their building on Kentucky avenue.

After allowing all properly audited bills council adjourned.

FOLK WRITES LETTERS

Politicians Think Senatorial Race Is Between Reed and Francis.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 22.—Former Governor Folk, who has just returned to St. Louis from an extensive lecture tour, declines to discuss the Hadley-Stone controversy.

During the last two weeks the former governor has caused to be written letters to prominent democrats throughout the state asking their opinion as to his prospective senatorial candidacy.

This was the course followed by David R. Francis just prior to his entering the senatorial race.

Both Francis and Reed are convinced Folk will be defeated. They profess to be little concerned over the strength of the prohibition forces with whom Folk has been a favorite on account of his uncompromising anti-saloon attitude.

In generally well informed political circles the report is current that eventually the senatorial race will lie between Francis and Folk, as with the entrance of the latter it is thought the Kansas City man will retire from the race.

AMUSEMENTS

AT WOOD'S OPERA HOUSE.

"Brewster's Millions" Tonight.

Theatergoers and book readers who have read the famous "Brewster's Millions" story by George Barr McCutcheon, will be delighted with the announcement that the dramatic version of the book will be presented at Wood's Opera house tonight.

Practically the same cast and production that assisted in winning fame and sucess for the play during its long runs in New York and Chicago will be seen in its entirety.

The compulsory dissipation of the million dollars in one year by Montgomery Brewster has made the whole country laugh.

The claim is justly made that the ship scene with the storm at sea in the third act completely overshadows any stage picture ever presented. Frederick Thompson, the manager and proprietor of the attraction, has amply demonstrated the fact in his productions of a "Society Circus" and "A Yankee Circus on Mars," at the New York Hippodrome, that he is the greatest living master of startling stage illusions that this country has yet produced. In the great third act scene of "Brewster's Millions" Mr. Thompson has by the manipulation of complicated mechanical devices and electricity produced the effect of angry waves mountains high and the audience can easily imagine itself on shipboard, so perfectly is the illusion presented and carred out.

"Isle of Spice" Tomorrow Night.

B. C. Whitney's gloom-dispelling musical production, "Isle of Spice," which comes to Wood's Opera House Wednesday, February 23, is said to be a most pretentious one and is described as a piquant musical mixture, and is considered to be one of the best singing organizations on the road. Some of the genuine whistleable song hits are: "The Goo-Goo Man," "The Broomstick Witches," "Peggy Brady," "You and I," "Little Maid of Nicobar," "How Can You Tell Till You Try," "Uncle Sam's Marines," and others. The company is a large one, including a strong cast of stage favorites, and a chorus that is noted as being the prettiest, sprightly and most graceful singing and dancing combination on the stage today.

SEDALIA THEATRE.

"Little Johsny Jones."

The return of the popular Cohen musical comedy success. "Little Johnny Jones," at the Sadalia theater Wednesday night conveys with the announcement so much genuine pleasure to our theatergoers, and has already excited so much interest with the general public that it is an assured fact that the theater will be crowded to its utmost capacity on this occasion. "Little Johnny Jones," by its long run in New York and Chicago, with the important engagements in Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore and St. Louis, and all the leading cities, firmly established itself as one of the most notable attractions in America. It is described as one of the crispest, snappiest and brightest musical comedies this country has witnessed for several years. It is said to be superior to the majority of its kind in that it has more of a story than have they. The twenty musical numbers by the author of the play, George M. Cohan, grew out of the situations. Thus the play takes on a consistency and unity which are usually wasting in the average musical comedy. The production is sumptuously mounted, while the cast and chorus number over fifty people, and is one of the largest and most expensive organizations on tour this season.

Persons indebted to the Sedalia Awning and Mattress Co. will please call and settle by March 1 and oblige. —Bryan & Gross, Proprietors.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 22.—Carrie Montgomery, 17 years old, in following two desperate highwaymen over a mile through a lonesome stretch of river front, known as "Sand Town," in Kansas City, Kan., yesterday evening, caused the capture of Joseph Call, better known as "Sheff" Call, and George Holt, his companion, who had attacked Elijah Montgomery, the girl's father, within sight of his home and robbed him of $50.25.

According to eye witnesses, the attack on Montgomery, who is 60 years old, was one of the boldest daylight robberies ever attempted in the city.

DIVORCE SEEKER SCORED

"Defendant Only Wants to Protect Her Name," Idaho Judge Says.

Boise, Idaho, Feb. 22.—Consternation was thrown into the Idaho colony of divorce seekers yesterday by the decision of Judge Fremont Wood in the case of Valentine Winters, a Dayton, O., traction magnate, against Helen Clegg Winters for divorce.

Judge Wood denied the decree on the ground that the plaintiff did not legally establish a residence in Idaho, but came for the purpose of invoking the aid of the courts to get a decree of divorce.

Judge Wood not only denies the decree because of the non-residence of the plaintiff, but finds that the preponderance of evidence is in favor of the defendant, who, the court says, "seeks only to protect her good name and that of her children."

The decision states that the evident purpose of the plaintiff in attempting to secure a divorce was to marry another woman."

DIVORCE PETITION FILED

Says Burford Wanted His Wife to Marry Another Man.

La Crosse, Wis., Feb. 22.—In her divorce action against William B. Burford, Mrs. Elizabeth Burford testified in circuit court that on January 18 her husband interrupted a dinner party at which he and Milton Kerr, a local singer, were present, and after driving all the rest of the guests from the room with a revolver, pointed the weapon at Kerr's head in her presence, saying he intended to get a divorce and that if Kerr did not marry Mrs. Burford within a year, he would blow Kerr's brains out.

Mrs. Burford is one of the most beautiful women in the state. The Burfords are prominent in La Crosse society.

NEVER COLLECTED HIS FEE

Amateur Effort of Young Lawyer Went Unrewarded, But Perhaps There's a Reason.

William Henry Marlatt went into the practice of the law before he was admitted to the bar, but the lawyer's union has never objected to him on that account. It was in the summer of '92 after his graduation from the Yale law school and before he had been admitted to practice in this state, that he found a man in jail in Lebanon, O., who was playing checkers with his nose because of a conflict between himself and the statute relating to horse stealing. Marlatt discovered some irregularity in the commitment papers and started habeas corpus proceedings which set his man at liberty.

They walked out of the courthouse into the street, where the man asked the young lawyer to state the amount of his fee, which information was furnished him without delay. The man hadn't the money with him, having been in jail, but he said he'd send it at once.

"My best advice to you," said the lawyer, "is to hotfoot it out of town as fast as ever you can before the sheriff gets after you with a new set of papers."

"Mr. Marlatt," replied the man, "if God lets me live until Saturday night I'll see that you get that money." And he started down the street on a run.

They never arrested the fellow, but Marlatt is certain sure God didn't let him live, because he never sent the money. He just started off on a run and for all anybody knows he ran himself to death. However, Mr. Marlatt recalls his first experience at the bar with mingled emotions as he mentions the fee he earned but never got.—Cleveland Leader.

STOMACH DEAD MAN STILL LIVES

People who suffer from sour stomach, fermentation of food, distress after eating and indigestion, and seek relief in large chunks of artificial digestors, are killing their stomachs by inaction just as surely as the victim of morphine is deadening and injuring beyond repair every nerve in his body.

What the stomach of every sufferer from indigestion needs is a good prescription that will build up his stomach, put strength, energy and elasticity into it and make it sturdy enough to digest a hearty meal without artificial aid.

The best prescription for indigestion ever written is sold by druggists everywhere and by the W. E. Bard Drug Co., and is rigidly guaranteed to build up the stomach and cure indigestion, or money back.

This prescription is named Mi-o-na and is sold in small tablet form in large boxes for only 50 cents. Remember the name, Mi-o-na stomach tablets. They never fail. They contain ingredients that give quick relief (other than strong digesters), but they are compounded for the purpose of making the stomach strong and energetic enough to do its work without the aid of harmful drugs.

HYOMEI (PRONOUNCED HIGH-O-ME)

Cures catarrh or money back. Just breathe it in. Complete outfit, including inhaler $1. Extra bottles 50c. Druggists.

Life of English Princess.

Princess Mary of Wales, who in future will have a little suite of rooms of her own at Marlborough house, is in her thirteenth year. She is tall and strong for a girl of her age and is endowed with excellent brains. She is now to have two governesses, but her education will, it is said, not be so strenuous as that of her aunts, daughters of the king and queen of England, who had to go in seriously for mathematics, in spite of their objections to the study. Princess Mary is fond of fishing and of all sorts of out-of-door amusements. A few years ago she was a decided tomboy and her taste for adventure on land and water often made her lead her admiring brothers into situations from which they were extricated with some difficulty by their attendants.

New College Student Type.

The president of Columbia university in his annual report to the trustees, among other things said, goes on in this wise: "The new type of student, whether he knows it or not, goes to college primarily for a social and not an intellectual purpose." Of course you can't give a young man brains merely by sending him to college. Too many rah, rah students cannot be turned into scholars. Their brain can't stand it. It would be a grievous wrong to bring down all college students to a level of this class, so the committe on instruction of Columbia college is figuring out a plan, something like that at Oxford, of dividing the students into honor and pass men, so that anybody with the price can be a college man.

Gigantic Trust Begun.

In the construction of the Asbokan reservoir in the Catskills more than 6,000,000 cubic yards of earth must be spread in six-inch layers, moistened and rolled, eventually forming a dam 300 feet high in places and four miles long, and this work is being done by steam rollers, which is the first time they have been employed for such work. These machines have corrugated front rolls and cross-cleats on the rear rolls, so as thoroughly to knead the moist earth, and each covers the work done by 30 men, a dozen teams and a cableway, and is guaranteed against breakdown in continuous work for seven years.

A Maine Hunter.

With 45 notches in his trusty gun as reminders of his skill in bringing down deer, "West" Adams of Miles' Notch, up in Oxford county, is a typical hunter. He has shot 22 bears in his life, and he has no mean helper in the person of his good wife, who assists in setting traps and can shoot, too. Both are ardent naturalists and understand wood lore thoroughly. A son of 14 years has never seen an electric car or steam engine, but he can shoot, and both he and his mother know where the fishing is best in the mountain streams near their cosy cabin in the ravine.—Kennebec Journal.

LOST KANSAS CASE BEFORE THE HIGHEST FEDERAL TRIBUNAL.

IT WANTED TO RUN A MIXED TRA N

Constitutionality of Act Creating Commission Is Upheld, and Road Must Obey Order to Operate Train at Loss.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 22.—Upholding the constiutionality of the law creating the railroad commission of Kansas, the supreme court of the United States yesterday affirmed the judgment of the supreme court of Kansas in issuing an injunction to compel the Missouri Pacific to operate a passenger train from Madison to the Kansas-Missouri state line.

The court held that, even if the operation of this passenger train was at a loss, the railroad was under a duty to perform such service as long as it retained its charter.

The matter first came to the attention of the courts of Kansas when the railroad commission asked that the railroad be compelled to obey its order requiring it to operate a separate passenger train service on its Madison branch from the state line between Kansas and Missouri and Madison, Kas.

The company answered that the revenues from the branch did not warrant separate service, and if the deficit in such a service was to be met by business elsewhere the property of the railroad would be confiscated in violation of the constitution.

The railway attacked the constitutionality of the law creating the railroad commission as an attempt of the legislature to delegate executive authority to it.

American Conductor Will Be Released From Mexican Prison.

Guadaliajara, Mexico, Feb. 22.—Bond in the sum of $2,000 gold was furnished yesterday for James A. Cook, the American conductor who has been in the state penitentiary here for several months, charged with criminal carelessness in connection with freight train robberies.

Certain formalities required by Mexican law before the release of a prisoner will have to be followed before Cook will be given his liberty. But it is probable that he will leave the prison today or Wednesday at the latest. The bond has been accepted by the court. Cook's home is at Fort Scott, Kan.

A Few Pertinent Remarks.

In catering to high class custom it is imperative, not only that the workmanship in the garment be perfect, but also that the material used is of the highest quality and of the utmost reliability.

These essentials are found in the patterns shown by Weisburgh, Custom Tailor, who is ever alert to meet the requirements of the most exacting, particularly in fabrics, fit and workmanship.

Mr. Weisburgh invites the public to call and inspect his suitings for spring and summer, which bear a distinction and individuality only to be found at his establishment—213 Ohio street.

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 322.

Hundreds of men do not AIM to get drunk, but they meet a friend and both go into a saloon and by one treating and then another and then a THIRD comes in and by the time all have gone around they are drunk. Put the saloon out of their way and many of them will not sneak around and cause some one to violate a criminal law to get drunk. Here is a little proof along this line. Notice the difference in the number of arrests for drunks. That is a help, certainly. Rockford is the city in question.

PROSPECT GOOD FOR ELECTRIC LINE FROM CARTHAGE TO SPRINGFIELD.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Promoters of the electric line between Carthage and Springfield are confident that the line will be built in the near future. F. C. Yentsch, of Mount Vernon, has been making an inspection of the proposed route, and says that conditions are in excellent shape for the road. In speaking of the matter he said:

"Clubs to boost the project have been organized along the route, and much enthusiasm is manifested. A number of farmers have donated a right of way. If the road is built the wonderful cave at Paris Springs will probably be opened and electric lights installed, which should prove a great attraction for sightseers.

"A big feature of the road will be the building of an automobile highway the entire distance between Carthage and Springfield. It is proposed to grade this highway at the same time the grading is done for the roadbed. Within five years there should be at least 1,000 automobiles in the two cities, and such a road would be one of the finest for autos in the entire southwest."

Walton to Succeed Alvord.

President and General Manager A. A. Allen, of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, yesterday announced that J. W. Walton, acting general superintendent of the Texas lines, with headquarters at Dallas, would be transferred to St. Louis to succeed E. M. Alvord, general superintendent, who has resigned to go to the Midland Valley as general manager.

The appointment is effective at once. Mr. Walton's successor in Texas has not yet been announced.

Missouri Pacific Has a Wreck.

The road was tied up for a number of hours.

Robert C. Morris, president of the club, and Collector Loeb have forwarded a tentative plan to Mr. Roosevelt. A cable message in reply is expected as soon as the former president reaches Khartoum.

President Taft was proposed for membership in the club last night by Mr. Morris and his nomination seconded by Otto T. Bannard.

FINDS STRYCHNINE

CHEMIST DISCOVERS CHEMICAL IN THE VISCERA OF PROF. J. T. VAUGHN.

GRAND JURY BE CALLED AT ONCE

Analysis By Missouri University Expert Discloses Presence of Grain of Poison—Details Are Withheld.

Paris, Mo., Feb. 22.—Poison was found in the viscera of Prof. J T. Vaughn, educator and author, in an analysis made by Dr. Paul Schweitzer of the University of Missouri.

Although copies of the chemist's report, which were received yesterday by Coroner Wilson, of Monroe county, and Prosecuting Attorney Reigger, of Adair county, have not been made public. It is known that strychnine was found in the liver, stomach and contents of the stomach of the professor. The kidneys were not examined.

The total amount found is said to be nearly one grain. One-fiftieth of a grain is the average medicinal dose.

A qualitative analysis was made to determine whether poison, and what kind, was administered to the educator, and a quantitative test to determine the amount.

The grand jury of Adair county, according to a long distance telephone message last night, will be immediately called and indictments are expected to follow in the case.

The analysis confirms the diagnosis of the Vaughn family physician. Dr. Martin, of Kirksville, where Prof. Vaughn died last October.

Attorneys on both sides would not make a definite statement last night on the report of the analysis.

Prof. Vaughn, who occupied the chair of American history at the State Normal school in Kirksville, was widely known as an educator and writer on historical subjects.

When he died under mysterious circumstances in October his friends, including President John R. Kirk of the Normal school, started an investigation. President Kirk has been particularly active in prosecuting the inquiry. He was a close friend of Prof. Vaughn, as well as an educational associate.

Mrs. Vaughn is related to several of the wealthiest families in North Missouri, as was her husband.

Plan $20,000 School Building.

Windsor, Mo., Feb. 22.—Citizens of Windsor will vote on the proposition of issuing $20,000 in bonds in the near future for the erection of a new high school building.

When the matter was first considered it was thought that $25,000 would be necessary, but it was finally agreed to only put $20,000 in the building.

On this basis it will be possible for the school to be built without an increase of a penny in the rate of taxation.

GOOD-BY, "WORKING GIRLS"

More Dignified "Young Lady Employed" Is to Take Her Place.

Chicago, Feb. 22.—"The working girl" is tabooed, and hereafter is to be replaced by "the young lady employed." The West End Woman's club is responsible for this change, which was announced officially yesterday.

For several weeks the club members have agitated an "open door" Sunday afternoons, when "young ladies employed" can meet in the club house for reading and writing, musical recreation, and general relief from their week's labors.

It was urged that they should also be allowed to receive their friends of the other sex, but this amendment was voted down.

BALLOTS' RECOUNT

STONE SAYS HE IS WILLING IF HADLEY'S ELECTION ALSO IS GIVEN AIRING.

CONSENTS TO AN EXTRA SESSION

Asks That Executive Give Bond to Pay Costs If His Charges Are Unfounded—Statement Issued Last Night.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 22.—In a signed statement issued last nigat, covering all the latest phases of their controversy, Senator Stone agrees to recount the ballots cast for senator in St. Louis if Gov. Hadley will try the case in court.

Upon condition that the legislature is convened to consider this question only, Stone agrees to a special session which would pass a law authorizing a recount, although the senator frankly says he thinks such a law would be unconstitutional and void.

Whatever course be adopted, Stone stipulates that the vote for governor as well as for senator be recounted.

"I believe," says Stone last night, aiming the same charge at Hadley which Hadley leveled at him, "if frauds were committed at all in St. Louis, they were committed almost wholly in Hadley's interest."

If a recount of the St. Louis vote should show that Stone was not nominated for senator over Folk, Stone will resign. But if a recount shows that Hadley was not elected over Cowherd, Stone now requires that Hadley resign. Stone hits hard at Hadley in driving this feature of the proposed bargain.

"According to the official returns when Gov. Folk and I reached St. Louis, I was ahead," says the senator, "but when Hadley and Cowherd reached St. Louis, Hadley was behind."

Last night's statement by Stone begins by treating some of Hadley's often-reiterated misstatements about election figures. Stone shows that Hadley's statistics do not agree with the official figures furnished by Secretary of State Roach.

Stone then meets Hadley's proposal for a recount. The senator laughs at Hadley's suggestion that the St. Louis election commissioners, Hadley's appointees, do the counting. These men, says Stone, have no more right to fulfill this function than Hadley's private secretary, Tom Marks, of Kansas City, and "Jep" Howe, of St. Louis, would have.

"Very naturally," remarks Stone, "I feel constrained to decline this gubernatorial controversy." Stone refuses to submit the issue to Hadley's friends and appointees. "What a wonderfully impartial and just man Hadley is, and also how very cute," Stone exclaims.

Stone declares Hadley's suggestion that he will call an extra session of the legislature as "too contemptible to notice if it did not come from the governor of the state." The senator says that this course plainly aims to do an unconstitutional thing. "If Hadley wants to spend possibly $75,000 of the people's money for a wild goose chase of this kind," says Stone, "it is up to him to do it."

Stone refuses to assume any responsibility for calling the legislature, but consents in case Hadley wants to undertake it, if no other business shall be submitted at the special session and if the law passed calls for a count of the gubernatorial as well as the senatorial vote.

Then Stone outlines his proposition to review the ballots in court. He agrees that it be in any court of competent jurisdiction. But he requires that Hadley file sufficient bond to pay all costs if it is found that Stone was nominated for senator.

The Stomach and How To Cure Its Ills, Free

More thought is being given to the stomach today than to any other organ. Dieting and a hundred other things are suggested, but the fact remains that we have to eat and that in the main we are eating the same food today that has been eaten for hundreds of years. The point, then, is to find a way of remedying an evil when we find it.

There comes a time in the lives of all of us when a laxative is necessary, only with some this requirement occurs more frequently than with others. But whether the occasion is frequent or rare it is important that you take a simple, natural remedy. The farther you get away from the man-made tablet or pill and the salty purgative water the better. You want something that combines the virtues of a laxative and tonic, something that is sure in its effect and yet pleasant to the taste, a remedy containing earth-grown vegetables and plants. Such is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, now for nearly a quarter of a century a recognized household friend in thousands of homes.

The world affords no better cure for constipation and liver trouble, for indigestion and sour stomach, for sick headache and flatulency than this remedy. But in addition to its laxative value it contains ingredients that have a tonic action in strengthening and invigorating the muscles of the stomach and bowels. That is what the majority need—a tonic laxative. But so there may be no doubt about what it will do in your case, Dr. Caldwell will gladly send you a sample bottle free of charge upon receipt of your name and address. Then, if it pleases you, you can buy it of your druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, just as thousands of others are doing. J. H. Funderburg, Sansaba, Tex., not only uses it with good success himself, but gives it to his children, for owing to its mildness and agreeable taste there is no better laxative for children. S. P. Mead, Waucoma, Ia., has also found it a good family remedy.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R.509 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

WOMAN'S WOES

Sedalia Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. M. H. Rodreick, 1904 S. Lamine St., Sedalia, Mo., says: "I was troubled off and on for two years by a pain in my back. Any exertion tired me and I noticed that the trouble was worse during cold or damp weather. At night I could not rest well and I was at a loss to know what to do. At last I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and had my husband procure a box for me at Bard's drug store. I was soon cured through their use and during the seven years that have since passed, I have been free from the trouble."

S.S.S. NATURE'S CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

In a disease so painful as Rheumatism, medicines containing opiates and nerve-quieting drugs are often used. Such treatment is dangerous not only because it frequently causes the sufferer to become addicted to the drug habit, but medicines of this nature are always injurious to the system. Rheumatism is a disease of the blood, and its cure depends entirely upon a thorough purification of the circulation. As long as the blood remains saturated with uric acid, an inflammatory condition of the nerves, muscles and tendons of the body will exist, and the pains, aches, soreness, and hot, feverish flesh of Rheumatism will continue. The one safe and sure cure for Rheumatism is S. S. S. It is nature's remedy for this disease, made entirely of the healing, cleansing juices and extracts of roots, herbs and barks from the natural forests. S. S. S. does not contain anything that is in the slightest way injurious to the system. It is absolutely and purely vegetable, and free from opiates or sedatives of any kind. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by removing the uric acid from the circulation, it makes the blood pure, rich and healthy so that instead of depositing sharp, uratic impurities into the muscles, nerves, joints and bones, it nourishes every portion of the body with natural, healthful properties. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write and request it.

The Two Salvations!

Text, "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."—John 3:16.

"Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it, that he might sanctify and cleanse it by the washing of water by the Word."—Eph. 5:25-27.

Correspondence Democrat-Sentinel

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 20. — Pastor Charles T. Russell, of the Brooklyn tabernacle, preached twice here today in our largest auditorium to "The Bible Students' convention." The large audience seemed deeply interested. He said:

Some apply the first text only and think of the Divine program as being merely an endeavor to rescue mankind from sin and death to righteousness and eternal life in the present time. Such as hold this view are much confused, because it must be acknowledged that comparatively little has been done, or is now being done, for man's uplift. After six thousand years it is still true that "The whole world lieth in the wicked one," "Darkness covers the earth and gross darkness the heathen." In order to have any confidence at all in this theory those who hold it are obliged to greatly lower their standards. They are forced to hope that God will admit millions of unfit people, crude, rude, ignorant and wicked, to eternal life and happiness, or perchance provide for them Pergatorial experiences to make them fit, righteous and acceptable for life eternal. As a whole christian people are greatly bewildered. The tendency of their bewilderment is toward doubt, skepticism, atheism.

The other view briefly stated is that God never intended the salvation of the world, but merely the salvation of the church, elect according to the foreknowledge of God and santification of the spirit and belief in the truth. Those who hold this theory have great confusion also, because it seems incomprehensible that God would make no provision for "thousands of millions" of Adam's race, but arrange for them to be born in sin, shapen in iniquity, and to go down to the tomb (or worse) without a clear knowledge of God and His purposes and will respecting them.

As we have already frequently set forth, both of the described theories are erroneous. The Scriptures set forth two salvations, entirely separate and distinct. They are different as respects time, in that the one "salvaion began to be spoken by our Lord" at His first advent, and began to be applicable to His church at Pentecost, and will wholly cease at His second coming in the end of this age. The other salvation neither applied before our Lord's first advent nor during this Gospel age, but will apply to all mankind, except the church, during the Millennium— the thousand years of the reign of Christ and the church, especially designed for the blessing of the world and its uplifting out of sin and death conditions.

These two salvations are distinctly different as to kind as well as respects their plan of operation. The salvation of the church during this Gospel age, since Pentecost, means not only a deliverance from sin and death conditions to eternal life, but provides that the eternal life will be on the heavenly or spiritual plane and not on the earthy or human plane of existence. Thus the apostle declares that our "inheritance is incorruptible and undefiled and fadeth not away, and is reserved in heaven for us who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation" (I Peter 1, 4-5). Our Lord also told that in the resurrection we shall be like unto angels. The apostle also declares that ultimately we shall be partakers of the Divine nature and like our Lord and Redeemer.

Hence, all who participate in this salvation of this Gospel age are Scripturally spoken of as new creatures in Christ Jesus, whose "citizenship is in heaven." These are assured that at the Lord's second coming they will constitute the first resurrection class. They are guaranteed that only the blessed and holy will have part therein, and that all participating in that first resurrection will be royal priests unto God and unto Christ and reign with Him a thousand years (Rev. xx, 6).

They are assured that the transformation of mind which they now experience through the begetting of the Holy Spirit will, in their resurrection, result in a complete transformation, providing them with spirit bodies. Thus it is written of their resurrection: "It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power; it is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory; it is sown an animal body; it is raised a spiritual body" (I Cor xv. 42-44). Of those who will share in the church's salvation the apostle says, "We shall not all sleep, but must all be changed," because "flesh and blood can not inherit the kingdom of God" (I Cor. xv 50-51).

The world's salvation which will follow will be wholly different from this. It will not include a change of nature from earthly to spiritual nature. It will mean a rescue from sin and death to the earthly perfection of the original man, in the image and likeness of his Creator, and surrounded by every necessary blessing for his comfort. Human perfection and the Eden home were lost through disobedience to God. The Divine arrangement is that the merit of our Lord's obedience unto death, when ultimately applied for mankind, shall fully cancel the death sentence upon him. More and better than this, God has promised that the same sin-offering shall seal a new covenant between Himself and mankind The blessings of that new covenant arrangement will then immediately begin. The great Redeemer will thenceforth be the great Mediator of that new covenant. The whole world of mankind will be fully under His supervision and government for their blessing, their correction in righteousness, their uplifting out of sin and death conditions—back, back, back to all that was lost in Eden. All of this was the original design of the great Creator. All of this will be outworked through the great Redeemer. All of this was secured, or suretied, through His death, finished at Calvary (Hebrews vii, 22.)

St. Peter, pointing down to that glorious time of the world's blessing, calls it " times of refreshing and times of restitution." He tells us that all the holy prophets described the blessings of those restitution times—the thousand years, the Millennium (Acts iii, 19-21). When once we get the eyes of our understanding opened, we find the Apostle's words thoroughly corroborated by the Divine records, which describe the wonderful blessings that are to come when the earth shall yield her increase. Then Paradise Lost shall be Paradise Regained. Then God will make his earthly footstool glorious. Then the blessing of the Lord shall make rich and he will add no sorrow therewith. Then streams shall break forth in the desert and the wilderness and solitary places shall be glad. But most glorious will be the changes in humanity. The Lord promises to turn to the people a "pure message"—instead of the contradiction of creeds of heathenism and Churchianity. He promises that Satan shall be bound for that thousand years, that he may deceive the nations no more. He promises that then all the "blinded eyes shall be opened and all the deaf ears shall be unstopped." (Isaiah xxxv, 5; Corinthians iv. 4.)

Two Salvations—One Savior.

Both of these salvations, according to the Bible, result from the death of Jesus our Redeemer, who died in obedience to the Divine will. "Died, the Just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God" (I Peter iii, 18). The Scriptures clearly show not only the two salvations, but also two parts of the Redeemer's work, distinctly separating his work for the Church from his work for the world. In his death there was a Divine general provision for the sins of the whole world and a special provision for the sins of the Church. The two thoughts are frequently brought out in the Scriptures. One text distinctly declares, "He is the propitiation [satisfaction] for our sins [the Church's sins], and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." His death constituted the satisfaction price. The Redeemer applied that merit for the Church's sins, "for us," long ago, eighteen centuries before we were born. Only when we became believers and entered into a Covenant of sacrifice did we obtain our share in the merit of that great sacrifice. The world has not yet received its share of that promised blessing, but the operation of the Divine Plan is sure and will bring it to them "in due time," as St. Paul declares (I Timothy ii, 6).

The drawing and calling of the Church has not been along the lines of human perfection, for all are sinners and none righteous or perfect. And many of those drawn of the Lord were by nature more fallen and depraved than some who give no evidenct of the work of grace in their hearts. The Lord's calling and drawing seem to be along the lines of justice, love of righteousness, faith, humanity and obedience. These qualities will all belong to the perfect man. But all have lost them in varying degrees. Such as respond to the Lord's call now are accepted as being in the right heart attitude which, if they had perfect bodies, would constitute them perfect men. In other words, they have qualities of heart which, if brought to a knowledge of the Truth, would prove some of them to be pure in heart and such as the Lord would desire should have eternal life and all of his favors. But more are called and drawn by God's providences and the preaching of his message than he designs to save in the present salvation. He is choosing a very select class for a very special purpose and therefore makes the terms and conditions of their salvation extremely difficult. As a consequence we read, "Many are called, but few chosen"—under this "high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

Terms of Salvation Differ.

Of course, these different salvations imply different terms or conditions. God's requirement of Adam, that he might continue to live forever and everlastingly enjoy Divine favor, his Eden Home, etc., was obedience to reasonable, just requirements. It was his violation of the Divine Law that brought upon him the sentence of death—"Dying thou shalt die"—with all that this has implied to him and his posterity of mental, moral and physical decline, weakness, death. The requirement of God for the world of mankind during the Millennial Age will similarly be—obedience to God's just, reasonable regulations, laws. Whoever then will render obedience may with proportionate rapidity go up on the highway of holiness toward perfection at its end. Whoever refuses obedience to the extent of his ability will fail to make progress and ultimately die the Second Death, from which there will be no redemption and no resurrection.

Such obedience as will be required of mankind in the great Mediator's Kingdom will include their co-operation in the resistance of their own fallen weakness. It will include the exercise of patience and kindness towards their fellow-creatures, fellow-sufferers. The Divine Law of love to God with all the heart, mind, soul, strength and for the neighbor as for one's self they must learn fully. As they will realize their own blemishes and strive to overcome them and ask, not the Father, but the Mediator for forgiveness, they will be obliged to follow the Divine rule of exercising towards others similar mercy and forgiveness to that which they desire for themselves. But they will not be required to enter into the covenant of self-sacrifice, self-denial, etc. All the blessings of God on the earthly plane will be for them fully and freely to use and enjoy, in harmony with the Divine regulation.

The conditions governing the salvation of the church are wholly differ-

A SQUARE-DEAL

Is assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and these are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless—even to the most delicate women and children.

Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better agent is used both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles in them, viz.—pure triple-refined glycerine. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and antiferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or other organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures even the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang-on-coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

To find out more about the above mentioned diseases and all about the body in health and disease, get the Common Sense Medical Adviser—the People's Schoolmaster in Medicine—revised and up-to-date book of 1000 pages—which treats of diseased conditions and the practical, successful treatment thereof. Cloth-bound sent post-paid on receipt of 31 cents in one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

GRAND JURY ADJOURNS

No One Is Blamed for a Killing at Cairo, Illinois.

Cairo, Ill., Feb. 22.—After a session of three hours the coroner's jury returned a verdict at 6:30 o'clock last night, in which no individual deputy sheriff was named in connection with the investigation of the death of Alexander Halliday, who was killed in the mob Thursday night, seeking the life of John Pratt, the negro purse snatcher.

The verdict, which is plainly a compromise, found that Halliday came to his death by a gunshot wound caused by a weapon held in the hands of one of Sheriff Fred D. Nellis' deputies, fired from the north window of the circuit clerk's office in the courthouse.

No censure is placed against the deputies for the death of Halliday and neither is Halliday censured for being a member of the mob.

A few minutes delay in treating some cases of croup, even the length of time it takes to go for a doctor, often proves dangerous. The safest way is to keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and at the first indication of croup, give the child a dose. Pleasant to take and always cures. Sold by all dealers.

PEOPLE'S PULPIT

ent from those which will appertain to the world. The church is called out of the world under a Divine invitation to suffer with Christ in the present life and during this Gospel Age and then to reign with Christ during the Millennial Age, participating in his Mediatorial Kingdom for the blessing, uplifting, salvation of the world. It is not in vain, therefore, that our Lord and the apostles, in setting forth the call of the church during this age, specified particularly and frequently the necessity for all who would share in this salvation to participate with the Redeemer in his sacrificing, in "his death," and consequently participate in "his resurrection" and in his reign of glory. Hark to the words, "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life;" "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my Throne;" "And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple" (Luke xiv, 27). Let us remember our Lord's words to the disciples James and John, respecting a place in his Millennial Throne. He intimated that the getting to the Throne at all, in any place, would imply great humility and self-sacrifice. He asked the disciples, "Are ye able (willing) to drink of the cup that I shall drink of and to be baptized with the baptism (into death) that I am baptized with? (Mark x, 38). Hearken again. This cup of which he tells us we must drink, if we would sit in his Throne, is his communion cup. It is offered, not to the world, but to his consecrated followers. It is not another cup, but "My Cup." The invitation was, "This is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Drink ye all of it" (Matthew xxvi, 28, 27). It must all be drunk before the many, the world, can get their share of the intended blessing through the New Covenant, which this blood seals. And only those who desire to walk in his steps, are invited to drink of that cup. All of them are so invited and they will drink all of it. None of it will be left for the world during the Millennial Age to drink. It is a special privilege to drink of this cup. With the drinking of it goes the special blessing of the special salvation of this Gospel Age. Except we eat of his flesh (appropriate the merit of his sacrifice), and unless we drink his blood (join in sacrifice with him), we have no life in us—inherent life, immortality.

So far as our hearts and minds are concerned at the time of our consecration they must be fully given up to the Lord ere he will accept them. We could be no more fully consecrated if we had absolutely perfect bodies and were absolutely free from all the entailment of Adam's condemnation. But God's requirement is that no sacrifice may come upon his altar, except such as is without spot or blemish. Hence he could not accept our offering, our consecration, even though it were as completely and fully made as was our dear Redeemer. Hence his first provision was that the righteousness of Christ should be imputed to us on account of our faith and obedience, in order to permit us to offer sacrifices holy and acceptable to God (Malachi iii, 3; Romans xii, 1).

This view of our participation in the Redeemer's merit separately and apart from the world's participation in it—by faith and imputation of merit and not actually—the Bible declares to be a "mystery," which not many are able to discern—only the spiritually-minded—only the spirit-begotten. Those who can see and hear and understand the terms and conditions of this great salvation of this Gospel Age are specially blessed—"Blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear" Matthew xiii, 16). To see, to hear, to understand, that glory, honor, immortality eternal life on the spirit plane, are the rewards of a few years of self-denial and self-sacrifice, is to hear of a pearl of great price, of which few know. And to know of that pearl and not to be willing to sell all that we have to obtain it would demonstrate to the Father our unworthiness of life on this high plane. We exhort so many as see and hear and appreciate, in the words of the Apostle, "Let us make our calling and election sure" by a full and hearty compliance with the gracious high calling of which we have learned and which our hearts have accepted (II Peter i, 10).

A tickling or dry cough can be quickly loosened with Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. No opium, no chloroform, nothing unsafe or harsh. Sold by D. I. Wilcox.

HOW TO PREVENT FRUIT FROM ROTTING ON TREES IS EXPLAINED.

HORTICULTURE BOARD BULLETIN

Pamphlet Treating Subpject in Full Will Be Sent Free Upon Application to Mr. Howard at Columbia, Mo.

W. L. Howard, secretary of the State Board of Horticulture, sends the Democrat-Sentinel the following on "How to Prevent Peaches from Rotting," with the request that it be given publicity:

At last we have a remedy for preventing the peach rot which so often sweeps away the crop just as it is ripening. This is a solution known as self-boiled lime-sulphur.

Heretofore nothing could be done to prevent the spread of the rot because the usual spraying materials caused too much injury to the leaves of the trees.

An inspect known as curculio helps to spread the rot by gouging holes in the peaches. Sometimes this bug punches holes in the fruit for the purpose of depositing its eggs, but more often it seems to do so out of pure deviltry. The rot generally starts from these wounds.

Paris green would poison the curculio, but it injures the foliage of the tree. Likewise Bordeaux mixture would control the rot. but it is even more disastrous to the leaves than Paris green. As a substitute for Paris green a poison known as lead arsenate is used and it has lately been found by the U. S. Department of Agriculture that it can be combined with the newly discovered self-boiled lime-sulphur solution and both sprayed on the trees at the same time, thus controlling both the insect and the disease.

Self-boiled lime-sulphur is prepared as follows for 100 gallons: Place 16 pounds of fresh lime in a barrel and almost cover with water. Weigh out 16 pounds of sulhpur and run through a sieve to break up the lumps. As the lime begins to slake add the sulphur, stirring it is. Continue stirring and add more water as needed to form a thick paste at first and then gradually a thin paste. The lime will supply enough heat to boil the mixture several minutes. As soon as the lime is well slaked enough cold water must be added to cool down the whole mixture or it will be ruined. Use enough water to bring the entire quantity of the mass up to 100 gallons.

Use 4 pounds of arsenate of lead to 100 gallons of water, if used alone, or to 100 gallons of the lime-sulphur if both are to be used at the same time.

Spray as follows:

First with the lead arsenate alone (4 pounds to 100 of water), when the shucks are shedding. The second spraying should come from two to three weeks later, or about one month after the petals drop, using the lime-sulphur and poison combined. The last application should be about one month before the fruit ripens, using the self-boiled lime-sulphur alone.

The cost of materials, labor and everything for three sprayings, as advised above, will amount to less than 5 cents per tree.

A pamphlet treating the above subject in full is being published and will be sent free upon application to W. L. Howard. secretary State Board of Horticulture, Columbia, Mo.

CAUSE OF ECZEMA EXPLAINED

After years of debate medical authorities are now agreed that Eczema and other skin diseases are not seated in the blood, but are caused by myriads of microscopic animals gnawing the flesh just below the epidermis. The patient is perfectly healthy, it is only the skin that is diseased.

Hence, scientists are now agreed that you must cure the skin through the skin. The medicine must be in liquid form in order to penetrate properly. And we can say with confidence that we have the true remedy for Eczema in our store.

The instant you wash with this soothing liquid you will find the itch relieved. We positively assure you of this. Will you try a bottle (at only 25c), on our recommendation? Ask for D. D. D. Prescription.

$300,000 IS HIDDEN

WOMAN MISER DIED AND IT IS BELIEVED SHE LEFT $250,000.

MAY FIND IT AT HOME IN MEMPHIS

Stood Guard at Her Store With Gun—No One Ever Saw the Recluse Leave Her House in Twenty Years.

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 22.—After searching since 2:30 a. m. yesterday, E. J. Halley, adopted son of Mrs. Johanna W. Madden, who died Sunday night, late last night found $30,000 in gold and silver and bills, which she had hidden about her rooms over her store.

For years neighbors of the miser have believed she had a fortune hidden, for she was not known to leave her rooms in the last twenty years. It is said by those familiar with her affairs that a fortune of at least $250,000 will be found before the search is over.

Mrs. Madden was 70 years old. Her husband died of yellow fever in the epidemic of 1878, leaving her a grocery store, which is now located in the heart of the city It was incumbered with a mortgage of $1,000, which she paid off.

She never went to a bank, but put her money away under carpets, behind pictures, in bags in mattresses, in stoves and in every receptacle which she had in the place.

When she adopted Halley, now 50 years old, Mrs. Madden trained him to conduct the store, and they hired no clerk and allowed no one to enter their living apartments.

For years she stood guard over her treasure with a shotgun, and when Halley would come to his meals she would meet him half way, transfer the gun and go to the store to stand watch.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I desire to say that when I took the agency for ZEMO, it was after a thorough investigation as to the merit and curative properties of this remedy for eczema, pimples and dandruff. I frankly admit, ZEMO has far exceeded my expectations as a cure for skin diseases. I am pleased to state that I shall continue the agency as ZEMO gives the bets satisfaction of any similar remedy I have ever sold. My customers like ZEMO because it is a clean, vegetable liquid for external use: ZEMO cures by drawing to the surface of the skin and destroying the germ life that causes the disease, leaving the skin clean and healthy. It does not soil the clothing or linens and can be used freely on infants.

We will give a booklet on skin diseases and explain to any person how they can be cured at home of any form of skin or scalp disease by this clean, scientific preparation.—Dan Wilcox, Druggist, 104 West Main.

STOLE THEIR GUNS

STATE FENCIBLES MADE REAL SPORT FOR THE PHILADELPHIA RIOTERS.

HAVE WRECKED 750 CARS TO DATE

Regalia Stripped From One of the "Extra Guards"—Girls Took Brass Buttons for Souvenirs and Wore Fencible Caps.

Philadelphia, Feb. 23.—Two boys were shot and probably fatally injured, while several received less severe wounds yesterday in riots which followed the resumption of service by the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company. The shooting occurred in attacks on cars in the northeastern section. President Murphy, of the Central Labor Union, still regards a general strike of all trade unions in the city as inevitable, although C. O. Pratt, leader of the car men, is reported to be opposing this move.

Members of the State Fencibles, an independent military organization about 200 strong, were placed on duty yesterday armed with loaded muskets. They were detailed in the Kensington mill district in the northeast, which is full of union sympathizers. In their first skirmish they were beaten badly by a mob, who paid no attention to the drawn bayonets and snatched the muskets from the hands of the young militiamen.

Members of the Fencibles, according to Mayor Rayburn, acted as if they were on a picnic, allowing girls in the mill district to wear their caps and cut the brass buttons off their clohing.

At one point a group of rioters captured a member of the Fencibles and carried him several feet from his post, where they strippd him of his coat, hat and cartridge belt and gun and threw them into a sewer.

Fifteen policemen quartered in the barn of the company at Ridge avenue and York street narrowly escaped death last night when the entire northeast corner of the building was blown away with dynamite. The explosion occurred just as C. O. Pratt was about to address a meeting of car men at a hall at Ridge avenue and Dauphin street.

The State Fencibles, after being harassed and beaten all day by a mob of thousands of strike sympathizers, were withdrawn at nightfall. The militia had been powerless against the mob, but a half dozen mounted police had ridden up and down driving the rioters before them during the afternoon.

Only two cars were run on the Lehigh Avenue line during the afternoon and both were badly shattered by stones. Policemen in this locailty were fired upon by a strike sympathizer who had concealed himself in St. Simon's church. This enraged the guardians of the peace and they returned the fire. W. E. Collins was struck by a bullet. The director of public safety, Mr. Clay, said last night that should outside assistance be required he would ask for the state constabulary before calling for the state militia.

According to a statement issued last night by the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company, the amount of damage done yesterday and the number of assaults by mobs were greater than on any previous day of the strike, although the territory covered by the cars of the company was less. Two hundred and ninety-five cars were wrecked, making a total of 750 cars which have been put out of service since the strike began. The number of cars operated today will, according to the company's statement, be regulated wholly by the extent of police protection.

An official of the comptny said last night:

"We have crews for 1,400 cars and could operate all lines from all depots. It is probable, however, that we shall not be able to run more than half the number of cars for which we have crews, as the police, in spite of the utmost efforts, have been unable to give us the proper protection."

THE MASTER'S DEGREE

Was Conferred on Two Candidates at Masonic Temple.

The Master Mason's degree was conferred on two candidates by the members of Sedalia lodge No. 236, A. F. and A. M., at the Masonic Temple Tuesday.

The degree work began promptly at 3 o'clock. One candidate took the degree during the afternoon and another at night.

Immediately after the first candidate had been initiated the members of the Order of Eastern Star served a select banquet at the Temple, at the close of which the degree work was resumed. The work was concluded at 10 o'clock last night.

One hundred members of the order witnessed the work, out-of-town members being here from Lexington, Concordia, Sweet Springs, Houstonia, Lamonte, Dresden, Otterville, Green Ridge, Cole Camp and other nearby towns.

Covers were laid for eighty at the supper.

FOLK IN THE RACE

DEMOCRATS BELIEVE FORMER GOVERNOR WILL AGAIN SEEK TOGA.

HE WAS VISITED BY SPEED MOSBY

His Boasted "Presidential Availability" Not Swallowed So Easily—Announcement Is Expected Very Soon.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 23.—That ex-Goxernor Joseph W. Folk will be a candidate for the democratic nomination for United States senator, and will announce his candidacy soon, is the opinion of Speed Mosby, who was pardon attorney under Folk when he was governor.

Mosby has just returned from St. Louis, where a conference of Folk's friends was held to talk over the situation. While some of them have advised him not to enter the field, and to become a candidate for president instead, most of Folk's friends have advised him to get into the race as soon as possible.

The old guard democrats have recently wasted much breath about Folk's presidential availability, this being done to influence him to stay out of the senatorial race. But their talk has been wasted. Folk's friends say he has not been deceived for a moment about the source of the talk, and will not forego his senatorial aspirations.

Even the followers of Reed and Francis in Jefferson City concede Folk's strength, and some of them freely admit that, with the three in the race, Folk will be the winner. The fact that Folk consented to a recount of the ballots in the senatorial race between himsef and Stone, while the latter wasted several thousand words blocking it, has not hurt Folk in the slightest in the estimation of democrats.

WOMEN IN SOCIETY

THE ARE RAKED OVER COALS BY THE REVEREND MR. F. L. WILLIAMS.

DOES NOT MINCE WORDS, EITHER

Chicago Methodist Parson Declares That by Far Too Many Will Aid Sick Dogs, but Neglect Destitute Children.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Society women who play bridge whist for the benefit of homeless dogs and cats and neglect destitute children living within their reach were criticised by the Rev. F. L. Williams, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal church in an address on "Chicago's Submerged Tenth" delivered at a conference of Methodist pastors in Wesley church.

Mr. Williams related how he had called up on the telephone the woman who recently had managed a bridge whist entertainment for the benefit of the homeless dogs and cats in her neighborhood.

"Was your entertainemnt a success" Mr. Williams inquired.

"O, yes," was the reply. "We had fifteen tables and the receipts were $212."

"How do you take care of the homeless dogs and cats?" was the next question.

"We nurse them if they are sick and when they get well we find some one who will buy or take them. We follow up every case and see that the dear things are well taken care of. If the poor creatures cannot get well we give them a painless death."

"I immediately called up the Home for Destitute Children," said Mr. Williams, "and I found many applicants were turned away from the home because there was no room for them. How I wished some of these poor children could get some of that dog money."

Mr. Williams also made a startling statement concerning the temptations to which young women are subjected.

"I have found men attending meetings at the mission," he said, "for the purpose of getting recruits for the red light district. I talked with one young woman whom I found singing on the vaudeville stage and I warned her against the temptations with which she was surrounded. 'O,' she said, 'I met with more temptation when I was working in one of the downtown stores as a model than I do here.'"

"As a result of the improved sanitary conditions under which society now lives as compared with twenty years ago, one insurance company has declared a dividend of $600,000 on policies thus benefited," was the declaration of the Rev. R. J. Wyckoff, pastor of Ravenswood Methodist church.

"This, I believe, illustrates the main work of the church. Instead of trying to cure people after they are sick, we ought to prevent them from becoming sick. Save a child and you save a life. Save a drunkard, and what have you, after all?"

SEVEN OVER 100 YEARS

Among the Number Is Frederick Saugrain, of Sedalia.

Missouri is reasonably well supplied with centenarians, as there are at least seven people in the state who have been enjoying life over one hundred years.

The last person to pass the century mark is Grandma Berensmeyer, of Richfountain, in Osage county. She has just celebrated her one hundredth birthday.

The other six centenarians are: Henry Dorman, Liberty, Mo., 111 years old; Mrs. Jane Hicks, Hendrickson, 100; Fred Saugrain, Sedalia, 103; Henry Green, Albany, 103; Mrs. Lucy Sanderson, DeWitt, 101; Mrs. Mary Kent Collor, Monroe City, 100, and William Brown, Stockton, 100.

CHIPS ARE DUE TO FLY

Sedalia Camp, M. W. A., to Have 12 New Choppers Tomorrow Night.

At the meeting of Sedalia camp No. 5570 of Modern Woodmen, tomorrow night, a class of twelve new choppers will be initiated and visitors from several other camps throughout the county will be present to assist in the work.

This order now has over 1,800 members in Pettis county, and its "skip" of an assessment for February meant over $3,000 of cash left in the county.

The new camp of Royal Neighbors recently organized as an auxiliary to this M. W. A. camp, known as Sedalia camp No. 6184, R. N. A., is in a flourishing condition and now has a membership of about thirty-five. After March 1 it will meet in K. of P. hall, East Fifth street, on second and fourth Thursday nights.

Another New Dwelling.

F. T. Leaming, city engineer, today issued a permit to J. W. Hogan a permit for the erection of a four-room cottage at the northwest corner of Tenth street and Montgomery avenue, the cost of the same to be $1,000. The residence will be ready for occupancy by June 1.

APPENDIX 8 1-2 IN.

ST. LOUIS PARTY CLAIMS TO HOLD THE RECORD IN THIS "LINE."

SHARON, PA., PATIENT NOT IN IT

Surgeons Living in the Mound City Scoff at East's Heralded Championship Record of Seven Inches in Length.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 25.—Local surgeons only smile at the claim of Sharon, Pa., to the championship in vermiform appendixes, with one 7 inches in length.

"Why, a 16-year-old St. Louis boy beat that by an inch a year ago," said Dr. Waldo Briggs, of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Tuesday.

George Thenn, a brother of the head nurse at Jefferson hospital, was the boy with the 8 inch appendix Still, his was not the largest appendix known to surgeons in St. Louis.

One eminent surgeon stated Tuesday he had taken an appendix from a prominent St. Louisian which was 8½ inches long, and he had heard of another that was still longer.

This St. Lousian, who might be a claimant for honors as having the largest known appendix in the world, loses out through fear of being embarrassed by publicity.

It is said that if local surgeons would only let their ethics allow them to do so, they could startle the east with appendix news.

Less than two months ago a man was operated on at Rebecca hospital and relieved of an appendix seven and one-half inches long. This man was Edward Potts, of Gillestie, Ill., a patient of Dr. F. A. Renner, of Benid, Ill. The operation was performed Dec. 3.

From an appendix point of view the east is a long way behind the times. Cunningham and Deber, anatomists of accepted authority the world over among surgeons, say appendixes have been known to reach a length of nine inches. Local surgeons say seven-inch appendixes are every day affairs in St. Louis.

Yet, they tried to claim a record for Howard Gould, of Winthrop, Mass., who had one six and three-quarters inches in length. Before Gould the record was supposed to be held by George Ross, a former Yale athlete, with six inches.

Sharon's claimant, with seven inches, is Edwin Ross

MUCH SNOW HAS FALLEN

The Record for the Past 25 Years Has Been Broken.

All cumulative records for winter snowfall in twenty-five years were broken by last night's fall of more than one inch, says the Jefferson City Democrat-Tribune of Tuesday.

The total snowfall for the winter of 1909-1910, to midnight last night, was approximately 32.6 inches, of which more than half has fallen within the last week.

Snow has fallen seventeen days this winter.

Arrived Here at Noon Today.

The troupe is one of the best now on tour, and has drawn large crowds wherever presented.

COOKING IS AN ART

WILEY SAYS AMERICAN WOMEN SHOULD UNDERSTAND ITS GREAT IMPORTANCE.

POFESSOR GIVES IDEAL MENUS

Persons of Sedentary Habits Ought to Avoid Starchy Foods and Sugars, Says the Pure Food Expert.

Wiley's Ideal Menu.

Breakfast—Cereal (made from natural grains). Eggs or small chop. Toast. Coffee.

Lunch—Thick soup. Three kinds of vegetables. Small piece of meat if desired.

Dinner—Soup. Three vegetables. Plenty of meat. Pastry if it is homemade. Coffee and cheese.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 23.—Dr. H. W. Wiley, head of the chemistry bureau of the department of agriculture has given out what he considers the ideal menu for the American family in moderate circumstances.

"The three meals I have outlined are, of course, subject to change," said Dr. Wiley, "as different people require different food. My ideal menus, however, are suited to the great majority of American people.

"American women must be made to understand that the preparation of a meal is an art, not a drudgery. When this is accomplished we shall live both cheaper and better. The preparation of a meal is not only an art; it is a fine art, as worthy, in its way, as painting ar 1 sculpture."

"Is there any known reason," he was asked, "why some people should be fat and others thin?"

"Oh, yes. There may, of course, be a diseased condition bringing about an adipose state, but as a rule it is due to the fact that people in sedentary occupations eat too much fat and starch and sweets—too many potatoes and too much rice. Adipose tissue is getting to be the curse of our civilization. Now I, for instance, weigh 20 pounds more than I ought to. That is because I am too fond of just those foods—potatoes and rice. You can feed a laborer all of that stuff you want to—the more the better.

"Starches and sugars are converted directly into energy," continued the doctor. "When one is doing manual labor the energy thus generated is at once used up. If you want to get a good day's work out of a fellow fill him up on potatoes and bread. But a man of sedentary life—a professor or student or an office man—who eats these things can't use the energy up fast enough and it is stored in his body in the form of fat."

"Do you think Americans eat too much?"

"Those who live an active outdoor life do not. It is possible the rest of us may. A man who works with his head should eat lean meat and should not be too profuse in his diet."

"What is your theory of the high cost of living?"

"Well, we waste a great deal in the kitchen for one thing. The French people would live well on what we throw away. Then persons of meager means have too much false pride. They try to emulate the rich. A man who invites a friend to dinner is ashamed to take him to a moderate restaurant. He would rather take him to some other place, where the same meal costs five times as much."

"Do you believe a man can live befittingly on a strictly vegetable diet?"

"He can live. But man is naturally an omniverous animal. Take away one-half of his natural food and you have only half a man. He loses power in proportion. The Japanese are often pointed out as a fine example of what a vegetarian diet can do, but the Japanese consume enormous quantities of fish."

HAIR CUTS AT 35 CENTS

Local Barbers' Union May Raise the Price From 25 Cents.

C. Osborne, a barber, formerly employed at Hal Horton's tonsorial shop, Tuesday began circulating a petition among the barbers of the city for increasing the price of a hair-cut from 25 to 35 cents.

Up to the noon hour today six barber shop owners and eighteen journeymen barbers had signed the petition, which will be submitted to the local union at tonight's meeting.

The shop owners who have already signed are: Hal Horton, James Webb, William Meyers, W. W. Cecil, A. C. Slocum and Emmett Bealert.

The journeymen barbers are: Ernest Horton, C. C. Kirby, G. G. Moser, H. M. Moser, G. S. Henderson, C. H. Crole, O. C. Palmer, T. C. Caldwell, W. A. Reed, J. M. Wetzell, A. A. Montague, F. S. Milligan, H. Neighbors, L. C. Osborne, T. O. Sisson, P. M. Falder, R. O. Williams and Cooper Kirby.

The petition will, according to the by-laws of the barbers' union, of necessity remain on the table for thirty days before the union can act on it.

TO GET A PENSION

FORMER ENGINE WIPER RETIRED AFTER MANY YEARS OF SERVICE.

A UNION PACIFIC KANSAS PENSION

O. F. Adams Will Hereafter Live at Expense of Harriman System—Enlisted in Union Army and Served Five Years.

Leavenworth, Kan., Feb. 23.—O. F. Adams, of No. 100 South Esplinade, the oldest employe of the Union Pacific railroad in Leavenworth, has been retired by that company on a pension.

Mr. Adams came to Leavenworth in 1881 and went to work for the Union Pacific, then known as the Kansas Central railroad, as an engine wiper at the roundhouse. He worked there nine months, when, thinking that he could do better somewhere else, he quit.

He remained in Leavenworth several months, then returned to work for the Union Pacific firing engines. Mr. Adams did this work for a year, when he was transferred to the west division of the Kansas Central as a fireman. He remained there a year, when he was transferred back to Leavenworth, where he went to hostling.

After staying in Leavenworth for seven years he was transferred to Garrison, where he remained but a few years, and returned to Leavenworth, where he has lived ever since.

O. F. Adams was born in Sheffield, O., in 1840, where he lived for several years. He moved with his parents to Iowa. He lived in Iowa until the opening of the Civil war, when he enlisted in Company B, Twelfth Iowa infantry, and served on the federal side all five years of the war.

After the war Mr. Adams returned to Iowa, and lived there until 1881, when he came to Leavenworth. Mr. Adams is the first employe of the Union Pacific to receive a pension.

HE BOOSTS SEDALIA

E. L. Strickland, of New York State, Talks Sedalia on His Territory.

If it were possible, E. L. Strickland, who represents the H. & P. Glove Co., of Johnstown, New York, would live in Sedalia, but this is not to be, because of the extended territory he must travel over.

He, however, likes the town, and is one non-resident traveling salesman who never fails to put in a good word for Sedalia whenever the occasion presents itself.

Only recently, while at Fulton, Mo., he was conversing with a number of "Knights of the Grip," when a stranger, who said he represented a large stove works, made inquiry for a distributing point in Missouri.

Mr. Strickland immediately told of Sedalia's facilities, and it is very possible that something will develop from the proposition, at least an investigation, when it will be up to Sedalia to land it.

Mr. Strickland was in Sedalia today on his semi-annual vist and Mr E. E. Johnston placed his next fall orders for gloves with him.

Mrs. Doherty Now Sitting Up.

The many friends of Mrs. Rose Doherty will be glad to know that her condition is materially improved, as was learned by a message to Mrs. J. H. Baker this morning. Mrs. Doherty is now able to sit up a short time each day, and her attending physician says that in a few weeks her health will be restored.

LOST SON OR FRAUD

LEGAL BATTLE OVER $750,000 ESTATE LEFT BY LATE DANIEL RUSSELL.

A SENSATION AT MELROSE, MASS.

No Matter Which Side Wins There Is Certain to Be Prosecution for Crookedness in Effort to Secure the Money.

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 23.—The wrangle over the rightful claimant to the $750,000 estate of the late Daniel Russell, of Melrose, has developed sufficient testimonw to warrant criminal action, no matter which way the scales of justice fall.

A tall, dark haired man from North Dakota stands before the Middlesex probate court either as the long lost son or as one of the most accomplished imposters in the legal annals of the state.

He says he is Daniel Blake Russell, the second son of Daniel Russell, who disappeared when a boy, and that he did not hear of his father's death until a year after the estate had been practically settled.

On the other side stands William C. Russell, the elder son and principal beneficiary under the will, who alleges that the North Dakotan is really James Rousseau, of Malone, N. Y., and that he has been backed in his fight for the Russell property by a particularly clever group of gamblers in or about Dickinson, N. D.

The charges on both sides have been sensational and can hardly be disregarded by either the prosecuting attorneys of the state or the nation.

If the claimant's case is upheld, the postoffice authorities will be warranted in arresting some of the other side for forging cancellation dates and rifling the mails.

If, on the other hand, the estate wins, the claimant stands as a perjurer and one who has attempted to obtain money under false petenses.

Since the trial opened on September 20, seven lawyers have missed scarcely a session. They have been assisted by more than fifty detectives. It is estimated that the case has cost to date $200,000.

WHICH TAFT TOLD THE TRUTH?

Mr. Taft in his New York speech reiterated his defense of the Payne-Aldrich tariff and declared it the best tariff bill that has ever been enacted. He again took refuge behind the statement that nothing specific was promised in the republican platform as to downward revision. Perhaps not, but Mr. Taft, like other republican stump speakers, during his campaign for the presidency seduously endeavored to make the public think something definite was promised and that something definite would be done, if Taft was elected. On Sept. 22, 1908, Candidate Taft said at Chicago:

The revision of the tariff which republicans desire is a revision which shall reduce rates and at the same time preserve the industries of the country. * * * I wish there to be no doubt in respect to the revison of the tariff.

President Taft, on Dec. 16, 1908, said in New York City:

Unless we act in accordance with our promises * * * we shall be made accountable to the American people and suffer such consequences as failure to keep faith has always been visited with. It would be better to have no revision at all unless we are going honestly and fairly to revise the tariff on the basis promised by our party.

While the tariff bill was in the making on June 30, 1909, Jresident Taft, in a speech at New Haven, said:

Now I venture to say that if the republican party does not live up to its promises, and what the people expect of it, it will be relegated to a position like that of his majesty's opposition.

August 5, 1909, as President Taft signed the tariff bill, he admitted its shortcomings in the following language:

This law is not a perfect tariff law or complete compliance with the promises made in the republican platform, strictly interpreted.

Last fall, in Winona and on his swing around the circle, President Taft reversed himself and declared the tariff law a substantial compliance with platform promises. And now again in his New York speech he discredits the Taft of Sept. 22 and Dec. 16, 1908, and June 30 and August 5, 1909, in the following language:

Nothing was expressly said in the platform that this revision was to be a downward revision. * * * I therefore venture to repeat the remark I have had occasion to make before, that the present customs law is the best that has ever been passed.

It is plain that somebody has been deceiving the public. Was it the Taft of 1908 or the earlier part of 1909, or is it the Taft of the present?

SACRIFICED FOR "HIGHER UPS."

Just before starting for the penitentiary, Oliver Spitzer, dock superintendent of the sugar trust, declared that he was being made a scapegoat to "save the skins of those higher up."

Spitzer was paid $35 a week and the other men who had been convicted of conspiracy to defraud the government in the sugar trust stealing were minor employes drawing $16 a week. Spitzer is amply justified in his declaration that he is being sacrificed to save men higher up.

Is it conceivable that a number of humble and but moderately paid men deliberately cheated the government to confer on the great corporation, without its knowledge, some millions of fraudulent profits?

There is not much room for sympathy for Spitzer, for he entered into the scheme of fraud deliberately and with full knowledge of the consequences if he was found out. But there is a general public demand that the government's prosecution of the sugar trust frauds shall not end with the sending to prison of a few weak tools of the great conspirators. Justice demands that the strong arm of the law extend to the real offenders—the men higher up.

Judge Latshaw, of Kansas City, who has insisted upon speedy trials of negroes charged with assault upon white women and children, and who informed one of them who wished to plead guilty to having debauched six little girls, that if such a plea was entered he would assess the death penalty, is receiving many threatening letters from sympathizers of these brutes. It's pretty safe to assert that Governor Hadley won't get any letters of this sort.

While collecting republican campaign funds in Ohio Wade H. Ellis is still in possession of the retainers paid him by the government in the trust-busting cases, from which he has been detached to do political duty. The leaders of the party of great moral ideas can not see any impropriety in hanging on to "easy" money like that.

In granting a license to a brewing company the other day the supreme court of Pennsylvania not only reversed the decision of the county court and the unanimous decision of the superior court, but also reversed itself. Which, by the way, is no new performance for the supreme court of Pennsylvania.

Recent rises in the stock markets demonstrate that these days hogs is hogs.

GOV. HADLEY OBJECTS

Will Not Accept Senator W. J. Stone's Proposition.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 23.—Governor Hadley has dismissed Senator Stone's counter proposition for a recount of the ballots cast for United States senator as unworthy of notice and announces his intention of having the ballots held until the next legislature convenes, if this cas be legally done.

Then, in connection with amendments to the primary election laws, a way can be found, the goversor said, to make a count.

If this should show fraud, the matter, he says, can be carried to the United States senate for its decision.

The governor is ready to have his vote for governor recounted, if Cowherd or his friends can show any good reason for a recount.

WAS GREAT FIGHT

TOOK PLACE ON PACIFIC COAST

Nelson Was a Two to One Favorite, but He Was Done for in the Fortieth Round—Description of the Battle.

Richmond Arena, Cal., Feb. 23.—His face battered to a pulp, his eyes closed, his lips puffed, covered with blood and staggering helplessly about the ring last afternoon, Battling Nelson, conqueror of Joe Gans, was saved from a knockout in the fortieth round of his fight with Ad Wolgast when Referee Eddie Smith humanely stopped a most unequal contest.

Nelson, game to the last, stood in the center of the ring, and even though he could hardly raise his hands, begged to be allowed to continue.

He was led to his corner heartbroken.

In the opposite corner of the ring, the new lightweight champion of the world, Ad Wolgast, of Cadillac, Mich., was lifted to the shoulders of his trainers amid the cheers of the crowd.

Only once in the fight did Nelson have a chance—the twenty-second round—when, with a stinging right cross to the jaw he staggered his opponent.

Before the round closed he dropped Wolgast in the middle of the ring with a similar blow and three seconds were tolled before Wolgast regained his feet.

The crowd prepared to leave the arena; the word went from bench to bench through the spectators that another boy had fallen victim to the wonderful durability of the Dane.

But in the next round Wolgast recuperated and from then on, slowly, steadily, but surely, wore Nelson down.

For twelve rounds before the finish Nelson seemed bewildered and his blows were sent as though he held weights in his hands.

From the thirtieth round Nelson could hardly see or hear, the left side of his face having lost all semblance of its former countour. He staggered and hung on.

In the thirty-eighth round John Robinson, Nelson's manager, wanted to throw the sponge into the ring, but Abdul the Turk, one of the seconds, tore it from his hands and threw it into the bucket.

From then on in each round Robinson protested that his man was beaten.

When the fortieth round came Referee Smith asked Nelson if he wanted to quit, and Nelson, unable to talk, merely shook his head negatively.

When thirty seconds of the fortieth round had gone and darkness was beginning to creep over the scene of the fight, with a full moon peeping through the clouds, Referee Smith raised Wolgast's glove into the air and a new lightweight champion had come into the fistiana.

Wolgast had outgeneraled, outboxed and all but outgamed the great Battling Nelson. After the battle Wolgast scampered out of the ring like a schoolboy and galloped through the mud.

Nelson was taken out in the arms of his seconds. As he was carried through the crowd he was cheered for the remarkable grit and gameness displayed, such as old ring followers say seldom has been seen in a prize ring.

Referee Smith made the following statement to the Associated Press:

"Wolgast fought Nelson at his own game and beat him fairly and squarely. Nelson complained at times of Wolgast butting, but I paid little heed, as it was simply a case of the Battler getting the worst of a game where both were equally guilty.

"Both men fought the same, but one had youth, the power to come back; vigor, life and all that goes with it, while the thirteen years of fighting through which Nelson had gone had sapped his strength and left him without the old snap, dash and stamina."

Wolgast said after the fight: "My fight today was like a training bout, only once did he bother me, and that was in the twenty-second round. Nelson hurt me more by butting me than anything else, and I felt funny for just a few seconds. I cannot say anything as to my future plans, but am ready to give deserving lightweights a chance."

When Nelson was able to talk he said: "I am sorry they called the fight when they did. I think I could have stayed the forty-five rounds, but I have no complaint to make."

COLD STORAGE METHODS

The Health of Five Million Persons at Stake.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 23.—Asserting the health of 5,000,000 people is jeopardized by the beef trust flooding the market with unfit food held in cold storage, County Prosecutor Pierre P. Garven of Hudson county yesterday conferred with his lieutenants on the evidence to be submitted to the grand jury.

It was asserted indictments already voted would be returned this week against all the Chicago millionaire directors of the National Packing company.

A new phase of the fight on the combine may be taken up—the charge that the packers control the wheat and hay markets, and have put the screws on the farmers by sending up prices of those commodities.

SAGE FOR DARKENING TRE HAIR

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect. Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time, tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the brew. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy. This preparation is sold by all first-class druggists for 50c and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by W. E. Bard Drug Co.

DEADLOCK BROKEN

VARDAMAN BEATEN BY LEROY PERCY FOR SENATOR IN MISSISSIPPI.

FIFTY-EIGHT BALLOTS ARE TAKEN

Three Candidates Unite Against Former Governor and Wild Confusion Ensues When the Result Is Known.

Jackson, Miss., Feb. 23.—Leroy Percy, of Greenville, one of the most brilliant lawyers in Mississippi, last night was nominated as United States senator from Mississippi, to fill out the unexpired term of A. J. McLaurin, who died December 23.

The election was on the fifty-eighth ballot, after a deadlock that had continued since January 4, with one or two ballots nearly every day.

At the beginning there were seven or eight candiates, but they dropped out one after another, until four were left. Three of the candidates—Percy, Kyle and Byrd—were pitted against Vardaman.

All of the candidates held caucusses yesterday and it was determined that all should get out of the race except Percy, who was to battle against what they called a common enemy.

When the result of the ballot was announced there was a scene of wildest confusion. The vote was: Percy, 87; Vardaman, 82.

The nomination is equivalent to election.

RUN $10,000 TO THE TON

Another Rich Strike in the Cripple Creek District.

Paxton, Ill., Feb. 23.—George P. Cruzen and Ralph P. Cruzen, brothers, formerly living here, have made a rich strike of gold in the Cripple Creek mining district. The strike is one of the richest in the history of the district.

George Cruzen is city passenger and ticket agent at Pueblo for the Rock Island, and Ralph Cruzen is secretary of the Pueblo Auto Supply company.

They leased, with others, a tract in the Cripple Creek district and uncovered, at a depth of 350 feet, a vein almost pure gold in spots. The old vein ran up to $10,000 a ton and the new mine is said to be even richer.

The strike was made ten days ago but has been kept secret. The Cruzen brothers spent their boyhood here.

The Trial of Mrs. Ford.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 22.—Mrs. Jeanette Stewart Ford will not be tried a second time on the indictment charging her with blackmailing Charles L. The trial of Mrs. Ford was set for today, but Judge Swing declared it would be of no use to try the woman until the supreme court had handed down its decision on the point at issue.

FALLING HAIR

Many People Have a Simple Way of Stopping It.

It was Dr. Sangerbond, of Paris, who first discovered that dandruff and falling hair were caused by a microbe.

And now that Parisian Sage, the remedy that kills the dandruff germ, is sold in every town in America, the clean people of this country have awakened to the fact that dandruff is unnecessary; that falling hair and itching scalp can be quickly stopped, and that people who use Parisian Sage will never grow bald.

To every reader of the Democrat-Sentinel who wishes to eradicate disgusting dandruff, stop falling hair, and have an immaculately clean scalp, free from itchiness, we make this offer:

We will return your money, without red tape, is Parisian Sage does not banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks.

Parisian Sage is sold by druggists everywhere for 50c a large bottle. It is an ideal, daintily perfumed hairdressing, free from grease and stickiness and will cause hair to grow lustrous and luxuriant. Sold and guaranteed by the W. E. Bard Drug Co. Mail orders filled, charges prepaid, by Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Francis Koegl, 41 West Jessamine street, St. Paul, Minn., on Nov. 16, 1909, wrote: "I have used several hair tonics, but there is none that can compare with Parisian Sage. It cured my falling hair and dandruff, and it does not only cure those troubles, but it is the best hair grower in the world."

The Names of the Winners, Together With the Prizes Awarded—The Affair Was a Success in Every Particular.

The baby show at the Lyric theater closed Tuesday night with the awarding of prizes. The theater was scarcely large enough to accommodate the crowds to witness the performance and hear the returns of the contest. The canvass of the votes was taken up immediately after the show, with Attorney W. D. O'Bannon, William E. Driskell, of Messerly's department store, and C. H. Barney, of the United States Packing Co., as judges, who counted the votes before the big audience. Attorney O'Bannon read the results as they were noted on blackboards. The winners, together with the prizes, and those who offered them, were as follows:

AMUSEMENTS

SEDALIA THEATRE.

"Little Johnny Jones," Sedalia Theater Tonight.

The greatest of all the Cohen successes is to be seen at the Sedalia theater tonight and the engagement promises to be the most notable of the season. "Little Johnny Jones" has been highly praised by the critics everywhere, who write in glowing terms of its originality in construction and speak in the highest praise of its captivating and catchy music, of which there are twenty-two numbers.

There is more actual wit, more innocent mischief, more admirable acting and good singing than in any ten of the average musical shows. It is full of breezy songs, winged dances, actually intelligent comedy, and is the very essence of entertainment. "Little Johnny Jones" will be seen in this city with the same stupendous production, magnificent wardrobe and its famous chorus of forty which made its engagement in all the principal cities notable last season.

The cast is a large one, and in all numbers fifty people, one of the largest, in fact, on tour this season. The play is in three acts, the first act showing a mammoth scene representing the exterior of the Hotel Cecil in London; the second act, a realistic scene depicting the departure of an ocean liner from its pier at Southampton, England, and the third act the Chinese quarter of San Francisco, at night, gaily but weirdly illuminated. A production with such an unquestionable reputation that has preceded it here, is sure to attract a crowded house, which is already indicated by the large demand for seats.

"Isle of Spice."

F. A. Wade presents B. C. Whitney's delightful musical comedy, the "Isle of Spice," at Wood's. It is said to be a dream of scintilating color that has never been surpassed in the history of elaborate stage settings. The piece itself, while it has an interesting story to tell, is full of music that is calculated to tickle the ears, and the comedians are given ears, and the comedians are given selves to unbounded delight of the audiences. There are no less than twenty songs of the most catchy variety, that will be whistled and hummed on the streets long after the engagement here.

The comedians are headed by that clever artist, who succeeds in keeping the audience convulsed in laughter whenever on the stage.

For those to whom the music element appeals more than the genuine article of comedy will be found, "The Goo Goo Man," "Peggy Brady," "The Broomstick Witches," "Uncle Sam's Marines," "You and I," "Little Maid of Nicobar," "Take Me Home," "How Can You Tell Till You Try," and others, all rendered in a very capable and pleasing manner.

We don't mean just stop the irritation in your throat—but cure the underlying cause.

Cough syrups cannot do this. It takes a constitutional tonic body builder to do the work properly—and cure you to stay cured.

If we cannot stop that cough with VINOL—our delicious cod liver and iron tonic—which is made without oil—we will not charge you a cent for the medicine you buy. This seems like a pretty fair proposition—and ought to be accepted. Don't you think so? With this understanding we ask you to try it.

AN EX-CONVICT KILLED

Raleigh Postoffice Robbery Has Tragic Sequel at Brooklyn, N. Y.

New York, Feb. 23.—The cracking of the postoffice safe at Raleigh, N. C., in December, 1908, led to the killing here yesterday of John Leonard, who had been sentenced to the federal prison at Atlanta for the safe-blowing.

Leonard's young wife obtained his release from prison three months ago on an alibi and they came to Brooklyn and opened a boarding house.

Thomas Barnes, a boarder, angered Leonard two weeks ago by referring to him as an ex-convict and Leonard gave him such a thrashing that he was not able to leave the hospital until last night.

Barnes called at the Leonard home early yesterday and when Leonard appeared at the door he shot him dead.

FOR SANE JULY FOURTH

Toy Pistol and Other "Instruments of Carnage" in Little Demand.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 23.—The toy pistol, the torpedo cracker, and other "instruments of carnage" will be in little demand next Fourth of July, if the intentions of the promoters of a safe and sane celebration of Independence Day are carried out. Plans for this year's celebration in Chicago are announced by the Chicago Sane Fourth association.

The plans are for a huge festival to be participated in by persons of all nations who have made this their home.

"We want to stimulate civic pride," said Francis W. Shepardson, chairman of the program committee. "The many elements in a cosmopolitan population will be called upon to join forces in a rational celebration of Independence Day.

"Each of the peoples of foreign origin, while emphasizing some feature of their own national history, will be invited to make contributions to a Chicago demonstration which will commemorate in a fitting way the birthday of the land of their adoption."

Prospects Encouraging for Bumper Crop in Missouri Valley.

Kansas City, Feb. 23.—"The prospects for a bumper crop of fruits of all kinds in the Missouri Valley were never better than at the present time," said L. A. "In the immediate vicinity of Kansas City," continued Mr. Goodman "and up the Missouri river as far as Atchison and St. Joseph, I think the peach crop has been damaged slightly by freezing during that extremely cold weather we had in December, but further than that the Missouri valley, as a whole, will harvest a large yield, providing that the weather holds moderate until about the middle of March."

SONS OF VETERANS

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF GEORGE W. POLLITT IS PAYING AN OFFICIAL VISIT.

HE IS AT PROVIDENCE, R. I. TODAY

Accompanied by Dr. W. J. Patton, President of the National Merorial University at Mason City, Iowa.

Providence, R. I., Feb. 23.—Commander-in-Chief George W. Pollitt, of the National Sons of Veterans, began an official visit to the Rhode Island camps today, and will be given a reception by all the patriotic bodies of the city this evening.

Commander Pollitt is accompanied by Dr. W. J. Patton, president of the National Memorial university, which was established at Mason City, Ia., by the national order of the Sons of Veterans.

While in the east, President Patton hopes to arouse much interest in the instituion, secure additional students and funds for making the school truly national in its scope.

Memorial college was founded by the Sons of Veterans at the national encampmest held in Syracuse, N. Y., in September, 1900. The College of Liberal Arts building was opened for students at Mason City in September, 1901.

The purpose of the university is a practical and growing monument to the loyal men and women of the Civil war period. Its founders' intent was to build a monument which should not alone keep the memory of these men and women green, but also to found an institution for instruction in patriotism. Dr. Patton combines his duties as president with the chair of applied patriotism.

One of the principal aims of the university, while it deals also with mathematics, modern and ancient languages, normal training, military science and commercial endeavors, is to teach American history as written by American statesmen and warriors from the time the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock to the surrender at Appomatox and down to the present day.

In connection with the patriotic aims of the university, lectures are delivered by men of national reputation. This phase of the educational system is intended to instruct the students as to their responsibility to the state and nation. Addresses are given on patriotic, historical and national topics at stated intervals.

The patriotic bent of the institution is daily in evidence. At 11 o'clock every morning the students salute the flag and pledge allegiance to the republic.

The departments of Memorial university include the college, the academy, the school of military science and tactics, the normal college, the commercial college, the school of oratory, the college of music and the summer school. The college is co-educational.

BRONCHIAL TUBES ALL STUFFED UP

"While a resident of Washington, D. C., I suffered continually and intensely with a bronchial trouble that was simply terrible to endure. I would have spells that I could hardly breathe, I would chok up, fill up in my throat and bronchial tubes, and the doctoring that I did and the remedies used were of no benefit to me whatever. I heard about Booth's Hyomei being so beneficial in catarrhal and bronchial affections and procured an outfit. I received relief from the very first by its use. I continued with it and received a cure. It is about two years since I suffered at all from my former trouble."—Mrs. R. L. Pannell, 404 North Augusta street, Staunton, Va., March 26, 1909.

Hyomei is guaranteel by the W. E. Bard Drug Co. to cure catarrh, croup, bronchitis, coughs, colds and sore throat, or money back.

A complete Hyomei (pronounced Heigh-o-me) outfit costs $1 at druggists everywhere. This includes a hard rubber pocket inhaler and bottle of Hyomei; extra bottles Hyomei cost 50 cents. Free sample bottle and booklet from Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

MI-O-NA Cures Indigestion

The Concert Pleased All.

The University Glee and Mandolin club of the Missouri state university gave an appreciative concert to a small audience at the Sedalia theater last night, but in spite of the meagre attendance the numbers on the program won much applause.

Among the club members are two Sedalia boys, W. R. Rizer, a son of O. D. Rizer, a Missouri Pacific conductor, and Carl Hoffman, a son of Charles Hoffman, both of whom did excellent work.

The program was concluded by the singing of "Old Missouri," the music for which song was composed by Girard Blair, another Sedalia boy.

NEWS OF THE RAIL

BALTIMORE & OHIO DENIES REQUEST OF THE CONDUCTORS AND TRAINMEN.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

The two powerful railroad labor organizations, the Order of Railway Conductors and the Bdotherhood of Railway Trainmen, which have undertaken to secure a general increase of the wage scale for all employes in those branches of the service on the principal lines in the eastern part of the United States and Canada, have suffered repulse at the very inauguration of the better-pay campaign.

Three weeks of negotiations with the Baltimore & Ohio, among the first to be approached in the matter, ended yesterday when the company, through President Willard, declined to accede to the demands of the organizations, the company's position being set forth in the following official statement:

"The conferences with the representatives of the conductors' and trainmen's organizations and President Willard of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad held today in the endeavor to reach a mutually satisfactory basis of agreement on the question of wage increases ended in a suspension of further conferences until the brotherhood representatives have submitted the matter as it now stands to the membership for instructions as to procedure to be taken. The company could not accept the men's proposition as originally made and the men's representatives did not feel authorized to accept the counter proposition made on the part of the company without referring it to the men for further advice."

The counter proposition, President Lee of the Trainmen's Union declared, was "a very slight percentage of increase to the minority of the men involved."

A strike is believed to be imminent, but this action rests with the rank and file of the trainmen of the system, some 8,000 in number, who will be polled at once, a task which will consume about ten days.

The Situation in Canada.

While still maintaining that reports to the effect that a strike of trainmen is imminent are absurd, officials of the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific railroads last night admitted that both roads have been in consultation with committees of the men and that attempts to arrive at a settlement of some disputed points have been unsuccessful.

This does not mean, however, that the men are voting on a strike movement. If a vote is being taken, the question to be decided is whether or not an application shall be made to the minister of labor for appointment of a board of conciliation, under the Lemieux law.

Railway strikes are illegal in Canada until such a board has passed upon matters in dispute, and it is believed that the trainmen would not seek o evade the plain letter of the law.

Conference at New Haven.

The negotiations between the railroad men employed on the system and General Manager Samuel Higgins of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad over the wage and time schedules, which have been in progress for several days, continue, and the prospects are for a continuance extending through another week.

Vice President Sheppard of the conductors and Vice President Sims of the trainmen's orders are in charge of the conferences on the part of the men. Neither officer would comment upon the situation.

KILLED GOING TO FATHER

Body of Boy Thirteen Years Old Found Near Railroad Track

Toledo, O., Feb. 23.—Anxiety to be with his father, Amos Roberts, in Pittsburg, cost Harold Roberts, aged 13, his life. His body was found near the Lake Shore railroad tracks, near Erie, Pa., last Friday and was identified yesterday by the description of a circular received by the police in Erie.

The boy's mother, living here, had asked the police to find her son, who ran away last Wednesday.

It was supposed that when accidentally killed he was on his way to his father, who had obtained employment in Pittsburg and whom Mrs. Mrs Roberts intended to join soon.

An attack of grip is often followed by a persistent cough, which to many proves a great annoyance. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been extensively used and with good success for the relief and cure of this cough. Many cases have been cured after all other remedies have failed. Sold by all dealers.

Three Theatrical Troupes.

The theatrical troupes playing "Little Johnny Jones" and "The Isle of Spice" arrived in Sedalia on M., K. & T. train No. 2 this morning, the former from Clinton and the latter from Fort Scott, Kan.

The troupe presenting "Brewster's Millions," which played here last night, went to Moberly on the same train.

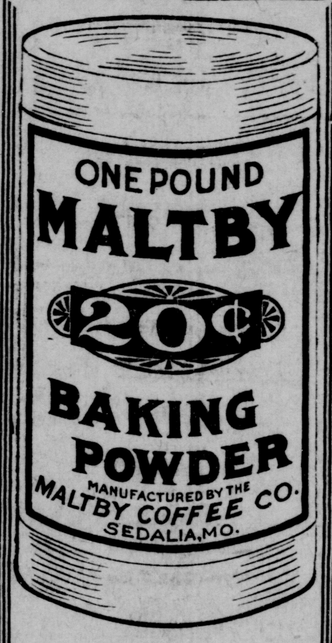

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. # GIRL DIES OF NEGLECT

Failure to Call Physician By Parents the Couse, Says Verdict.

Springfield, Mo., Feb. 23.—Neglect of the parents of Miss Grace Noblett in not calling a physician was the immediate cause of her death, according to the verdict of the coroner's jury yesterday. Miss Noblett died Saturday of tuberculosis, after an illness of several months. She was a graduate of the University of Chicago.

At the inquest held by Coroner Clarence Rhodes her parents testified that they were believers in Christian Science and had not called a physician to attend their daughter, as they thought such a course would have shortened the young girl's life instead of curing her.

The father, T. J. Noblett, a laundryman, testified thatd he believe that a person coud not be sick and that God is the only healer.

"LID" IS STILL ON

SALOONISTS' REQUEST TO RESUME REJECTED BY ADJUTANT GENERAL.

TROOPS PATROL THE ENTIRE CITY

Dickson Not Assured Situation Safe Enough to Remove Soldiers or Permit Liquor Men to Open at Cairo, Illinois.

Cairo, Ill., Feb. 23.—That now is not the time to raise the lid in Cairo was the answer given last evening to a committee of saloon men who waited upon Adjutant General Frank S. Dickson. The liquor men promised not to allow any disorder in their places of business, nor any mob talk.

General Dickson conferred with Sheriff Nellis, Mayor Parsons and Chief of Police Egan and then announced his decision in the matter.

He would not say when he thought it would be safe to raise the lid. That would depend upon further developments, was the only answer he would make.

General Dickson feels that if it is safe to reopen the saloons, it is also safe to remove the troops. He is not quite convinced of the latter. The troops are doing patrol duty all over the city.

Dressed in the full uniform of his office, the adjutant general yesterday was taken to the high school where the students were holding exercises in honor of Washington's birthday. He was asked to speak and addressed the student body. Judge William N. Butler accompanied him to the school.

TO HOLD THE TITLES

Bill Introduced in Senate to Keep Coal Lands in Possession of U. S.

Washington, Feb. 23.—The recent startling testimony concerning the value of coal deposits in Alaska given before the senate committee on territories by Manager Birch, of the Guggenheim-Morgan Alaskan syndicate, has resulted in a movement in the senate in the interest of the permanent retention of titles to the Alaska coal deposits by the United States, and bills looking to that end were introduced today by Senator Beveridge.

SALON THOUGHT NO. 323.

Saloon Logic Applied.

In spite of prohibitory laws against burglary and highway robbery, houses are constantly being broken into, safes and deposit vaults are blown open and despoiled of their contents, and helpless individuals are held up and robbed of their valuables.

Therefore since it is human nature to do the thing prohibited, and as it is a well established fact that men will steal regardless of the law against it, then the only sensible remedy is to license and regulate stealing.

So far as the community is concerned it will not be injured by licensing gentlemanly burglars and highwaymen any more than by licensing saolons.

The highwayman only robs his victim of his personal property, but the saloon not only robs him of his property, both real and personal, but robs him of his intellect, his honor and his good name.

The highwayman never injures an unresisting victim, but we must concede that the unresisting victim of the saloon is a badly crippled member of society when the saloon gets through with him.

The considerate and thoughtful burglar will not try to rob a poor man, but the saloon will take his last dollar and leaves the wife and children hungry, cold and in rags. And yet the merchants who would sell these people actual necessities are supporting the saloons because it "helps business." Such foolishness.

STOLE THEIR GUNS

Regalia Stripped From One of the "Extra Guards"—Girls Took Brass Buttons for Souvenirs and Wore Fencible Caps.

Philadelphia, Feb. 23.—Two boys were shot and probably fatally injured, while several received less severe wounds yesterday in riots which followed the resumption of service by the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company. The shooting occurred in attacks on cars in the northeastern section. President Murphy, of the Central Labor Union, still regards a general strike of all trade unions in the city as inevitable, although C. O. Pratt, leader of the car men, is reported to be opposing this move.

Members of the State Fencibles, an independent military organization about 200 strong, were placed on duty yesterday armed with loaded muskets. They were detailed in the Kensington mill district in the northeast, which is full of union sympathizers. In their first skirmish they were beaten badly by a mob, who paid no attention to the drawn bayonets and snatched the muskets from the hands of the young militiamen.

Members of the Fencibles, according to Mayor Rayburn, acted as if they were on a picnic, allowing girls in the mill district to wear their caps and cut the brass buttons off their clothing.

At one point a group of rioters captured a member of the Fencibles and carried him several feet from his post, where they strippd him of his coat, hat and cartridge belt and gun and threw them into a sewer.

Fifteen policemen quartered in the barn of the company at Ridge avenue and York street narrowly escaped death last night when the entire nbrtheast corner of the building was blown away with dynamite. The explosion occurred just as C. O. Pratt was about to address a meeting of car men at a hall at Ridge avenue and Dauphin street.

The State Fencibles, after being harassed and beaten all day by a mob of thousands of strike sympathizers, were withdrawn at nightfall. The militia had been powerless against the mob, but a half dozen mounted police had ridden up and down driving the rioters before them during the afternoon.

Only two cars were run on the Lehigh Avenue line during the afternoon and both were badly shattered by stones. Policemen in this locailty were fired upon by a strike sympathizer who had concealed himself in St. Simon's church. This enraged the guardians of the peace and they returned the fire. W. E. Collins was struck by a bullet. The director of public safety, Mr. Clay, said last night that should outside assistance be required he would ask for the state constabulary before calling for the state militia.

According to a statement issued last night by the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company, the amount of damage done yesterday and the number of assaults by mobs were greater than on any previous day of the strike, although the territory covered by the cars of the company was less. Two hundred and ninety-five cars were wrecked, making a total of 750 cars which have been put out of service since the strike began. The number of cars operated today will, according to the company's statement, be regulated wholly by the extent of police protection.

An official of the comptny said last night:

"We have crews for 1,400 cars and could operate all lines from all depots. It is probable, however, that we shall not be able to run more than half the number of cars for which we have crews, as the police, in spite of the utmost efforts, have been unable to give us the proper protection."

THE MASTER'S DEGREE

Was Conferred on Two Candidates at Masonic Temple.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The Master Mason's degree was conferred on two candidates by the members of Sedalia lodge No. 236, A. F. and A. M., at the Masonic Temple Tuesday.

The degree work began promptly at 3 o'clock. One candidate took the degree during the afternoon and another at night.

Immediately after the first candidate had been initiated the members of the Order of Eastern Star served a select banquet at the Temple, at the close of which the degree work was resumed. The work was concluded at 10 o'clock last night.

Covers were laid for eighty at the supper.

FOLK IN THE RACE

HE WAS VISITED BY SPEED MOSBY

His Boasted "Presidential Availability" Not Swallowed So Easily—Announcement Is Expected Very Soon.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 23.—That ex-Goxernor Joseph W. Folk will be a candidate for the democratic nomination for United States senator, and will announce his candidacy soon, is the opinion of Speed Mosby, who was pardon attorney under Folk when he was governor.

Mosby has just returned from St. Louis, where a conference of Folk's friends was held to talk over the situation. While some of them have advised him not to enter the field, and to become a candidate for president instead, most of Folk's friends have advised him to get into the race as soon as possible.

The old guard democrats have recently wasted much breath about Folk's presidential availability, this being done to influence him to stay out of the senatorial race. But their talk has been wasted. Folk's friends say he has not been deceived for a moment about the source of the talk, and will not forego his senatorial aspirations.

Even the followers of Reed and Francis in Jefferson City concede Folk's strength, and some of them freely admit that, with the three in the race, Folk will be the winner. The fact that Folk consented to a recount of the ballots in the senatorial race between himsef and Stone, while the latter wasted several thousand words blocking it, has not hurt Folk in the slightest in the estimation of democrats.

WOMEN IN SOCIETY

THE ARE RAKED OVER COALS BY THE REVEREND MR. F. L. WILLIAMS.

DOES NOT MINCE WORDS, EITHER

Chicago Methodist Parson Declares That by Far Too Many Will Aid Sick Dogs, but Neglect Destitute Children.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Society women who play bridge whist for the benefit of homeless dogs and cats and neglect destitute children living within their reach were criticised by the Rev. F. L. Williams, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal church in an address on "Chicago's Submerged Tenth" delivered at a conference of Methodist pastors in Wesley church.

Mr. Williams related how he had called up on the telephone the woman who recently had managed a bridge whist entertainment for the benefit of the homeless dogs and cats in her neighborhood.

"Was your entertainemnt a success" Mr. Williams inquired.

"O, yes," was the reply. "We had fifteen tables and the receipts were $212."

"How do you take care of the homeless dogs and cats?" was the next question.

"We nurse them if they are sick and when they get well we find some one who will buy or take them. We follow up every case and see that the dear things are well taken care of. If the poor creatures cannot get well we give them a painless death."

"I immediately called up the Home for Destitute Children," said Mr. Williams, "and I found many applicants were turned away from the home because there was no room for them. How I wished some of these poor children could get some of that dog money."

Mr. Williams also made a startling statement concerning the temptations to which young women are subjected.

"I have found men attending meetings at the mission," he said, "for the purpose of getting recruits for the red light district. I talked with one young woman whom I found singing on the vaudeville stage and I warned her against the temptations with which she was surrounded. 'O,' she said, 'I met with more temptation when I was working in one of the downtown stores as a model than I do here.'"

"As a result of the improved sanitary conditions under which society now lives as compared with twenty years ago, one insurance company has declared a dividend of $600,000 on policies thus benefited," was the declaration of the Rev. R. J. Wyckoff, pastor of Ravenswood Methodist church.

"This, I believe, illustrates the main work of the church. Instead of trying to cure people after they are sick, we ought to prevent them from becoming sick. Save a child and you save a life. Save a drunkard, and what have you, after all?"

SEVEN OVER 100 YEARS

Among the Number Is Frederick Saugrain, of Sedalia.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Missouri is reasonably well supplied with centenarians, as there are at least seven people in the state who have been enjoying life over one hundred years.

The last person to pass the century mark is Grandma Berensmeyer, of Richfountain, in Osage county. She has just celebrated her one hundredth birthday.

CHIPS ARE DUE TO FLY

(From Wednesday's Daily)

At the meeting of Sedalia camp No. 5570 of Modern Woodmen, tomorrow night, a class of twelve new choppers will be initiated and visitors from several other camps throughout the county will be present to assist in the work.

This order now has over 1,800 members in Pettis county, and its "skip" of an assessment for February meant over $3,000 of cash left in the county.

The new camp of Royal Neighbors recently organized as an auxiliary to this M. W. A. camp, known as Sedalia camp No. 6184, R. N. A., is in a flourishing condition and now has a membership of about thirty-five. After March 1 it will meet in K. of P. hall, East Fifth street, on second and fourth Thursday nights.

Another New Dwelling.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

F. T. Leaming, city engineer, today issued a permit to J. W. Hogan a permit for the erection of a four-room cottage at the northwest corner of Tenth street and Montgomery avenue, the cost of the same to be $1,000. The residence will be ready for occupancy by June 1.

APPENDIX 8 1-2 IN.

ST. LOUIS PARTY CLAIMS TO HOLD THE RECORD IN THIS "LINE."

SHARON, PA., PATIENT NOT IN IT

Surgeons Living in the Mound City Scoff at East's Heralded Championship Record of Seven Inches in Length.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 25.—Local surgeons only smile at the claim of Sharon, Pa., to the championship in vermiform appendixes, with one 7 inches in length.

"Why, a 16-year-old St. Louis boy beat that by an inch a year ago," said Dr. Waldo Briggs, of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Tuesday.

George Thenn, a brother of the head nurse at Jefferson hospital, was the boy with the 8 inch appendix Still, his was not the largest appendix known to surgeons in St. Louis.

One eminent surgeon stated Tuesday he had taken an appendix from a prominent St. Louisian which was 8½ inches long, and he had heard of another that was still longer.

This St. Lousian, who might be a claimant for honors as having the largest known appendix in the world, loses out through fear of being embarrassed by publicity.

It is said that if local surgeons would only let their ethics allow them to do so, they could startle the east with appendix news.

Less than two months ago a man was operated on at Rebecca hospital and relieved of an appendix seven and one-half inches long. This man was Edward Potts, of Gillestie, Ill., a patient of Dr. F. A. Renner, of Benld, Ill. The operation was performed Dec. 3.

From an appendix point of view the east is a long way behind the times. Cunningham and Deber, anatomists of accepted authority the world over among surgeons, say appendixes have been known to reach a length of nine inches. Local surgeons say seven-inch appendixes are every day affairs in St. Louis.

Yet, they tried to claim a record for Howard Gould, of Winthrop, Mass., who had one six and three-quarters inches in length. Before Gould the record was supposed to be held by George Ross, a former Yale athlete, with six inches.

Sharon's claimant, with seven inches, is Edwin Ross

MUCH SNOW HAS FALLEN

The Record for the Past 25 Years Has Been Broken.

All cumulative records for winter snowfall in twenty-five years were broken by last night's fall of more than one inch, says the Jefferson City Democrat-Tribune of Tuesday.

The total snowfall for the winter of 1909-1910, to midnight last night, was approximately 32.6 inches, of which more than half has fallen within the last week.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The many friends of Mrs. Rose Doherty will be glad to know that her condition is materially improved, as was learned by a message to Mrs. J. H. Baker this morning. Mrs. Doherty is now able to sit up a short time each day, and her attending physician says that in a few weeks her health will be restored.

COOKING IS AN ART

POFESSOR GIVES IDEAL MENUS

Wiley's Ideal Menu.

Breakfast—Cereal (made from natural grains). Eggs or small chop. Toast. Coffee.

Lunch—Thick soup. Three kinds of vegetables. Small piece of meat if desired.

Dinner—Soup. Three vegetables. Plenty of meat. Pastry if it is homemade. Coffee and cheese.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 23.—Dr. H. W. Wiley, head of the chemistry bureau of the department of agriculture has given out what he considers the ideal menu for the American family in moderate circumstances.

"The three meals I have outlined are, of course, subject to change," said Dr. Wiley, "as different people require different food. My ideal menus, however, are suited to the great majority of American people.

"American women must be made to understand that the preparation of a meal is an art, not a drudgery. When this is accomplished we shall live both cheaper and better. The preparation of a meal is not only an art; it is a fine art, as worthy, in its way, as painting and sculpture."

"Is there any known reason," he was asked, "why some people should be fat and others thin?"

"Oh, yes. There may, of course, be a diseased condition bringing about an adipose state, but as a rule it is due to the fact that people in sedentary occupations eat too much fat and starch and sweets—too many potatoes and too much rice. Adipose tissue is getting to be the curse of our civilization. Now I, for instance, weigh 20 pounds more than I ought to. That is because I am too fond of just those foods—potatoes and rice. You can feed a laborer all of that stuff you want to—the more the better.

"Starches and sugars are converted directly into energy," continued the doctor. "When one is doing manual labor the energy thus generated is at once used up. If you want to get a good day's work out of a fellow fill him up on potatoes and bread. But a man of sedentary life—a professor or student or an office man—who eats these things can't use the energy up fast enough and it is stored in his body in the form of fat."

"Do you think Americans eat too much?"

"Those who live an active outdoor life do not. It is possible the rest of us may. A man who works with his head should eat lean meat and should not be too profuse in his diet."

"What is your theory of the high cost of living?"

"Well, we waste a great deal in the kitchen for one thing. The French people would live well on what we throw away. Then persons of meager means have too much false pride. They try to emulate the rich. A man who invites a friend to dinner is ashamed to take him to a moderate restaurant. He would rather take him to some other place, where the same meal costs five times as much."

"Do you believe a man can live befittingly on a strictly vegetable diet?"

"He can live. But man is naturally an omniverous animal. Take away one-half of his natural food and you have only half a man. He loses power in proportion. The Japanese are often pointed out as a fine example of what a vegetarian diet can do, but the Japanese consume enormous quantities of fish."

TO GET A PENSION

A UNION PACIFIC KANSAS PENSION

O. F. Adams Will Hereafter Live at Expense of Harriman System—Enlisted in Union Army and Served Five Years.

Leavenworth, Kan., Feb. 23.—O. F. Adams, of No. 100 South Esplinade, the oldest employe of the Union Pacific railroad in Leavenworth, has been retired by that company on a pension.

Mr. Adams came to Leavenworth in 1881 and went to work for the Union Pacific, then known as the Kansas Central railroad, as an engine wiper at the roundhouse. He worked there nine months, when, thinking that he could do better somewhere else, he quit.

He remained in Leavenworth several months, then returned to work for the Union Pacific firing engines. Mr. Adams did this work for a year, when he was transferred to the west division of the Kansas Central as a fireman. He remained there a year, when he was transferred back to Leavenworth, where he went to hostling.

After staying in Leavenworth for seven years he was transferred to Garrison, where he remained but a few years, and returned to Leavenworth, where he has lived ever since.

O. F. Adams was born in Sheffield, O., in 1840, where he lived for several years. He moved with his parents to Iowa. He lived in Iowa until the opening of the Civil war, when he enlisted in Company B, Twelfth Iowa infantry, and served on the federal side all five years of the war. After the war Mr. Adams returned to Iowa, and lived there until 1881, when he came to Leavenworth. Mr. Adams is the first employe of the Union Pacific to receive a pension.

HE BOOSTS SEDALIA

E. L. Strickland, of New York State, Talks Sedalia on His Territory.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

If it were possible, E. L. Strickland, who represents the H. & P. Glove Co., of Johnstown, New York, would live in Sedalia, but this is not to be, because of the extended territory he must travel over.

He, however, likes the town, and is one non-resident traveling salesman who never fails to put in a good word for Sedalia whenever the occasion presents itself.

Only recently, while at Fulton, Mo., he was conversing with a number of "Knights of the Grip," when a stranger, who said he represented a large stove works, made inquiry for a distributing point in Missouri.

Mr. Strickland immediately told of Sedalia's facilities, and it is very possible that something will develop from the proposition, at least an investigation, when it will be up to Sedalia to land it.

Mr. Strickland was in Sedalia today on his semi-annual vist and Mr E. E. Johnston placed his next fall orders for gloves with him.

One Killed; Another Hurt.

Clarence Dykes, a young farmer from New Truxton, Mo., was killed, and W. C. Davis, of Aullville, Mo., was injured internally in a runaway accident at Higginsvlle Sunday. The buggy was wrecked, and the horses ran five miles before they were caught.

LEGAL BATTLE OVER $750,000 ESTATE LEFT BY LATE DANIEL RUSSELL.

A SENSATION AT MELROSE, MASS.

No Matter Which Side Wins There Is Certain to Be Prosecution for Crookedness in Effort to Secure the Money.

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 23.—The wrangle over the rightful claimant to the $750,000 estate of the late Daniel Russell, of Melrose, has developed sufficient testimonw to warrant criminal action, no matter which way the scales of justice fall.

A tall, dark haired man from North Dakota stands before the Middlesex probate court either as the long lost son or as one of the most accomplished imposters in the legal annals of the state.

He says he is Daniel Blake Russell, the second son of Daniel Russell, who disappeared when a boy, and that he did not hear of his father's death until a year after the estate had been practically settled.

On the other side stands William C. Russell, the elder son and principal beneficiary under the will, who alleges that the North Dakotan is really James Rousseau, of Malone, N. Y., and that he has been backed in his fight for the Russell property by a particularly clever group of gamblers in or about Dickinson, N. D.

The charges on both sides have been sensational and can hardly be disregarded by either the prosecuting attorneys of the state or the nation.

If the claimant's case is upheld, the postoffice authorities will be warranted in arresting some of the other side for forging cancellation dates and rifling the mails.

If, on the other hand, the estate wins, the claimant stands as a perjurer and one who has attempted to obtain money under false petenses.

Since the trial opened on September 20, seven lawyers have missed scarcely a session. They have been assisted by more than fifty detectives. It is estimated that the case has cost to date $200,000.

HADLEY AND MISSOURI WOMANHOOD.

The recent riots at Cairo, in the first of which two men were lynched, and in the last one rioter was killed and several wounded, were caused by the law's delay and its past inefficiency to punish adequately those guilty of the most brutal and outrageous crimes.

Riots are to be deplored always, but while that is true one wonders sometimes at the long patience of some communities at the frequent escape from all punishment of these criminals, the long delay before even partial punishment is meted out to them, or the totally inadequate penalty oftentimes given them by the courts.

Too much praise can not be said of the forbearance of a people who restrain their impulses to take the law into their own hands after a jury has adjudged a black brute guilty of an assault upon and murder of a helpless white woman, and sentenced him to death, and a governor of the state twice respites the guilty wretch, without good reason and in spite of the protest of the decent citizens of the commonwealth.

What shall be said of a governor who is so lacking in respect or appreciation of the white womanhood of Missouri as to interpose his authority between the law's just retribution and a negro fiend guilty of the most infamous crime known to man?

And this is just what Governor Hadley has done in the case of Bill Wilson, of Jasper county, who was to have been hanged last Friday. Once before the governor stayed the negro's sentence, and unless he is made to realize the extent of popular indignation that the action will arouse, will probably finish the case with a commutation.

This negro Wilson was an employe of a carnival company which was showing in Carl Junction. During a night in July, over two years ago, he Millie Plum, a white woman, also employed by the company, felled her with a blow from his fist and assaulted her. Later, fearing that if he let her live she would tell the awful story, he tied a rope to her neck and dragged her living, breathing body down the tracks, over the ties and cinders, and hid it, dead, in an empty car, where he left it, to be found later by others.

When the body was found, Wilson was suspected and arrested. It is said that he confessed, but later repudiated the confession. He was tried, found guilty and given the death sentence. The supreme court affirmed the verdict, and the execution was to have taken place a month ago, but Hadley interfered with a 30-day reprieve.

When that reprieve expired he was on hand with another.

No one for a moment believes that Governor Hadley was actuated by humanitarian motives or by an abhorrance of capital punishment, for were that so he never would have allowed the two Kansas City negroes, who assaulted a white woman there, to hang. But he knew if he interferred in that case indignation would be so strong that it would end his political career in Missouri.

But in Wilson's case publicity had not been as great and knowledge of the terrible crime had not been so widespread, and Hadley saw an opportunity of placating the negro voters, whom he antagonized in the Kansas City case, by saving this wretched brute's life.

It is politics pure and simple, and Missouri's chief executive places against woman's honor, woman's life and woman's virture the black voters of the state, and has chosen the latter.

He will find, however, that there are enough clean-hearted, pure-minded white and negro republicans in the state, who, resenting the action, will more than offset in numbers the lawless and brutal element to whom he caters in snatching from the gallows this black devil.

THE FOUNDATION.

It is the farmer whom we must depend upon. He digs the ground and scatters the seed and reaps the harvest. When there are too few of him all other workers in all other forms of industry languish and grow hungry. A glimmer of these truths is at last dawning upon the public mind. As the nation has grown into such bulk of numbers that its capacity for consumption of farm producas has nearly overtaken actual production there is a sudden realization of the future possibility of under supply. This state of apprehension has been quickened further by the general alarm created by the high cost of living.

One good result must follow. From this time forth the farmer will be better appreciated. Heretofore he has been the foremost of our burden bearers. While he has been taxed other interests have been coddled. The exports of farm products have brought untold wealth into the country. The farmer has thus paid for all our imported necessities and luxuries, at the same time bearing the brunt of domestic taxation for building up of industries unable to prosper without extraneous help.

These suckling infants, so nurtured, have grown into stalwart, grabbing giants, whose unabated greed has become a source of common danger. The nation turns to the farmer for rescue. It is generally conceded that he must dig a way out of our difficulties.

Nearly all of the economists agree that there must be more farms; that the farms must be better cultivated; that the arid lands must be irrigated; that the swamp lands must be drained; but the wiser among them also insist that the load of exhaustive indirect taxation which the farmer pays on his tools, his shelter, his clothing and all the necessaries of living which he can not himself produce must be relaxed.

He must be protected from trusts that prey upon him. He does not ask to be coddled. All he wants is a fair field and no favors. He insists on a square deal. He is likely to get it. All the portents point that way.

It is beginning to dawn upon the general apprehension that to help the farmer is the best way to help everybody else. Farming is the foundation of the country.

THE DAY NURSERY PROJECT.

The Democrat-Sentinel desires to call the attention of its readers to an article on the day nursery, published elsewhere in this issue.

The project seems to have taken such shape that its backers count it a success. This paper has had the matter very much at heart since its inception by Mrs. C. W. Flower. It appealed to us as very practical and praiseworthy, and ought certainly to commend itself to all lovers of children.

It has for its prime object the caring for children while the parents go out to work, it being understood that the parents could not leave home to labor unless some such provision could be made for the care of their offspring. The institution is to be absolutely non-sectarian in its management, and should receive the unstinted support of the entire community. In the name of sweet charity we heartily commend it to our patrons and the general public.

If you are in sympathy with the movement and want to help, inform the secretary, Miss Harriet Gold, of your intention. Don't wait to be called on, but do it now.

In addition to the donations of Mrs. Cotton, the "P. E. O." ladies and the ladies of the "U. D. C.," the Democrat Co. hereby subscribes $25, payable at any time.

Deafness cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

A GOULD LINE TRIP

KANSAS EDITOR DESCRIBES A RIDE OF 260 MILES ON THE "CENTRAL BRANCH."

THE EXPERIENCE OF BERT WALKER

Widely Traveled Ties That Never Bore a Rail—Cause of a Pullman Strait Jacket— AFew Notes on the Way.

Bert Walker, editor of the Osborne (Kan.) Farmer, was in Kansas City a few days since. On the subject of the Central branch of the Missouri Pacific he gave this interview to the Kansas City Star:

"The Central branch? Well, it's still the same Central branch. I have just ridden 260 miles over it. Osborne is exactly 260 miles from Kansas City. We leave Osborne at 7:18 at night and land at Kansas City at noon the next day—if we are lucky. That's twenty miles an hour. Ever ride on the Central branch? You have heard about the scenic railroad at Electric park? Well, the Central branch could make an even gross of scenic railroads and then have enough left to make numerous Cook's trips to the north pole.

"At Atchison we changed conductors. I handed him my mileage book which all good and true editors out our way carry. 'This, my brother,' said he, 'is dead.' 'But,' I tried to explain, 'I rode all the way in from Osborne on it. How does it come that it is not good now?' 'Oh, hell,' replied he, 'half the things that start in on the Central branch alive land here dead. Beardless boys who leave Kansas City as news agents return gray bearded men and find their parents dead and buried.' The fare to K. C. is $1. I paid. He had all the argument on his side.

"Coming down from Atchison I heard a terrible racket in the rear of the car. I asked a brakeman what it was. 'Nothing,' said he, 'except the door has fallen off the stove and landed in the aisle. The track is a little rough.' I afterwards found out that it was his second trip and he considered it his duty to defend the Goulds.

"At Downs a woman traveler was putting up an awful kick to the ticket agent. She objected to paying one fifty for a Pullman. 'Madam,' replied the agent, 'that is the regular fare. Everybody pays it. Why do you object?' 'Well, to speak the truth, I don't mind paying that much for a lower berth, but I don't think an upper is worth it. It is too awfully hot up there in the day time.'

"When we reached Concordia I told the porter I guessed I would go to bed. He got a straight jacket and put me into it. 'What is this for?' I asked him. 'Well,' said he, 'it is a whole lot easier to put them back in the berths when they are in this shape.'

"I note with a good deal of pleasure that the Central branch is hauling train loads of ties out west to fix up the track. I noticed the ties and spoke about them to a farmer who lives at Netawaka. 'They can't fool me,' he says. 'I have lived out here twenty-five years. I have seen those same ties no less than a dozen times. They haul them back every time they promise to fix up the old branch. I found my own initials on one of the ties the other day. I cut them there the first time the ties were hauled out west of Netawaka. About one more trip to the Omaha division and those old ties will be all in.'

"But Governor Stubbs has done something no other Kansas official has been able to do with the Missouri Pacific. A gang of men is out painting all the depots yellow. Beloit was promised a new stone depot to take the place of the one burned a few years ago. The crew showed up there and painted the section house yellow and for good measure put red spots around the key hole.

"Then when the section boss heard a crowd of men in the postoffice making a roar, he yelled back at them: 'What in the name of Mike do you people here expect? Lightning rods on the depot?'

"So the chickens and the butter and the eggs and the passengers all occupy the same waiting room at Beloit, and if you stand in with the ticket agent he will stop looking in the chicken crates for eggs long enough to sell you a ticket to Scottsville.

"During the recent blizzard a couple of drunks got on Conductor Collins' train at Atchison. They were bound for Effingham. They went to sleep, and when the train had passed Effingham a couple of miles the conductor woke them up and put them off. The train ploughed on through the storm to Goffs, thirty miles farther. The conductor went into the waiting room and the same two fellows were standing by the stove. 'How in the devil did you get here?' he asked. 'Well, boss, you see, we made a mistake and started west instead of east. We have been here about an hour.'

"The Central branch changes its time table every two weeks. It has to in order to keep the trains on time. Whenever the trainmaster finds out it takes a few minutes longer for the train to reach Downs from Atchison he orders a new time table. The last time a new time table was put into effect the engineer happened to have luck and landed in Downs five minutes ahead of time. He came within twenty-five minutes of making as good time as had the engineer the previous day."

WAS GREAT FIGHT

TOOK PLACE ON PACIFIC COAST

Nelson Was a Two to One Favorite, but He Was Done for in the Fortieth Round—Description of the Battle.

Richmond Arena, Cal., Feb. 23.—His face battered to a pulp, his eyes closed, his lips puffed, covered with blood and staggering helplessly about the ring last afternoon, Battling Nelson, conqueror of Joe Gans, was saved from a knockout in the fortieth round of his fight with Ad Wolgast when Referee Eddie Smith humanely stopped a most unequal contest.

Nelson, game to the last, stood in the center of the ring, and even though he could hardly raise his hands, begged to be allowed to continue.

He was led to his corner heartbroken.

In the opposite corner of the ring, the new lightweight champion of the world, Ad Wolgast, of Cadillac, Mich., was lifted to the shoulders of his trainers amid the cheers of the crowd.

Only once in the fight did Nelson have a chance—the twenty-second round—when, with a stinging right cross to the jaw he staggered his opponent.

Before the round closed he dropped Wolgast in the middle of the ring with a similar blow and three seconds were tolled before Wolgast regained his feet.

The crowd prepared to leave the arena; the word went from bench to bench through the spectators that another boy had fallen victim to the wonderful durability of the Dane.

But in the next round Wolgast recuperated and from then on, slowly, steadily, but surely, wore Nelson down.

For twelve rounds before the finish Nelson seemed bewildered and his blows were sent as though he held weights in his hands.

From the thirtieth round Nelson could hardly see or hear, the left side of his face having lost all semblance of its former countour. He staggered and hung on.

In the thirty-eighth round John Robinson, Nelson's manager, wanted to throw the sponge into the ring, but Abdul the Turk, one of the seconds, tore it from his hands and threw it into the bucket.

From then on in each round Robinson protested that his man was beaten.

When the fortieth round came Referee Smith asked Nelson if he wanted to quit, and Nelson, unable to talk, merely shook his head negatively.

When thirty seconds of the fortieth round had gone and darkness was beginning to creep over the scene of the fight, with a full moon peeping through the clouds, Referee Smith raised Wolgast's glove into the air and a new lightweight champion had come into the fistiana.

Wolgast had outgeneraled, outboxed and all but outgamed the great Battling Nelson. After the battle Wolgast scampered out of the ring like a schoolboy and galloped through the mud.

Nelson was taken out in the arms of his seconds. As he was carried through the crowd he was cheered for the remarkable grit and gameness displayed, such as old ring followers say seldom has been seen in a prize ring.

Referee Smith made the following statement to the Associated Press:

"Wolgast fought Nelson at his own game and beat him fairly and squarely. Nelson complained at times of Wolgast butting, but I paid little heed, as it was simply a case of the Battler getting the worst of a game where both were equally guilty.

"Both men fought the same, but one had youth, the power to come back; vigor, life and all that goes with it, while the thirteen years of fighting through which Nelson had gone had sapped his strength and left him without the old snap, dash and stamina."

Wolgast said after the fight: "My fight today was like a training bout, only once did he bother me, and that was in the twenty-second round. Nelson hurt me more by butting me than anything else, and I felt funny for just a few seconds. I cannot say anything as to my future plans, but am ready to give deserving lightweights a chance."

When Nelson was able to talk he said: "I am sorry they called the fight when they did. I think I could have stayed the forty-five rounds, but I have no complaint to make."

Detmer, a resident of Sedalia. The consideration was $40,000. This is one of the best stock farms in the county. It was cut up into about a half dozen fields and is enclosed with hog fence. The land has been well cared for. Mr. Wade has not yet announced his plans for the future. He may give possession of the farm about the 1st of March, or he may remain upon it another year. A son of Mr. Detmer will probably move to the farm when Mr. Wade gives possession. Mr. Detmer also owns valuable real estate near Arrow Rock, Saline county.

Mr. Morris will have a public sale next Friday, Febraury 25. See his announcement in this paper. Mr. Morris has not decided upon his future plans, but he will not move to his Oklahoma farm.

The Two Salvations!

Text, "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."—John 3:16. "Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it, that he might sanctify and cleanse it by the washing of water by the Word."—Eph. 5:25-27.

Correspondence Democrat-Sentinel.

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 20. — Pastor Charles T. Russell, of the Brooklyn tabernacle, preached twice here today in our largest auditorium to "The Bible Students' convention." The large audience seemed deeply interested. He said:

Some apply the first text only and think of the Divine program as being merely an endeavor to rescue mankind from sin and death to righteousness and eternal life in the present time. Such as hold this view are much confused, because it must be acknowledged that comparatively little has been done, or is now being done, for man's uplift. After six thousand years it is still true that "The whole world lieth in the wicked one;" "Darkness covers the earth and gross darkness the heathen." In order to have any confidence at all in this theory those who hold it are obliged to greatly lower their standards. They are forced to hope that God will admit millions of unfit people, crude, rude, ignorant and wicked, to eternal life and happiness, or perchance provide for them Pergatorial experiences to make them fit, righteous and acceptable for life eternal. As a whole christian people are greatly bewildered. The tendency of their bewilderment is toward doubt, skepticism, atheism.

The other view briefly stated is that God never intended the salvation of the world, but merely the salvation of the church, elect according to the foreknowledge of God and santification of the spirit and belief in the truth. Those who hold this theory have great confusion also, because it seems incomprehensible that God would make no provision for "thousands of millions" of Adam's race, but arrange for them to be born in sin, shapen in iniquity, and to go down to the tomb (or worse) without a clear knowledge of God and His purposes and will respecting them.

As we have already frequently set forth, both of the described theories are erroneous. The Scriptures set forth two salvations, entirely separate and distinct. They are different as respects time, in that the one "salvaion began to be spoken by our Lord" at His first advent, and began to be applicable to His church at Pentecost, and will wholly cease at His second coming in the end of this age. The other salvation neither applied before our Lord's first advent nor during this Gospel age, but will apply to all mankind, except the church, during the Millennium— the thousand years of the reign of Christ and the church, especially designed for the blessing of the world and its uplifting out of sin and death conditions.

These two salvations are distinctly different as to kind as well as respects their plan of operation. The salvation of the church during this Gospel age, since Pentecost, means not only a deliverance from sin and death conditions to eternal life, but provides that the eternal life will be on the heavenly or spiritual plane and not on the earthy or human plane of existence. Thus the apostle declares that our "inheritance is incorruptible and undefiled and fadeth not away, and is reserved in heaven for us who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation" (I Peter i, 4-5). Our Lord also told that in the resurrection we shall be like unto angels. The apostle also declares that ultimately we shall be partakers of the Divine nature and like our Lord and Redeemer.

Hence, all who participate in this salvation of this Gospel age are Scripturally spoken of as new creatures in Christ Jesus, whose "citizenship is in heaven." These are assured that at the Lord's second coming they will constitute the first resurrection class. They are guaranteed that only the blessed and holy will have part therein, and that all participating in that first resurrection will be royal priests unto God and unto Christ and reign with Him a thousand years (Rev. xx, 6).

They are assured that the transformation of mind which they now experience through the begetting of the Holy Spirit will, in their resurrection result in a complete transformation providing them with spirit bodies. Thus it is written of their resurrection: "It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power; it is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory; it is sown an animal body; it is raised a spiritual body" (I Cor xv. 42-44). Of those who will share in the church's salvation the apostle says, "We shall not all sleep, but must all be changed," because "flesh and blood can not inherit the kingdom of God" (I Cor. xv 50-51).

The world's salvation which will follow will be wholly different from this. It will not include a change of nature from earthly to spiritual nature. It will mean a rescue from sin and death to the earthly perfection of the original man, in the image and likeness of his Creator, and surrounded by every necessary blessing for his comfort. Human perfection and the Eden home were lost through disobedience to God. The Divine arrangement is that the merit of our Lord's obedience unto death, when ultimately applied for mankind, shall fully cancel the death sentence upon him. More and better than this, God has promised that the same sin-offering shall seal a new covenant between Himself and mankind. The blessings of that new covenant arrangement will then immediately begin. The great Redeemer will thenceforth be the great Mediator of that new covenant. The whole world of mankind will be fully under His supervision and government for their blessing, their correction in righteousness, their uplifting out of sin and death conditions—back, back, back to all that was lost in Eden. All of this was the original design of the great Creator. All of this will be outworked through the great Redeemer. All of this was secured, or suretied, through His death, finished at Calvary (Hebrews vii, 22.)

St. Peter, pointing down to that glorious time of the world's blessing, calls it " times of refreshing and times of restitution." He tells us that all the holy prophets described the blessings of those restitution times—the thousand years, the Millennium (Acts iii, 19-21). When once we get the eyes of our understanding opened, we find the Apostle's words thoroughly corroborated by the Divine records, which describe the wonderful blessings that are to come when the earth shall yield her increase. Then Paradise Lost shall be Paradise Regained. Then God will make his earthly footstool glorious. Then the blessing of the Lord shall make rich and he will add no sorrow therewith. Then streams shall break forth in the desert and the wilderness and solitary places shall be glad. But most glorious will be the changes in humanity. The Lord promises to turn to the people a "pure message"—instead of the contradiction of creeds of heathenism and Churchianity. He promises that Satan shall be bound for that thousand years, that he may deceive the nations no more. He promises that then all the "blinded eyes shall be opened and all the deaf ears shall be unstopped." (Isaiah xxxv, 5; Corinthians iv. 4.)

Two Salvations—One Savior.

Both of these salvations, according to the Bible, result from the death of Jesus our Redeemer, who died in obedience to the Divine will. "Died, the Just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God" (I Peter iii, 18). The Scriptures clearly show not only the two salvations, but also two parts of the Redeemer's work, distinctly separating his work for the Church from his work for the world. In his death there was a Divine general provision for the sins of the whole world and a special provision for the sins of the Church. The two thoughts are frequently brought out in the Scriptures. One text distinctly declares, "He is the propitiation [satisfaction] for our sins [the Church's sins], and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." His death constituted the satisfaction price. The Redeemer applied that merit for the Church's sins, "for us," long ago, eighteen centuries before we were born. Only when we became believers and entered into a Covenant of sacrifice did we obtain our share in the merit of that great sacrifice. The world has not yet received its share of that promised blessing, but the operation of the Divine Plan is sure and will bring it to them "in due time," as St. Paul declares (I Timothy ii, 6).

The drawing and calling of the Church has not been along the lines of human perfection, for all are sinners and none righteous or perfect. And many of those drawn of the Lord were by nature more fallen and depraved than some who give no evidenct of the work of grace in their hearts. The Lord's calling and drawing seem to be along the lines of justice, love of righteousness, faith, humanity and obedience. These qualities will all belong to the perfect man. But all have lost them in varying degrees. Such as respond to the Lord's call now are accepted as being in the right heart attitude which, if they had perfect bodies, would constitute them perfect men. In other words, they have qualities of heart which, if brought to a knowledge of the Truth, would prove some of them to be pure in heart and such as the Lord would desire should have eternal life and all of his favors. But more are called and drawn by God's providences and the preaching of his message than he designs to save in the present salvation. He is choosing a very select class for a very special purpose and therefore makes the terms and conditions of their salvation extremely difficult. As a consequence we read, "Many are called, but few chosen"—under this "high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

Terms of Salvation Differ.

Of course, these different salvations imply different terms or conditions. God's requirement of Adam, that he might continue to live forever and everlastingly enjoy Divine favor, his Eden Home, etc., was obedience to reasonable, just requirements. It was his violation of the Divine Law that brought upon him the sentence of death—"Dying thou shalt die"—with all that this has implied to him and his posterity of mental, moral and physical decline, weakness, death. The requirement of God for the world of mankind during the Millennial Age will similarly be—obedience to God's just, reasonable regulations, laws. Whoever then will render obedience may with proportionate rapidity go up on the highway of holiness toward perfection at its end. Whoever refuses obedience to the extent of his ability will fail to make progress and ultimately die the Second Death, from which there will be no redemption and no resurrection.

Such obedience as will be required of mankind in the great Mediator's Kingdom will include their co-operation in the resistance of their own fallen weakness. It will include the exercise of patience and kindness towards their fellow-creatures, fellow-sufferers. The Divine Law of love to God with all the heart, mind, soul, strength and for the neighbor as for one's self they must learn fully. As they will realize their own blemishes and strive to overcome them and ask, not the Father, but the Mediator for forgiveness, they will be obliged to follow the Divine rule of exercising towards others similar mercy and forgiveness to that which they desire for themselves. But they will not be required to enter into the covenant of self-sacrifice, self-denial, etc. All the blessings of God on the earthly plane will be for them fully and freely to use and enjoy, in harmony with the Divine regulation.

The conditions governing the salvation of the church are wholly different from those which will appertain to the world. The church is called out of the world under a Divine invitation to suffer with Christ in the present life and during this Gospel Age and then to reign with Christ during the Millennial Age, participating in his Mediatorial Kingdom for the blessing, uplifting, salvation of the world. It is not in vain, therefore, that our Lord and the apostles, in setting forth the call of the church during this age, specified particularly and frequently the necessity for all who would share in this salvation to participate with the Redeemer in his sacrificing, in "his death," and consequently participate in "his resurrection" and in his reign of glory. Hark to the words, "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life;" "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my Throne;" "And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple" (Luke xiv, 27). Let us remember our Lord's words to the disciples James and John, respecting a place in his Millennial Throne. He intimated that the getting to the Throne at all, in any place, would imply great humility and self-sacrifice. He asked the disciples, "Are ye able (willing) to drink of the cup that I shall drink of and to be baptized with the baptism (into death) that I am baptized with? (Mark x, 38). Hearken again: This cup of which he tells us we must drink, if we would sit in his Throne, is his communion cup. It is offered, not to the world, but to his consecrated followers. It is not another cup, but "My Cup." The invitation was, "This is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Drink ye all of it" (Matthew xxvi, 28, 27). It must all be drunk before the many, the world, can get their share of the intended blessing through the New Covenant, which this blood seals. And only those who desire to walk in his steps, are invited to drink of that cup. All of them are so invited and they will drink all of it. None of it will be left for the world during the Millennial Age to drink. It is a special privilege to drink of this cup. With the drinking of it goes the special blessing of the special salvation of this Gospel Age. Except we eat of his flesh (appropriate the merit of his sacrifice), and unless we drink his blood (join in sacrifice with him), we have no life in us—inherent life, immortality.

So far as our hearts and minds are concerned at the time of our consecration they must be fully given up to the Lord ere he will accept them. We could be no more fully consecrated if we had absolutely perfect bodies and were absolutely free from all the entailment of Adam's condemnation. But God's requirement is that no sacrifice may come upon his altar, except such as is without spot or blemish. Hence he could not accept our offering, our consecration, even though it were as completely and fully made as was our dear Redeemer. Hence his first provision was that the righteousness of Christ should be imputed to us on account of our faith and obedience, in order to permit us to offer sacrifices holy and acceptable to God (Malachi iii, 3; Romans xii, 1).

This view of our participation in the Redeemer's merit separately and apart from the world's participation in it—by faith and imputation of merit and not actually—the Bible declares to be a "mystery," which not many are able to discern—only the spiritually-minded—only the spirit-begotten. Those who can see and hear and understand the terms and conditions of this great salvation of this Gospel Age are specially blessed—"Blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear" Matthew xiii, 16). To see, to hear, to understand, that glory, honor, immortality eternal life on the spirit plane, are the rewards of a few years of self-denial and self-sacrifice, is to hear of a pearl of great price, of which few know. And to know of that pearl and not to be willing to sell all that we have to obtain it would demonstrate to the Father our unworthiness of life on this high plane. We exhort so many as see and hear and appreciate, in the words of the Apostle, "Let us make our calling and election sure" by a full and hearty compliance with the gracious high calling of which we have learned and which our hearts have accepted (II Peter i, 10).

WOMAN'S WOES

Sedalia Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. M. H. Rodreick, 1904 S. Lamine St., Sedalia, Mo., says: "I was troubled off and on for two years by a pain in my back. Any exertion tired me and I noticed that the trouble was worse during cold or damp weather. At night I could not rest well and I was at a loss to know what to do. At last I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and had my husband procure a box for me at Bard's drug store. I was soon cured through their use and during the seven years that have since passed, I have been free from the trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

MR. D. B. BULKLEY'S CLASS

Practice Yell and Organize Basket Ball Team Tonight.

The young men's Bible class of the First Methodist Episcopal church met Sunday morning at the usual hour and was very well attended, there being fifty-one present.

The Y. M. B. C. pennant was awarded to Mr. Rodehouse, his "yell" being considered the best and most appropriate for the Bible class.

Dr. E. D. Holbert, superintendent of the Sunday school, made the presentation speech and tendered the pennant to the worthy winner.

The class will meet at the Y. M. C. A. rooms tonight to practice the class yell and also to organize a basketball team.

This is certainly a wide awake class of young men, ranging from the age of 15 to 25 years. If you are a young man you are missing a treat by not being associated with an organization of this kind.

This class has an increase in membership of from three to ten every Sunday. If you wish to join you will not be alone in doing so.

Many young men have joined the church in the past few weeks from the influence of the class association. The object of the class is to help young men to do the thing that is right, to live right and to serve the Lord. The class started with three members and now has eighty-seven active members. We absolutely do not ask young men to leave their church or Sunday school to join us. We have some young men who have joined this class of their own free will from other churches, and are working with us for the uplifting of the young men. In cases of that kind we welcome them with open arms, for where there is unity there is strength.

In conclusion, I, as the teacher, will say this is God's cause and His work. If you are in harmony with God's work you will not try to tear down, but to build up.

Strangers, you are welcome. Visitors, you are welcome. No age limit placed on visitors. Come and be with us next Sunday, Feb. 27, at the First M. E. church, corner Fourth and Osage streets, at 9:30 a. m.—D. B. Bulkley, Teacher.

SHOOT UP A CAR

Two Negroes in Jersey City Give Exhibition of Wild West.

New York, Feb. 23.—Three negroes boarded a smoker on a train early this morning at the terminal in Jersey City, pulled three huge revolvers and proceeded to shoot up the car in wild western fashion, and wounded two passengers seriously.

They then jumped from the train and made their escape.

FOLK WRITES LETTERS

Politicians Think Senatorial Race Is Between Reed and Francis.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 22.—Former Governor Folk, who has just returned to St. Louis from an extensive lecture tour, declines to discuss the Hadley-Stone controversy.

During the last two weeks the former governor has caused to be written letters to prominent democrats throughout the state asking their opinion as to his prospective senatorial candidacy.

This was the course followed by David R. Francis just prior to his entering the senatorial race.

Both Francis and Reed are convinced Folk will be defeated. They profess to be little concerned over the strength of the prohibition forces with whom Folk has been a favorite on account of his uncompromising anti-saloon attitude.

In generally well informed political circles the report is current that eventually the senatorial race will lie between Francis and Folk, as with the entrance of the latter it is thought the Kansas City man will retire from the race.

The Accused Is Married and Has Children—He Denies In Emphatic Language That There Was Anything Like Attack.

Comer, Ga., Feb. 22.—Accused of having criminally attacked Mrs. Martha Graham, the young wife of his neighbor, John G. Smith, a prominent man, has been arrested and held without bail.

According to Mrs. Graham, who is a bride of a few weeks, the alleged attack was committed several days ago. Smith and Graham are neighbors and the families have been intimate.

Mrs. Graham was at Smith's house recently and when she started home Smith offered to accompany her.

On the way, Mrs. Graham charges, Smith made love to her. She repulsed him and then she says he made her submit by force.

Smith is married and has children. He bitterly denies that there was any attack. The Grahams are prominent and their friends are so bitter that there is talk of lynching.

The jail is strongly guarded.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

The Kansas City court of appeals Monday reversed and remanded the case of Miller vs. the Missouri and Kansas Telephone Co., sent up from Pettis county, wherein Miller had originally brought suit in this county for $10,000 damages against the telephone company for injuries sustained in falling from a telephone pole.

The accident occurred years ago. At that time the telephone company was engaged in removing its poles and wires from overhead. Miller had ascended a pole and when nearly at the top of it fell a distance of about eighteen feet. He alleges he permanently injured his spine.

Through his attorney, W. D. Steele, he sued for $10,000. He secured a verdict for $5,000. The case was taken to the supreme court, and when the legislature passed a law that no suits under $7,500 shall go to that tribunal the case was transferred to the Kansas City court. It was argued there last December, Steele for Miller and Judge George F. Longan for the defendant.

"I had rather be here today than be in heaven. It is not heaven to me, either to thump on a harp or wear a heavy crown of gold and attend eternal prayer meeting. Most of those meetings we have today are bad enough."

The speaker paid his compliments to some of the church selections in the musical lines, saying:

"Oh, how abominable are some of the hymns! Rag-time tunes and whitewashed coon songs are all they amount to."

Information reached Chief Boulit Sunday that Robbinson was conducting his scheme in that city. A telegram was sent to the chief of police requesting the latter to ascertain if the clairvoyant there was the one who had victimized a number of Sedalians.

When the Hannibal authorities went to search for the clairvoyant he had disappeared.

KILLED THE WIFE OF A PROMINENT FARMER IN BUENA VISTA COUNTY, IOWA.

ARRESTED AND CONFESSED CRIME

His Excuse Was That He Murdered Her to Prevent Her Killing Her Children—Will Be Sent to an Asylum.

Marathon, Ia., Feb. 22.—The home of Guy Roberts, a prosperous Buena Vista county farmer, living near here, was the scene of a murder yesterday, his wife being the victim.

Henry Johnson, who was arrested charged with the terrible crime, is mentally deranged. He confessed his guilt last afternoon saying he killed Mrs. Roberts to prevent her killing her children. He probably will be sent to an insane hospital.

The murderer cut his victim's head to pieces with an axe. Johnson had been employed on the Roberts farm for a year and had not shown any signs of insanity.

A summer kitchen in the rear of the Roberts farm house was the scene of the tragedy.

Mrs. Roberts had gone to the kitchen to prepare the family clothes for the wash and while engaged in this task was attacked by the murderer.

At the time of the murder Mr. Roberts was in the house and when his wife did not return he went out and found her lifeless body in the kitchen terribly mutilated.

RUNAWAY CAR KILLS ONE

Seventeen Hurt in St. Louis in Quarter-Mile Dash on Incline.

St. Louis, Feb. 22.—Its brakes out of commission, a Park avenue street car dashed a quarter of a mile down a steep incline on Park avenue at full speed last night, spreading death and destruction in its wake before it was halted by colliding with the curb.

One man was killed outright, seventeen passengers were injured, seven of them seriously and two carriages were demolished, while the car was completely wrecked.

John Voyce, 54 years old, was thrown beneath the wheels of the car when it struck his carriage at Park and Grand avenues and crushed to death, while his companion was badly hurt.

Pursuing its wild career, with the motorman helplessly trying to apply the brakes, the car crashed into another carriage at Vandeventer avenue, demolishing the vehicle and injuring its two occupants.

A block further down the street the car jumped the track and tipped over on its side when it struck the curb. Seven of the passengers on the car were women and three of them fainted during the hair-raising ride. All of them were more or less seriously hurt.

A BIG HAUL OF FISH

IN ONE DAY TOOK OUT ONE HUNDRED TONS FROM TETONKA LAKE, MINNESOTA.

THE CATCH BROUGHT HIM $7,200

He Loaded the Fish Into Two Freight Cars, Sent Them to Market, and Has Just Received Checks is Payment.

Red Wing, Minn., Feb. 22.—With a seine 1,800 feet long and several men to assist him, David Gautenbein took from the upper Mississippi river inland lakes in one afternoon $7,200 worth of fish. He loaded the fish into cars, got them to market and has just received checks in payment for them.

Gautenbein got the fish from Tetonka lake, near Waterville. There were 100 tons of them, mostly of the buffalo species, and were unusually large. One of them tipped the scales at 47½ pounds.

Had it not been that his seine came in contact with heavy snags in the bottom of the lake his haul would have been still larger. One end of the seine was partly destroyed and several tons of fish escaped.

The fishermen who accomplished this feat made another prize haul last winter further up the river, when they gathered 60,000 pounds.

It was rather an expensive haul, however, as his entire crew worked for two months clearing out snags from the river bottoms. Seven cars were required to ship the fish to eastern points. The fish are simply thrown into rough boxes and are not packed.

SEDALIANS ARE "IN IT"

Subscribe for Stock in Osage Transportation Company.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Plans are being perfected in Sedalia for the incorporation of the Osage Transportation company, and up to date a number of well known Sedalians have decided to become financially interested in the corporation.

John Montgomery, Jr., Charles F. Welch, Coby Bloch, Lee Lovinger, Damon Porter and J. T. Turner have subscribed for stock in the company, and will be among the financial backers.

The company is to be organized early this spring by Claus Shoemaker, a popular resident of Yeager's Ferry, who is well known to many of Sedalia's fishermen, who have frequently been guests at his home on the Osage.

The purpose of the company is to build a boat to do passenger and freight business on the Osage river from Warsaw to the mouth of the river at Linn Creek.

The Sedalians who are interested in the project feel confident that it will be a paying invtstment.

COLOR IS CHANGED

EXPERIMENTS AT THE UNIVERSITY

Changes the Color and Also the orm, and Matures Them in One-Half of Nature's Time, it Is Claimed.

Columbia, Mo., Feb. 22.—Plants may be made to order, according to Prof. C. Stuart Gager, who for two years has been experimenting with radium at the University of Missouri.

An entirely new species of primrose has been originated by the use of radium, and it has held true to the new form through three generations of the plant.

The color of the flower was changed, and the leaves changed from broad to narrow.

It is possible to accelerate or retard the growth of plants by exposing them to the radium.

Several seeds of oats were planted in the same flower pots with tubes of radium, and the seeds germinated in half the regular time and the plant grew twice as fast.

In another experiment, in which the amount of radium had been increased and used in bromide form, the germination of the seeds was retarded.

CAYENNE PEPPER AND HORSERADISH CAUSE A BOOM IN THE MARKET.

HE TELLS THE WORLD THE SECRET

County Official Has Biddies Working at Pace That Promise to Made Him a Rockefeller in Short Time.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 22.—The secret of our successful poultry man has leaked out. Henry Ahlers, deputy assessor of St. Louis county, residing on the Watson and Olive street roads, yesterday said the diet most conducive to a prolific crop of eggs is a combination of cayenne pepper and horseradish.

Ahlers brings his eggs to Clayton when he comes to work in the morning, and the regularity with which he has been bringing them during the cold weather caused him to be closely questioned yesterday by his friends. Ahlers, in reply, said.

"Oh, I just feed them a little cayenne pepper and horseradish once in a while. I have a large horseradish patch next to my poultry yard. I have found that even the dried horseradish leaves are good for chickens."

Ahlers said yesterday that he has between sixty-five and seventy hens, and that some weeks he gathers as many as twenty-five dozen eggs. He said he averaged about twenty-two dozen a week. During December and January he received as high as 50 cents a dozen for eggs.

WEEKLY DEMOCRAT-SENTINEL

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Sentinel Established 1880. Vol. XXVII. Democrat Established 1868. Vol XL. Consolidated 1907.

SEDALIA, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24. 1910.

VOL. 4. NO. 8. $1 PER YEAR

SET STAKES TODAY

FOR THE NEW $10,000 HOME OF THE POPULAR SEDALIA COUNTRY CLUB.

BE 3 TIMES AS LARGE AS OLD HOME

Directors Will Meet During Month for the Election of Officers—Entire Charge In Force at the Club House.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Today Oscar Thomas, the contractor for the new Country Club house, set stakes for the excavation of the basement of the building and the delivery of gravel will begin tomorrow for the concrete work. The total cost of the building will be $10,000 and the contract calls for its completion and delivery to the club on July 1st.

The water main from the fair grounds pipe on Twentieth street has been laid sourn on Limit avenue to the M., K. & T. tracks, and as soon as the sub-crossing is put under the tracks the water pipe will be laid to the building site. The construction car and pile driver is expected today to begin the work of putting in a crossing under the tracks at the foot of Limit street, which will then be extended south to the Sedalia and Clinton road.

The crossing will have a clearance of ten feet under the tracks, so that automobiles and vehicles of all kinds can go to and from the club house without the danger and inconvenience of a surface railroad crossing. The opening of Limit avenue south will afford a shorter entrance to the fair grounds to the people southwest of the city and will fill a longfelt want.

The golf links have been covered with manure during the winter and a carload of lime has been ordered, which will be spread over the manure for the purpose of strengthening the soil and spreading the bluegrass.

The force at the club house will probably be entirely changed during the year. Minor Reid, the greensman, who has done the work of keeping the links in shape so well for the past four years, has leased a farm near Houstonia and has consequently resigned. Robert Fritz, the steward, has a position at the M., K. & T. shops, and with his wife, who has made an excellent stewardess for the past two years, will probably quit the service of the club, to the regret of every member.

The work of rolling and preparing the golf links will commence on March 1st and the season will open on April 1st. The directors of the club will meet during the month for the election of officers, after which the secretary, Mr. Lee Montgomery, will send to all the members the usual annual circular letter giving the dates of the social functions, and the golf and tennis tournaments for the season.

The large ball-room in the new club house will do away with the inconvenience felt in the smaller room in the old building. The ladies' parlors, with bath and locker rooms, will afford the accommodations which have to some extent been missing heretofore. In fact, the new club house, being three times the size of the old building, will in every way provide ample room and increased facilities in every respect.

The architects, Spencer & Powers, of Chicago, have, among other things, planned and provided for a model culinary department, with a kitchen and service pantry furnished with every possible convenience and-up-to-date fixtures.

The coming season of the club, from a social and entertainment standpoint, as well as from the prospect for the out-of-doors sports, promises to be the most brilliant and successful in the history of the organization.

MEETING OF MINISTERS

The Alliance Held Its Weekly Session This Forenoon.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The Ministers' alliance held an interesting session today.

The Rev. Grant A. Robbins, pastor of the First M. E. church, read a paper on "The Kenosis Emptying of Christ," which elicited a free and hearty discussion.

It was decided that every member of the Alliance at next Sunday's services preach about or in some manner present the "day nursery" project.

Sunday, April 17, was designated as the date for the various ministers preaching in the interest of the Humane society, by request of Harvey T. Williams, president of the society.

A petition from the captain of the Salvation Army, asking for aid for the family of Taylor Holt, which family is destitute, was received and favorably acted upon.

Announcement was made that Dr. J. E. Cannaday had offered a $50 loving cup to the Sunday school class of the city having the biggest growth or largest attendance during the year, and the ministers decided to meet at the study of the First M. E. church at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to arrange for competing in the contest.

TOOK $250 IN CASH

PROF. ROBINSON, A CLAIRVOYANT, GOT MONEY BELONGING TO A CLERK.

OWNER EXPECTED TO SPECULATE

Went to Consult Robinson as to the Outlook of His Making a Killing with the Coin and 'Twas Thus That He Lost It.

(From Monday's Daily)

Since the publication in the Democrat-Sentisel of the fraud of Prof. Robinson, the clairvoyant, on Mrs. Jay A. Barnum, wife of a Missouri Pacific mechanic, whereby she lost a valuable ring, set with a diamond and two sapphires, numerous other ladies and men as well have appealed to Chief of Police W. H. Boullt to locate their stolen articles.

Foremost of these is that of a young clerk, who recently removed here from Clinton. The clerk in question refused to divulge his name, fearing newspaper publicity.

According to the young man's story, he had saved from his earnings $250, which he had deposited in a local bank. He visited the fortune teller and desired to know if he would be successful if he speculated with the cash.

Robinson requested the clerk to bring the $250 to his house and to deposit it in a box which he (Robinson) had. This the clerk did a day or so later, and Robinson handed him the box, also the lock and key to it.

The clerk deposited his hard earnings in the box, and then returned it to Robinson, the latter saying he would instill in the cash a charm that would make the owner a barrel of money.

The clerk left the money in the box, which he gave to Robinson. The latter then went into another room, while the clerk remained where he was. When the clairvoyant returned he handed to the clerk a box identical to the one which contained the money, and also a lock and key, instructing the clerk not to open the box for several days. When he did so he found it filled with brown paper.

"I won't tell my name because I don't want the newspapers to get hold of it," the clerk said, while conversing with Chief Boullt.

The two stories published are only a few of many which might be told.

Chief Boullt has secured a trace of the missing clairvoyant, and perhaps he will be apprehended within the next few days and returned here.

LAWSON AT DALLAS

THE SEDALIA LAWYER DELIVERED TWO ADDRESSES THE PAST WEEK.

NEWSPAPER PRAISED HIS TALKS

Speeches Before Advertising Clubs of America and the Hardware-Implement Dealers' Association.

C. C. Lawson, of this city, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association of Missouri, was given considerable newspaper notoriety at Dallas, Texas, last Thursday and Friday, when he delivered addresses before the Associated Advertising Clubs of America and The Hardware and Implement Dealers' association The Times-Herald, of which Hugh N. Fitzgerald, a former Sedalian, is editor, referred thus to Mr. Lawson's talk before the advertising men:

C. C. Lawson, of Sedalia, Mo., secretary of the Missouri Merchants' association, made a distinct hit with his address, next delivered. He said his wife had asked him to eat plenty of strawberries while in the south and to bring home a bouquet of wild flowers. He was, of course, surprised when he ran into a snow storm, but the warmth inside made up for it all.

He preached the gospel of eliminating fake advertising and put newspaper publicity on the highest place of the legitimate end of advertising. He told how advertisers in his state had been protected from "fake games," as he termed them, by signing a contract to use nothing but legitimate channels for a period of one year.

As he concluded, Chairman Baker referred to him as a western Lawson —not the Boston kind. (Voice)—And the right kind. (Applause.)

Referring to Mr. Lawson's address before the Hardware and Implement Dealers' association, the Times-Herald said:

C. C. Lawson, of Sedalia, Mo., told of credit methods. He declared the business man is the worst of all in organization, even section hands having a closer union. "The business man is always studying human nature and getting skinned," he said.

Of the credit association work, he said, there is no "black list," but a furnishing of information to dealers to show how men stand financially and allow him to decide for himself what the risk will do. He said such a rating opens the eyes of the dealers and it puts men to work who never worked before.

He said: "Right here I want to say something about 'fake advertising.' Newspapers are the index to a town. The town people must be the support of the newspaper, but the newspaper does most to make the town. The papers live on advertising and they ought to have it. That is legitimate advertising. But some towns get so they can't issue a program for a pink tea without advertising that the merchants have to pay for it. We got together in Sedalia and cut all that out. We advertised after that, we could not do it before, in the newspapers. And legitimate enterprises and movements in any time get free advertising they could not buy for hundreds of dollars."

He declared for organization as getting men acquainted, and acquainted men get along together and think more of each other. Horboring enmities is the worst of habits, he said. The work of the advertisng leagues and their noon-day lunch business sessions, the "Booster clubs" and the enlisting of the people to work together to accomplish something were reviewed as showing what organization can do.

CLAY CLEMENT DEAD

Actor Who Played Sedalia in "The Servant in the House" Died Today

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 21.—Clay Clement, the actor, died suddenly at a hospital here this morning at 10:45 o'clock from uraemic poisoning.

Clay Clement was one of the foremost actors of the time. He appeared in Sedalia Saturday, February 12, as the Drainman in "The Servant in the House," and as usual gave a finished performance of a great part.

While here a Democrat-Sentinel representative, who has known him for many years, visited with him and he expressed himself then as being in splendid health.

Mr. Clement was an author as well as an actor and starred for several seasons in "The New Dominion," a production of his own which gave him great opportunity to demonstrate his artistic gifts.

He also played "The Bells," in which he won a fame second only to Sir Henry Irving, the great English actor. His sudden and untimely death is a distinct loss to the stage of America.

"CHRIS" CAME SUNDAY

Young Man Who Was Injured Coasting at the Capital.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Francis McGinley, whom his boy friends have always called "Chris," came home on Missouri Pacific train No. 1 Sunday afternoon from Jefferson City, where, Sunday, January 9, he had his left leg broken between the knee and hip while coasting with other Sedalians.

"Chris" was accompanied by his father, Michael McGinley, and John Hegerty, a friend of the family, who left here Saturday midnight to accompany the injured boy home.

At the depot when the train arrived were all of the young men who were with "Chris" when the accident occurred, as well as other friends, including several of the gentler sex, and the lad was given a royal welcome.

Charles McEniry, jr., assisted "Chris" from the Pullman to the carriage in waiting, and he was taken directly home. He stood the trip remarkably well, and during the afternoon and evening received a number of callers.

The injured limb is still in plaster, and it will be several weeks before "Chris" is again drawing coal oil and handing out mackerel at the store.

MONSTER, AGED 60

ARRESTED FOR AN ATTACK ON A 12-YEAR-OLD CHILD AT COLUMBUS, OHIO.

BEAST IN FORM OF HUMAN BEING

The Police Claim That a Gray-Haired Grandfather Lured Other Children to Ruin, Causing One's Death

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Columbus, O., Feb. 21.—In a gray-haired grandfather who is behind the bears at the city prison the police of the capital believe they have a modern minotaur, known in fable as half man and half bull.

The discovery of his offenses against childish innocence has roused the people of the section of the city where they were committed, and it was only prompt action that prevented a maddened father from slaying him in the presence of one of the suffering victims.

The prisoner is Charles P. Carter, a night watchman at the Columbus Chain works. He is nearly 60 years of age, has a wife and seven children and three grandchildren.

He was arrested Saturday after Ruth Gunther, 12-year-old neighbor, had confessed that he had assaulted her, a fact that a doctor called to treat her had discovered was the cause of her illness.

When she identified him her father, a muscular blacksmith, snatching up a revolver, tried to slay him, but was held by the police.

Through the little one's recital of her abuse the horrifying discovery was made that three of her school companions, all about her own age, were also victims of the monster, and that one of them had died three weeks ago without making known the cause.

The police obtained the name of the girl that died, and to their utter surpise and anger found that the confession was only too true.

They learned that several doctors had been called to threat her and that to none of them had she revealed the terrible secret.

The victim's identity is being kept a secet out of respect to the feelings of the agonized family, but it may be decided to exhume the body and have an autopsy performed in order to add the charge of murder to the one of criminal assault now pending against Carter.

It was learned that he enticed the little ones to his den last fall by giving them flowers from the beds in front of the office of the company, and that he made them gifts of candy and money.

His innocent messenger was his own son, a little lad of 8 years, and he was instructed to remain at the houses of the victims until they returned from his lair of bestiality.

The four girls were members of the same class in a public school near the chain works, which they passed on the way from their homes.

Carter's friends and family say that if the charges are true he must be insane.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

The Old Hess Dwelling at 702 West Third Street.

(From Monday's Daily)

According to Chief Willis, of the fire department, lightning struck the house owned by the estate of the late Mrs. Emma Hess, 702 West Third street, at 7 o'clock Sunday evening, setting fire to the dwelling, causing damage estimated at $200.

When the fire department arrived the roof, kitchen, middle and front rooms were afire, and fumes of coal oil and gas were in the dwelling, although Fire Chief Willis stated the fire had resulted from a stroke of lightning.

The only regret in the neighborhood is that the building was not permitted to burn to the ground.

FORMER ALDERMAN HERE

Martin Reilly, Who Died at Katy Hospital Saturday Night.

(From Monday's Daily)

Martin Reilly, who died at the M., K. & T. hospital Saturday evening, as chronicled in the Democrat-Sentinel Sunday morning, was a former Sedalian and is well remembered by many of the old-time citizens.

Mr. Reilly, as previously stated, was 68 years of age. He came to Sedalia from St. Louis about forty years ago, and for years was in charge of the painting department of the M., K. & T. at the local shops, later entering the same department with the Missouri Pacific railway.

For two years he represented the Second ward as alderman, and was always selected to make the presentation speech when any gift was presented to a retiring shop official. He was a polished gentleman of fine language.

The son, W. H. Reilly, of Durant, Okla., and wife, arrived here Sunday morning and left with the body at 5:15 o'clock last afternoon for Denison, Texas, where burial is to be made.

WORTH A MILLION

MONTH AGO WILLIAM BROWNE WAS BOTH INSANE AND PENNILESS.

YEARS AGO WAS A HARD DRINKER

He Was Then Committed to an Asylum, but Was Recently Released and Found Himself a Wealthy Man.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

San Antonio, Texas, Feb. 21.—A case stranger than was ever pictured in fiction is that of William I. Browne, of this city, who a short time ago was released from the Southwestern insane asylum on an order from County Judge Phil Shook, based on illegal restraint of liberty. After having spent nearly twelve years in the asylum Browne is once more a free agent and a millionaire.

About twelve years ago the man, upon recommendation of Dr. Miquel Barragon, Mexican consul at Brownsville, was consigned to the asylum without proper process of law or adequate examination.

Browne at the time is alleged to have been a heavy drinker and it is thought that the effects of this habit made his incarceration possible.

During a recent hearing of his case it developed that his wife was a willing party to his transfer to the institution, and that during the many years he was confined she did nothing to aid him in getting his release, although she admitted having her doubts as to his mental status.

A sister and brother of the man seem to have shown the same indifference, and it was not until Browne succeeded in interesting C. M. Chambers, A. B. Cowen and others of this city in his case that he secured action in his behalf.

When taken before the county judge he answered many perplexing questions in the most rational way and thereupon was restituted to the status of a sane man.

While comparatively poor at the time of his incarceration, the death of his father shortly afterwards gave him a share in a great deal of valuable property. In the course of time this has increased in value to an extent that will easily make him at least a millionaire.

His share in his father's will, as well as the property he owned, was taken possession of by his brother, James I. Browne, and his sister, Mrs. Carolina de San Roman, both of Brownsville, Texas. Whether Browne after his release threatened them with a law suit or not his lawyers would not state, but they signified their intention to come to San Antonio and do whatever the law requires.

C. M. Chambers, counsel for Mr. Browne, has since the latter's release searched the county records for documents bearing on the case, but so far not a trace of any has been found. It appears that the county clerk at that time simply signed the commitment papers without even keeping a copy of them.

STREETCAR STRIKE

PHILADELPHIA IN THE MIDST OF ANOTHER LABOR DISTURBANCE.

SIX THOUSAND SAID TO BE OUT

Scenes of Violence Are Frequent—Two Care Were Burned on Tracks Last Night—Police Called, Many Arrests Made.

International News Service.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 19.—For the second time in nine months, the union motormen and conductors of the Rapid Transit company of this city went on a strike today, and tonight the street car system is virtually paralyzed.

The company tried to operate only a few of the more important lines. The claims of the union leaders tonight are that 6,000 men had obeyed the strike order, while the company claims that only 2,500 struck.

An effort was made to run cars on some lines tonight, but much disorder ensued. Rioting was general throughout Kensington, a suburb, and many persons were injured by flying bricks and stones. Two trolley cars were burned and three others wrecked, while the police made wholesale arrests of the rioters.

The worst disturbance occurred along Kensington avenue, between Somerset and Clearfield, where at least 10,000 strike sympathizers assembled. They seemed eager for trouble and a call was sent for a special detail of policemen. Before they arrived the crowd broke loose and six cars coming up Kensington avenue were held up. Stones and bricks were hurled freely at the trolleys and crews.

In the midst of the excitement two of the cars suddenly burst into flames. An alarm was sounded and several fire engines responded, plowing through the crowds. They started playing streams of water on the cars, with occasional squirts that scattered the bolder part of the throng that was crowding too close to the scene. The arrival of reinforcements from the station house broke up the more violent demonstrations. There have been many arrests.

"Spill" has been in Mr. Taylor's possession for the past three seasons and during that time netted Mr. Taylor the snug sum of $10,000. The horse was seen racing here last year and the year before that.

The sale of "Spill" will cause no little commotion among race horse owners in this section of the state.

CONSPIRACY IS CHARGED

Arrests Being Made Daily in Capital of Portugal.

International News Service.

Lisbon, Feb. 19.—Arrests are being made daily of individuals accused of belonging to revolutionary societes and of conspiring against the monarchy.

The semi-official "Diario de Noticias" reports that last night another batch of arrests was effected, several persons having to leave their beds and accompany the secret police agents. This journal further states that at some of the dwellings important documents and plans were seized.

The republican party held a huge meeting of protest, at which it was stated that arrests were being made without positive proof against the suspects. The official press, however, declares that the government is determined to unearth and destroy all revolutionary associations in Portugal. It is also stated that at the general trial sensational revelations will be developed.

FINALLY LANDED "JOB"

Woodsawer Who Realized That He Had Made a Mistake.

"Hey, Mr. Woodsawer, do you saw wood?" exclaimed a well known society lady of West Broadway to a shabbily attired man walking along that thoroughfare Friday afternoon, with a wood saw and buck thrown across his arm.

"Naw, I've got consumption and the doctor told me to carry these for my health," the male retorted, and slowly he continued along the thoroughfare.

Later he realized that he had made a mistake, for he retraced his steps and knocked at the door of the house where the lady had called him and secured the job.

HADLEY'S GREATEST BLUFF

Now Offers to Resign Office If Re-Count Show Him Wrong.

Jefferson City, Feb. 19.—If United States Senator Stone will agree to a re-count of the senatorial primary ballot Gov. Hadley will call a special session of the legislature to count them and if Senator Stone was honestly nominated the governor will resign and pay all expenses incident to the count. This was the substance of a statement issued by Gov. Hadley last night in reply to the answer of Senator Stone to his demand that the senator consent to a re-count.

The statement says in part:

"If Senator Stone will advise the election commissioners in Kansas City and St. Louis that he joins with Gov. Folk in consenting that the ballots be re-counted, instead of raising technical objections to the legality of the re-count, I am satisfied it can be done.

"If Senator Stone is opposed to recounting the ballots in this way and can assure me he and the democratic members of the legislature will consent to a re-count by the general assembly and that he will resign in case the re-count shows he was not honestly nominated, I will call a special session of the legislature at once.

"If the re-count does not show that ballots were dishonestly counted in his favor in the city of St. Louis, I will resign my office and pay the expenses of the re-count.

"Of course with 897 votes counted for candidates for United States senator in one precinct where only 337 votes were actually cast, I realize I am taking no chances on the proposition."

Testimony Before the Inquest Saturday Aroused More Race Feeling in the City—Militia Are Still on Guard.

International News Service.

Cairo, Ill., Feb. 19.—Everything was apparently quiet at Cairo tonight, although the feeling against the blacks was fired up again by the testimony of several black deputy sheriffs before the coroners jury in which they boastingly admitted that they had fired several shots into the mob Thursday night.

Four companies of state militia are patroling the streets tonight. The city has been put under martial law, but is still in charge of the authorities, who are co-operating with the county officials and soldiers, all working as a unit to preserve order.

All factories and mills closed at noon Saturday and the streets were filled with men this afternoon, but no disorder was created.

The coroner's jury which is investigating the death of Alexander Halliday examined sixteen witnesses, after which an adjournment was taken until Monday.

An effort was made to find out which of the negro deputy sheriffs fired the shot that killed Halliday, the bullet being fired from a Swiss rifle, but none of them would admit he had used such a gun.

The grand jury investigation begins Monday morning. Four members of the jury are negroes.

The funeral of Alexander Halliday will be held Sunday afternoon.

A SEAT FOR $5,000

TO BECOME MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT IT WILL COST YOU THIS BIG SUM.

THEN YOUR TROUBLES COMMENCE

Leases Are for Sale by Number of Members Who Were Confident of Re-Election, but Were Defeated at the Polls.

International News Service.

London, Feb. 19—The re-assembling of parliament is proving a splendid thing for the London estate agents, and for trade generally. Nearly half the new parliament is made up of new members whocome to London from out-of-the-way provincial fastnesses, and book a flat or a house for the season or even longer.

Many of the defeated members, relying on the great overpowering liberal majority to keep the government in power until the complete expiration of the seven years of control, had taken houses and chambers on a seven years' lease, and after four years find themselves with an unexpired lease of three years upon their hands. Chafing under the ignominy of defeat, they have had no wish to remain in London, and they have instructed estate agents to get rid of the lease to the most likely tenant. This interchange of chambers has made trade brisk.

Decorators and furniture removers are also busy, while tradesmen and touts are making the electric bells and knockers work overtime. Begging letter writers are also extremely diligent in bombarding the new members with fulsome epistles of adulation which recalls some incident that never happened, and crave a small loan on the strength of a fast friendship which never existed.

Then the subscription fiend is not allowing the dust to settle in his neighborhood. He is busy soliciting patronage in the shape of annual subscriptions for football clubs, amateur dramatic clubs and missions of all descriptions, much to the concern of the new member, who finds his check book growing palpably thinner under the stress. It is computed that a seat in parliament costs its winner at least $5,000, but the ambitious statesman only learns this after he is elected.

Don't drug the Stomach, or stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is wrong. It is the weak nerves that are crying out for help. Vitalize these weak inside controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and see how quickly good health will come to you again. Test it and see! Sold by D. I. Wilcox.

POISON IN THE BODY

STRYCHNINE IN LARGE DOSES FOUND IN ORGANS OF CHRISMAN SWOPE.

THE TESTS ARE ALMOST ENDED

The Examinations Have Proceeded Far Enough to Confirm all the Family Suspicions as to the Cause of Death.

Chicago, Feb 19.—The lid that for so long has been tightly fastened on the laboratories of the Rush Medical institute has at last, in the absence of the chiefs, loosened. And in the loosening has come the news that the analysis of the stomach and liver of Chrisman Swope, made by Dr. Walter S. Haines, shows strychnine in both organs far in excess of the amounts usually given in medical doses.

This also is true of the examination of the ejecta of Margaret Syope's stomach, brought here for examination when Dr. Ludvig Hektoen brought the visceras of Thomas H. Swope and Chrisman Swope here for investigation. None of the examinations has been finished—that is, an absolute quantitive analysis has not yet been made. However, the investigations have progressed far enough so that the scientists believe, according to an assistant at the labratory, that neither the death of Chrisman Swope nor that of Thomas H. Swope would have resulted at the time they did had it not been for the strychnine.

In fact, it appears that the strychnine is more apparent in the viscera of Chrisman Swope than in that of Thomas H. Swope. When the examination of Thomas H. Swope's stomach was made strychnine was found there, but in such minute particles that it was necessary to examine the liver so that some idea might be gained as to whether enough strychnine to cause death was given to the colonel. However, in the case of Chrisman Swope the strychnine in the stomach was in marked quantities. The examination of the liver was made simply as further investigation and here the same condition was revealed.

The examinations will not be finished for some time, it is believed. Dr. Haines, the chief of the investigating trio of Haines, Dr. Ludvig Hektoen and Dr. Victor C. Vaughan, is a man of very deliberate character. He refuses to work on more than one case at a time, and he will not take up another case until the one he has been working on has shown results sufficient to allow him to take up something new. However, those examinations now are in such shape that when Dr. Haines left Chicago last night to appear before the grand jury he carried with him reports and results which he believed to be conclusive regarding the fact that strychnine had been given Chrisman Swope with intentions other than those usually in evidence when one is trying to quicken the heart action or strengthen a weak pulse.

In neither case—that of Margaret Swope or Carisman Swope, it is declared, could the strychnine have been present as a result of hypodermic injections for medicinal purposes. Even if the injections had been given repeatedly—for medicinal purposes, of course—strychnine could not have been placed in circulation by that method to have caused the deposits found by the scientists in the ejecta of Margaret Swope and in the stomach and liver of Chrisman Swope.

The finding of this poison affirms the contention of the Swope family when the bodies were ordered exhumed and the autopsies made, that strychnine would be found to have been given Thomas H. Swope and Chrisman Swope. It also affirms the suspicions of the nurses who caused the ejecta of Margaret Swope to be preserved so that an analysis might be made.

When the first report was sent from this city to John G. Paxton over the long distance telephone by Dr. Ludvig Hekoen it was not certain whether the strychnine found in its ejecta of Margaret Swope could have whether the strychnine found in the medicine. However it now has been determined that such could not have been the case.

RODE 6,000,000 MILES

Has Retired as a Guard on the Great Northern Railroad.

International News Service.

London, Feb. 19.—It is calculated that Mr. G. Hatcher, who has just retired, after forty-five years' service as a guard on the Great Northern railroad, has traveled fully 6,000,000 miles during the course of his career.

It has fallen to the lot of Hatcher to be the guard on several royal trains. He traveled with Queen Victoria on two occasions when she journeyed to Hatfield to visit the late Lord Salisbury. He has accompanied the king several times, chiefly to Doncaster and has also had charge of special trains conveying the queen and the prince and princess of Wales.

Throughout his long railway career he has never suffered any personal injury.

For thirty-six years—right up, indeed, to his retirement—Mr. Hatcher traveled backward and forward daily between York and London, a distance of 378 miles.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Manager Stephen Birch, of the Guggenheim-Morgan Alaska syndicate, today told the senate committee there were 50,000,000 tons of coal in prospect in the Cunningham group of mines in Alaska, which he considered worth $25,000,000 if it could be taken out now.

Senator Frazier called attention to the fact that the Guggenheim-Morgan option on these claims called for the payment of only $250,000.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

Removing the outward symptoms is not all that is necessary to cure Contagious Blood Poison. The virulent germs which produce these external manifestations must be completely driven from the blood before a real cure can be effected. The least taint left in the circulation will sooner or later cause a fresh outbreak of the trouble, with all its hideous symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper-colored spots, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. Only a blood purifier can cure Contagious Blood Poison. Medicines which merely check the symptoms for a time, because of their strong mineral nature, and leave the poison smouldering in the system, have brought disappointment to thousands. The disease always returns after such treatment. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison and cures it permanently. It goes into the blood, and removes every particle of the poison, making the circulation pure, rich and healthy, nor does S. S. S. leave the slightest trace of the disease for future outbreaks. S. S. S. does not contain any mineral ingredient, but is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, which are most valuable in their blood-purifying properties, and at the same time specifically adapted to building up the entire system. If you have Contagious Blood Poison S. S. S. will cure you because it will thoroughly purify your Blood. Home Treatment Book and any medical advice free to all.

HARRY F. ESPENSCHIED QUITS POSITION PAYING $5,000 A YEAR AND EXPENSES.

WITH THE NATIONAL OF HARTFORD

Was State Agent in Illinois—He Purchases an Interest in Spiendid Private Agency at Danville, Illinois.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Harry F. Espenschied, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Espenschied, of this city, who has made a most enviable reputation in the insurance world the past few years in Chicago, has just resigned a position that paid a salary of $5,000 a year and expenses to engage in business for himself. That continued sucess will be his portion the Democrat-Sentinel has not the least doubt. The Western Underwriter, printed in Chicago and Cincinnati, in its issue of February 17, has the following in regard to the popular former Sedalian:

H. F. Espenschied, of Chicago, state agent of the National of Hartford in Illinois and one of the best field producers in the west, has resigned to take an interest in the Phillips, Snapp & Phillips agency at Danville, Ill.

Mr. Espenschied will take the management of the agency, which, it is understood, will be known as Phillips, Snapp & Espenschied. Mr. Espenschied is a forceful man in the field, who has built up the business of the National in the state to handsome proportions.

Mr. Espenschied was married last year and for some time had intended to quit traveling when a good opportunity presented itself. The death of Edwin G. Snapp a few days ago left the Danville agency without an insurance head, the other members of the firm being more directly interested in the large building and loan association connected with the agency. This gave Mr. Espenschied a good opportunity to buy into one of the largest agencies in the state outside of Chicago and he accepted it.

The National has not yet appointed a successor to Mr. Espenschied. Pending such appointment Special Agent Thomas E. Heald will look after the field. Second Assistant Manager Richardson states that a state agent from another state will probably be transferred to Illinois.

Mr. Espenschied was in the service of the National upwards of fifteen years and was known as one of the strongest field men in the west. He has proved especially strong in securing large lines.

Ladies of Broadway Presbyterian Church Made Great Success.

(From Sunday's Daily)

The ladies of the Broadway Presbyterian church Saturday smashed to smithereens all records for feeding people in Sedalia when at dinner and supper, served in the store room in the Odd Fellows' building, they fed more than 500 people at the two meals.

The dinner was served for 35 cents and the supper for 25 cents. At the noon hour 275 people were fed and at the supper hour something in the neighborhood of 225 were fed.

The proceeds, the exact amount of which cannot be determined at the present, will be donated to the Y. M. C. A.

Turkey, dressing, potatoes, beans, cranberry sauce, pie, coffee milk and various other dishes constituted the menu, elegantly served, and all fortunate enough to be present were profuse in their compliments on the quality and quantity of the two dinings.

FIRST NAVAL AIRSHIP

Will Soon Be Delivered From the Vickers-Maxim Works.

International News Service.

London, Feb. 19—Britain's first naval airship will very soon be delivered from the Vickers-Maxim works. It will be the biggest of its kind, except the Zeppelin dirigible. Like that monster, it is of the rigid type and its purpose will be to patrol the North Sea, on the alert for hostile manifestations from Germany.

The British dirigible will have a magazine for carrying explosives, but the premise details of her construction are being kept a close secret. It is known, however, that her engines will develop 200 horse power. She would, if necessary, carry thirty men, but the crew is limited to half a dozen ,who are already undergoing instruction in their novel duties.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help.

If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves — re-establish them as needed, with

A SOUR MILK DIET

LATEST HEALTH CRAZE OF SOCIETY IN METROPOLIS OF THE WORLD.

SAID TO BE ELIXIR OF LONG LIFE

Necessary, However, to Get Scientifically Soured Milk, or Otherwise Its Use May Result Seriously.

International News Service.

London, Feb. 19.—Society's latest health craze is the sour milk diet. People drink quantities of this strange liquid in the belief that it is a cure for all human ailments. It is supposed to be the elixir of long life, containing, as it does, lactic acid, the home of certain benevolent microbes which make war on all disease germs. The peasants of Bulgaria, who drink it as a regular beverage, are said to attain marvelous longevity.

But it is necessary to get scientifically soured milk, or ill effects are liable to ensue, as Lady Bancroft, the famous actress (now retired), has discovered to her cost. She is recovering from an alarming illness, caused by drinking sour milk of the wrong kind.

She had been following the sour milk diet for several weeks, when by some oversight some bacilli other than the beneficial lactic acid species were introduced.

Lady Bancroft was taken with a serious illness, and at one time her life was despaired of, but prompt treatment by a famous specialist pulled her through. She now exercises great care in how her sour milk is prepared, and sour milk drinkers in general are using extra caution.

RECORD FOR FEBRUARY

High School Publication Issued Friday Night.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

The High School Record for February was distributed to a portion of its subscribers after the Athenean play Friday night. It is dedicated to the class of 1912 and is a very neat issue. The editorials are good, but the one on snowballing seems to give the younger members of the school credit for insulting a lady, when, as the public understands it, a member of the senior class was the offender. It is gratifying, though, to see the stand the Record takes in regard to this nuisance.

The prize story, by Oscar Batson, is very well written, as are also the others. The literary societies' reports are good, but the local columns could take up more space The alumni column is especially deserving of mention.

All in all, the Record has surpassed the expectations of friends who are interested in it, and reflects great credit upon the editor and staff.

London, Feb. 19—London is to have the biggest vaudeville hall in the world next September, when the new Palladium, now a-building, is opened.

This new "palace of varieties" is to cost $1,250,000 to be the last word in popular luxury, and to seat 5,000 spectators.

It is situated on the site of the old Hengler's Circus, within a stone's throw of Oxford and Regent streets. The plans include (unheard of for London) dining rooms, tea rooms, barber shop, free library, reading room with news tickers and telephones, etc. There will also be a vaudeville entertainment.

CAMPAIGN OF DRYS

JUDGE K. H. WALLACE OUTLINES IT IN LETTER TO DEMOCRAT-SENTINEL.

MEETING IN SEDALIA MARCH 11-12

Petitions Are Being Sent Out for Signatures—Certain of a Vote on Statewide Prohibition in November Next.

Judge W. H Wallace, of Kansas City, president of the Constitutional Amendment association, which has been called to meet in Sedalia March 11 and 12, sends the Democrat-Sentinel the following for publication:

Missouri has entered upon the greatest struggle in her history—the overthrow of the liquor traffic, including her 4,000 saloons. It is now practically settled that a constitutional amendment for prohibition will be submitted to the voters on November 8, 1910. Under the law which requires that petitions shall be signed by 5 per cent of the legal voters in eleven congressional districts, 24,000 names if properly distributed will suffice.

We have now 35,518 names, but they are not properly distributed. There are thirteen congressional districts outside of St. Louis. Nine of these in signatures obtained now meet the requirements of the law. Four of them, the Fourth, Eighth, Ninth and Thirteenth, are a few names short. At the request of temperance workers in St. Louis I recently sent 500 petitions to that city and in pursuance of a subsequent request have sent 300 more.

For a while the immense wealth and business associations of the brewers of that city overawed our forces, but the true friends of humanity were never cowards and the noble spirit of courageous patriotism and christianity which has ever pervaded the major part of that great metropolis is asserting itself. The plain people, the principal victims of the crime and suffering that come from strong drink, are defying the millionaires who beguiled the last legislature and our work is progressing magnificently.

By every process of logic and comparison we have a right to expect in St. Louis a result somewhat akin to the marvelous result recently produced in Jasper, thought to be the wettest spot in Missouri. The splendid citizenship of that county has been intermingled with an unusual number of thieves, thugs, gamblers and criminals of all classes, attracted by its wonderful progress. The saloonkeeper has fattened upon money belonging to the wives and children of the miners.

Jasper has been oftener "pointed to with pride" by the brewers and saloon keepers than St. Louis, and yet although in their desperation they are said to have expended enormous sums of money and resorted to trickery and debauchery almost without a parallel, this county, including the big cities of Joplin, Carthage, Webb City and Carterville, with an urban population believed to be over 80,000, cast a clean majority for the drys of over 1,500.

At this initial hour in our battle I most earnestly request you to circulate or have circulated the enclosed petition at once and return it within ten days. Many have secured forty signers in half a day. Aside from completing the four districts which are short and the three St. Louis districts we want a good big list, 75,000 or 100,000 throughout the state. Such a list will prevent frivolous or technical objections and carry with it power in all directions. For these reasons the list was run to 75,000 names in the great fight now on in Chicago. If the nobility of human effort is to be measured by the crime prevented, the suffering alleviated and the homes and lives made happy, then you could not be engaged in loftier work. Most respectfully—Wm. H. Wallace, President Constitutional Amendment Association.

GYPSIES WERE KILLED

Had Terrorized People by System of Highway Robbery.

International News Service.

Lisbon, Feb. 19.—A terrific conflict took place yesterday between the inhabitants of Guadalajara and a band of Bohemin gypsies, recently arrived from Servia. The band, which comprises about 200 men and women and children, encamped three miles outside of town, and terrorized the district by a series of highway robberies and the pillaging of lonely farms.

The local force of civil guards was insufficient to arrest the marauders, and the indignant inhabitants decided to unite for an attack. Mustering over 100 and armed with all kinds of weapons, chiefly fowling pieces, at midnight they made a descent upon the camp.

The gypsies were taken by surprise, and, after a brief resistance, fled in all directions. They were pursued, and many of them captured, including all the women and children. Three of the gypsies were killed and fourteen were wounded.

It Is Proposed to Shorten the Jewish Worship.

International News Service.

London, Feb. 19.—The question of reforming and popularizing the form of Jewish worship is being keenly discussed among London Hebrews. The complaint about the traditional synagogue ritual is that it is too long, tedious, unintelligible to many, and out of date.

Among the proposed improvements are that a substantial portion of the service should be in English; that the service should be shortened, commencing at 11 a. m. and ending at 12:30, and that arrangements should be made for men and women to sit together.

At a meeting of seatholders of the West London synagogue, held to discuss these suggested reforms, there was a general feeling in favor of them. It was urged that the changes would attract to the synagogue many worshippers who are dissatisfied with the old system, and would especially appeal to young people.

LOST MONEY FOR SEVERAL YEARS

Under the New Contracts the Prison at Jefferson City Ought to Clear $51,000 a Year for the Commonwealth.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Jefferson City, Feb 19.—The convict labor question receives considerable attention in the 1909 "Red Book" of the bureau of labor statistics, which is now being distributed by Labor Commissioner J. C. A. Hiller.

The announcement is made that up to the end of 1909, and dating back six years, the state lost money on the old contract system, while several contractors grew immensely rich.

No comments are made for or against the present lease system, only figures and facts being given in the report, leaving the public to draw conclusions for itself.

The announcement is made that under the new contracts, which went into effect Jan. 1, last, the penitentiary at the capital city ought to clear $51,000 a year.

Eight factories are located inside the walls, three being given over to the shoe industry, one to the manufacture of clothing, one to brooms, one to shoe and leather findings and novelties, one to saddle trees and one to harness and saddlery.

The last annual output of nine factories, which were then in the state prison, was worth $3,137,152. For convict hire for the year Missouri received $310,703.69, as compared with $265,705.87 for the year before. The toilers consisted of 1,621 male convicts and thirty females.

ASSAULTED FIVE GIRLS

Black Brute in Kansas City Guilty of Fearful Crimes.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 19.—Infuriated by the confession of William Jackson, a negro, that he had criminally assaulted five white girls, ranging from 9 to 13 years of age, Albert A. Ake, the patrolman who made the arrest and an uncle of one of the victims, attempted to shoot the confessor here Friday night.

The negro was sitting in Captain Whitsett's office at the central police station when he made the confession. He had been "sweated" for hours, Patrolman Ake assisting in the cross questioning. At length the colored man began to name over the girls he had assaulted. He named a niece of the patrolman.

"I won't wait for them to hang you, I will kill you," shouted Ake as he rose from his chair and drawing his revolver.

Two policemen grasped Ake and wrenched the gun from his hand. The negro, shivering from fright, attempted to crawl under a table and begged for mercy.

Feeling is intense against the negro. This is due partly to the fact that two negroes were executed here recently for an assault upon a white woman. He will be given an immediate trial. He says he will plead guilty.

Jackson bought roller skates and candy for the girls and thus induced them to enter his living quarters in the basement of a building of which he was the janitor. He is 38 years old.

SACRED HEART MISSION

"His discourses are gems of dogmatic theology." This is a great opportunity for those who misunderstand the Catholic doctrines and are of an unbiased mind.

When I welcomed him yesterday I saw a bronzed, lean man, with a long, heavy beard. All the party are in fact bearded and scarcely recognizable. Even Kermit has a downy growth all over his cheeks. Col. Roosevelt looked younger than ever, walked with a long swinging stride and seemed strong and fit to slay a dozen trusts before breakfast. ## PETTY SALE MARCH 3

Annual Event of Well Known Breeders Offers Great Value.

(From Sunday's Daily)

On Thursday, March 3, Petty Bros., owners of Fairview stock farm, will hold their annual sale of jacks and jennets. This event is one of greatest importance in live stock circles and serves to attract people from all over the country.

The 1910 sale offers the greatest values in jacks and jennets it has ever been the pleasure of the Messrs. Petty to place before the public. The catalogue, now ready for distribution, contains among others such jacks as Tennessee King, Charles Murphy, Richmond, High Tower, Grissim and other high class animals offered at public auction.

Prominent among the above list especially is Charles Murphy, 2393, and Tennessee King. The latter was the champion and grand champion of the Missouri state fair in 1909, stands 16 hands high, weighs 1,200 and is the most noted young jack (being but 3 years old) of his day and generation. Charles Murphy carried off the first prize at the Missouri state fair in 1909 in the 1year-old and under 2 class, and was a close second for championship honors. The breeding of the other jacks to be offered in the sale is first class, and buyers are assured of the very best in this line of stock.

The sale will start promptly at 10 o'clock and conveyances will be provided from Sedalia to the farm for all who attend. The weather will not retard the sale, as shelter has been provided in case of rain, and the convenience of all visitors has been looked after in advance of the event.

A good dinner has been arranged for for the visitors, so that it will not be necessary for them to leave the farm at noon, or any other time, for that matter, to appease hunger.

AGED LADY IS DEAD

MRS. MARILDA STEVENS PASSED AWAY AT 7:30 SATURDAY MORNING.

CHILDREN WERE AT THE BEDSIDE

For Several Months Deceased Had Enjoyed More Than Usual Good Health, But Was Stricken Last Wednesday.

(From Sunday's Daily)

At 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. Marilda Stevens, of this city, died at the residence of Mrs. M. C. Palmer.

At her bedside when the end came were her children, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Stevens, of Sedalia, and Mr. Richard A. Stevens, of Kansas City, her sister-in law, Mrs. John T. Stevens, of Knobnoster; Miss Varina Jackson, sister of Mrs. U. G. Stevens, and Mrs. Palmer, with whom Mrs. Stevens had made her home for some time.

For several months Mrs. Stevens had been in better health than she had been for a long time, but on last Wednesday, at 1:30 a. m., she was stricken with paralysis, since which time she had been unconscious till the end came Saturday morning. All day Tuesday she had been unusually well and cheerful, so that her friends were totally unprepared for her sudden illness.

Mrs. Stevens was born in Moulteau county, Mo., on September 20, 1836. Her maiden name was Renfrow. Some fifty years ago she was united in marriage to Mr. Job Stevens, also of Moniteau county. More than forty-five years ago she united with the Christian church.

In 1861, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens removed to Johnson county and later to Pettis county. Mr. Stevens died in May, 1880, since which time Mrs. Stevens has remained a widow. In 1888 she removed to Sedalia, where she has since resided.

She is survived by four children, Mr. Richard A. Stevens, of Kansas City; Mrs. W. O. Rawlings, of Palisade, Col.; Mr. William A. Stevens, of Fresno, Cal., and Mr. U. G. Stevens, of Sedalia. She also leaves three grandchildren, Richard S. Nelson, of Columbus, Miss.; Roy U. Stevens, of Kansas City, and Frances Marilda Ackley, of Sedalia. Her daughter, Mrs. Mary A. Ackley, died in Sedalia ten years ago. Two other daughters died in infancy.

Mrs. Stevens will be interred at Knobnoster, where her husband and three children are all buried. The funeral services will be held at the home of Mrs. Palmer, 900 South Grand avenue, by the Rev. A. W. Kokendoffer, but the date has not yet been determined, pending the arrival of her children, Mr. W. A. Stevens and Mrs. Rawlings and her grandson, Richard Nelson.

Mrs. Stevens leaves a large circle of relatives to sympathize with her sorrowing children. She had passed beyond the allotted portion of three score years and ten and for several years had been living on "borrowed time." At the end of a long journey she fell asleep

It Is on Exhibition at the Store of Charles H. Bard.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

The $50 silver loving cup offered by Dr. J. E. Cannaday to the Bible class of any church of the city having the highest attendance or largest growth during the year 1910 arrived Saturday and is now on exhibition at C. H. Bard's jewelry store.

The cup is eighteen inches high and was manufactured by a Meriden, Conn., firm. It is one of the prettiest ever seen in Sedalia.

The terms of the contest are that classes competing must have members over 18 years of age. The membership of the church will be taken into consideration when the contest is decided; for instance, the First Christian church, with a membership of 500, must have five times as large an attendance as a church with 100 members to equal the showing of the latter church.

Another feature of the contest is that newcomers in the city, if enrolled in a Sunday school Bible class during the first month of their residence here, will count for two persons in attendance with that class.

PARENTS MURDERED SEVEN OF THEIR CHILDREN NEAR BALANTONFURED.

ARE STRANGLED JUST AFTER BIRTH

Gendarmes Started to Arrest Father, When He Blew Out His Brains —Wife Showed No Signs of Repentances.

International News Service.

Vienna, Feb. 19.—The appalling murder of their own children by a married couple near Balaatonfured, in Hungary, has just come to light. The servant of a peasant, Gabriel Roka, discovered in a dust heap the body of a new born babe, apparently strangled. She informed the police, and two gendarmes were sent to Roka's house to investigate the matter.

When Roka learned that the gendarmes intended to arrest him he drew a revolver and blew out his brains in their presence. Then Roka's wife made the startling confession that in the course of eleven years' married life she and her husband had strangled seven children immediately after birth, because they hated children and could not stand their crying and noise. The skeletons of six were subsequently found in the garden, where they had been buried by the brutal parents.

Frau Roka, who showed no signs of repentance, was taken to the district prison.

OFFICERS SCARCE

THERE IS A DEARTH OF THEM TO COMMAND THE ARMY OF KING EDWARD.

IS ALSO A SCARCITY OF HORSES

The Army Council Now Considering the Question of Setting Up Government Studs to Supply the Big Demand.

International News Service.

London, Feb. 19.—Two very serious problems are now occupying the attention of the army council. One is the dearth of officers, and the other is the question of the country's supply of horses. The first is the more serious of the two.

The shortage of candidates is principally due to the hidebound and conservative nature of the examinations which have to be passed by officers seeking promotion. A captain who wishes nowadays to get promotion is compelled to pass on subjects which are of no possible use to an army officer, and which would not in any way fit him to be a leader of men, or a good strategist. If he fails in any one of the obstruse subjects set before him, he is out of the running. The result is that officers are resigning in large numbers, and swelling the ranks of men no longer very young who want to enter commercial life.

The army council, in their agitation, are trying to attract cadets by making the entrance examinations in the military academies at Sandhurst and Woolwich almost nominal. There, "exams" are degenerating into a farce. At Eton college there is a special class for boys who are desirous of entering Sandhurt, and last week twenty Eton boys passed their "exams" for Sandhurst before they were 17 years of age. As they are not allowed to enter Sandhurst before the age of 18, this means that they will spend a whole year at Eton, idling away their time, unless their parents are wise enough to send their sons abroad in the interval to learn the languages.

In regard to the horse question, the army council is being inundated with the opinions of experts from all over the country. More than 400,000 horses were used up in the South African war, and most of the animals were very inferior and very high priced. The omnibus horses, which proved to be the best, are fast dying out, owing to the advent of the motor omnibus, and meanwhile agents from Germany, France and Italy are buying all the best English horses in the market.

The army council is now considering the question of setting up government studs, and encouraging the farmers to breed horses, but this all means a great expenditure, and will probably meet with strong opposition from Mr. Winston Churchill and Mr. Lloyd-George, who are both in favor of reducing the army's expenses.

THE GRAND DUCHESS IS 15

And Yet She Is Betrothed to Strippling of 18 Years.

International News Service.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 19.—The Grand Duchess Olga, the czar's oldest daughter, is "over young to marry," being not yet 15, but there are already rumors afloat as to her forthcoming betrothal to her second cousin, the Grand Duke Dmitri, only son of the Grand Duke Paul.

The prospective bridegroom, who is a strippling of 18, was heir presumptive to the throne before the birth of the little czarvitch.

He gained that position through the industrious intriguing of the late M. Pobiedenostzeff, chief procurator of the Russo Greek church, who was bent on preventing the succession passing to any of the sons of the German Grand Duke Vladimir, as their mother was then a Protestant.

As a result of Pobiedonostzeff's influence with the czar, the Grand Duke Dmitri was chosen as heir presumptive, and remained so in spite of the conversion of the Protestant grand duchess to the orthodox faith, which was suddenly made with a view to furthering her son's chances of succeeding to the throne.

WONDER OF WORLD

INVENTION TO RECEIVE MESSAGES TRANSMITTED BY THE "WIRELESS."

SCIENTISTS SAY IT IS A SUCESSS

The Inventor and Others Believe It Will Be of Great Importance for Military Purposes in the Near Future.

International News Service.

Munich, Feb. 19.—An instrument no bigger than a large watch which enables persons to receive messages transmitted from "wireless" stations is the latest scientific wonder. Mgr. Cerebtani, papal nuncio at Munich, is the inventor, and he has successfully tested the instrument in the presence of the Bavarian court and leading German scientists.

The apparatus is merely a pocket receiver, and the only accessories are a bobbin of wire, and a metallic encased cane. A person thus equipped can at any given moment receive communication from a station within a radius of twenty to thirty miles.

In order to do this he halts in the vicinity of an elevated point or at the foot of a tree, unrolls his bobbin of wire, and fastens one end to the highest branch or any other support; the other end of the wire is fastened to the apparatus, which is connected on the opposite side with the cane firmly planted into the earth.

The telegraphic receiver is now complete, and all that remains to be done is to watch the movements of the single needle stimulated by the Hertzian waves on the transmission post.

The needle points successively to the various letters or signs inscribed on the apparatus, and thus messages are formed which can easily be deciphered after the fashion of the Breguet system. The instrument works rapidly, and it is expected will be of great importance for miltary purposes.

ADVERTISED FOR A WIFE

Failing to Land One, Cooper County Man Suicides.

(From Monday's Daily)

Julius Doehne, a farmer residing near Billingsville, Cooper county, killed himself Saturday near his home by shooting himself with a shotgun.

Doehne placed the gun against a chunk along the roadside and pressed the end of the gun against his breast directly above his heart. With a stick in his left hand he discharged the gun and fell backward into the stream. Death was instantaneous. A hole was torn in his breast as large as the bore of a No. 10 shotgun and his heart was literally torn into shreds.

Doehne was about 40 years old. He had always been considered a little queer. About a year ago his wife died, leaving him with three children, two girls and a boy, aged 15, 13 and 6 years, respectively. Since then he had been advertising for a wife, with no results. About five weeks ago he made an unsuccessful attempt to kill himself, using strychnine.

He was in fairly prosperous circumstances. It is supposed the motive for the deed was despondency over the death of his wife and his inability to secure some one to take her place and look after his children.

Berlin, Feb. 19.—King Otto, of Bavaria, the mad monarch who has never worn his crown, is reported better of the serious illness which lately befell him. The unfortunate prince is a younger brother of the demented King Ludwig II, whose tragic death in a mountain lake in Bavaria has never been quite cleared up.

The king is confined in the Castle of Furstenried, a lovely place in the Bavarian highlands. His whole court consists of two nobles, acting as gentlemen-in-waiting, and two physicians.

He eats, drinks and sleeps mechanically, preserving a total silence, and sitting for the most part on the floor. His attendants are forbidden, on pain of instant dismissal, to reveal any of the secrets of Furstenried, and the miltary guards who keep watch around the grounds are also under a strict vow of secrecy. Latterly they have been excused from paying military honors to the king on his rare appearances in the grounds.

Once a year the prince regent sends a responsible member of the government to Furstenried to report on the king's condition, from which all moments of lucidity have finally vanished.

THEY WORE 'RATS'

TWO ST. LOUIS GIRLS ARE SAID TO HAVE CONTRACTED LEPROSY.

BEEN WOAKING IN A HAIR STORE

And Yet a Local Thumb Paper. Only as Late as Last Saturday Evening, Hooted at Such a Condition Being Possible.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 21.—Acting on information received by the board of health that two girls in the city are suffering from leprosy caused by the wearing of rats made of Asiatic hair, G. A. Jordan, assistant health commissioner of St. Louis, announced last night that he would begin today an investigation of the sale of hirsute goods here.

The two victims of the dread incurable malady are being treated in St. Louis secretly, and Dr. Jordan will make an effort to have them located and quarantined.

The girls, according to the health board's informant and a leading hair store proprietor, were employed until a few days ago in a down town store. Last week one of the girls noticed peculiar blotches and patches appearing on her face, and the next day another showed the same breaking out. The proprietor of the store had them both sent to a physician, whose name the board of health is seeking to learn.

The pimples and patches were pronounced leprous. The two young women were removed to a private sanitarium in the city, where they are being taken care of.

The investigation of the health board promises to be most extensive and rigid, especially as regards the Asiatic and Chinese hair, which is being imported in large quantities.

The Chinese hair is used chiefly among working girls because it is cheap. Caucasian locks made into rats and curls are far beyond the reach of the average shop woman, and the Asiatic substitute, which sells for about one-fifth the price of the real hair, is largely used in St. Louis.

The Chinese hair is clipped from the heads of Malays, Siamese, Koreans and other Asiatics, among whom leprosy is epidemic. Owing to the great demand these days for artificial head adornment, good prices are paid for hair, and the Chinaman can get enough money for his queue to make it worth his while to dispose of it.

There are companies in China and other oriental countries which have the privilege of all the hair that is clipped from the heads of men who are executed and men who die in hospitals unidentified. The hair is sent to this country in large bales, like hemp. Recently the tariff on hair of the artificial variety has been reduced, and the importations into this country have been correspondingly heavy.

The germ of leprosy, the doctors believe, is carried in the hair through its long travels, and while on the head of a woman finds its way into the skin of the scalp and spreads the most dread of maladies—the original plague of the Bible.

The leprous bacilli have never been isolated and examined to the satisfaction of dermatologists and physicians who make a specialty of skin diseases. Not a single cure of the disease is on record. The course of the plague is marked by gradual anesthesia or decay. Portions of the limbs become dead and nothing known to medical science has ever restored to life a portion that has become blanched white under the leprous curse.

The names of the women clerks infected with leprosy are said to be known to one hair dresser here. According to his information the victims of the leprous disease are being cared for by one physician who is said to have made a study of the disease for the hair dressers.

The man, who is at the head of one of the largest hair dressing establishments in the city, said the American Association of Hair Dressers had expended $10,000 in an investigation. The result of this investigation, he said, was a report that the infection could not be traced to the hair of any one country. Hair for use as switches, rats and pads is imported from Germany, France and China.

SPEED TO BE HIGH

"LIFTS" WOULD NOT BE REQUIRED

Stations Under Surface of Ground—Cost of Construction Lighter and the Expense of Operation Is Much Less.

International News Service.

London, Feb. 19.—If the schemes of the Kearney High Speed Railway company (Limited) should prove successful, Londoners may soon be provided with a novel form of high speed tube trains at a nominal fare of one cent from station to station. Mr. E. W. Chalmers Kearney, managing direcor of the company, in a recent interview, said that the new railway, compared with those at present in vogue, could be constructed at half the capital cost, and run at double the speed at half the working expenses.

No lifts would be required, as the stations would be immediately below the surface of the ground. The trains could travel at a maximum speed of fifty miles an hour on tube rails, and by the proposed system derailment is absolutely impossible. Only one central rail is required to support the weight of the cars, but an overhead rail is also employed.

A model high speed railway on the Kearney pattern is being constructed at the Crystal palace, and a demonstration will be given next month. Among the plans of the company is one for a tube from Norfolk street, the Strand, to the Crystal Palace, the journey to be covered within twelve minutes, including six stops.

From Herne hill to the Palace the trains would run above the ground, and it is anticipated that they could travel this part of the route at ninety miles an hour.

HIGH SCHOOL EXERCISES

Washington Birthday Program Carried Out Today.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The George Washington day exercises of the High school were conducted by the principal, Miss Martha Letts, in the school auditorium this morning. The following program was carried out:

Opening song, "God of Our Fathers" —Chorus.

Scripture reading—Miss Martha Letts.

Lord's Prayer—In unison.

Song, "America"—School.

Discourse on Washington — The Rev. Grant A. Robbins.

Vocal solos, selected—Miss Agnes Scott Longan.

At the conclusion of the program, Prof J. P. Gass announced the meeting here of the Teachers Association of Central Missouri on April 21, 22, 23 and that there would be in addition to the school program relay races, quartette singing contests and also declamatory contests. He concluded by paying a truly deserved tribute to the Sedalia High school faculty, saying that it was second to none in the state of Missouri.

This association, of which Prof. Gass is president, met at California last year.

The public and parocial schools will be dismissed tomorrow on account of Washington's birthday.

PANIC AT A SEANCE

AN OPERA HOUSE FLOOR GIVES AWAY AT PENNSYLVANIA GHOST SHOW.

A RED HOT STOVE BRANDS MANY

Cool-Headed Men Prevent a Holocaust by Tramping Out Burning Coals Scattered in the Debris.

Patton, Pa., Feb. 21.—Four hundred people who attended a spiritualistic demonstration at the opera house Saturday night are feeling considerably impressed with the performance—about twenty-five of them, in fact, bear the brands of red-hot coals and many others the bruises of being trampled upon in a panic when the floor gave way.

The audience was just on the point of leaving when it was precipitated, together with a red-hot stove, into the basement. The floor had buckled without warning.

No one was killed, contrary to an erroneous report Saturday night, but it was luck enough that a holocaust was prevented by men who trampled out the burning coals which were scattered in the wreckage.

As it was, more than twenty-five were either severely burned by the coals or injured in the scramble to get out of the cellar. None, however, is seriously hurt.

THE DAY NURSERY

PLANS HAVE BEEN PERFECTED FOR FOUNDING OF THE INSTITUTION.

CARE OF UNFORTUNATE CHILDREN

Name Bestowed Is "The Melita Day Nursery," in Compliment to the Deceased Mother of Mrs. Sarah E. Cotton, of Sedalia.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

The Day Nursery association and many friends met in the Business Men's club rooms Friday afternoon for the purpose of hearing the reports of the committees that had been appointed at a previous meeting.

The meeting was called for 2:30 o'clock, but it was much later than that before the body was called to order by the vice president, Mrs. C. W. Flower, and right gracefully, indeed, did she sway her scepter over her unruly subjects.

After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting by the secretary, Miss Harriet Gold, the business of the afternoon was taken up.

The committee on by-laws submitted a set of rules and regulations that with some slight changes seemed to cover the present needs of the association to a nicety, and, on motion, they were adopted.

Mr. S. E. Spencer and Rev. Grant A. Robbins were the draftsmen of the by-laws. Rev. D. M. Clagett was also on this committee, but owing to other demands upon his time, he did not meet with the other gentlemen.

A letter from Mrs. Sarah Cotton was then read, in which she offered, rent free, for a term of three years, the property on Washington avenue, near Tenth street, and known as the first house in Sedalia and the home of George R. Smith, the father of Mrs. Cotton, and the founder of Sedalia.

On motion, the offer of Mrs. Cotton was accepted and the secretary was instructed to advise this good woman in writing of the acceptance.

Mrs. W. H. Powell, Mrs. Flower and Miss Gold were made a committee to express to Mrs. Cotton personally the thanks of the association.

On motion, S. E. Spencer, J. W. Mellor and A. D. Stanley were appointed to investigate the property and ascertain the expense of putting it in condition for the purposes of the association, and to report at the next meeting.

The secretary reported that she had been advised by the "P. E. O." society that they would take it upon themselves to redecorate and completely furnish the hospital room, installing, to start with, not less than four crib beds, and in addition promised to aid in the future support of the nursery.

The secretary reported also that the ladies of the "D. O. C." would donate $50 toward the project.

Dr. W. J. Wills proffered his professional services to the society gratis for the term of one year.

Other physicians when consulted by those pushing the project as to its feasibilty, had offered their services also. The secretary was instructed to convey to all of these good people the unreserved thanks of the association, and to assure them that their aid and sympathy were very helpful and thoroughly appreciated.

No further business appearing, the meeting adjourned.

The object of this association has been stated very many times, but it might not be amiss to quote that section of the by-laws that defines its aims. It says:

"Its purpose shall be to provide during the day a home for unfortunate children, and also a hospital for sick children whose ill surroundings are not conducive to recovery, and to do such other charitable work among children as the society may direct."

So, all in all, those who have been the most interested feel that the project is an accomplished fact, and it is now for those who have any interest at all in little children, who, through no fault of their own, are helpless to say whether the institution shall be maintained.

The institution will be known as The Melita Day Nursery, complimentary to Mrs. Cotton, whose mother's name was Melita, and who resided there many years and passed away in this house.

MEASLES IN LAMONTE

Seventy Cases There and Epidemic Has Closed Schools.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Measles has a strong foothold in the neighboring city of Lamonte just now, and according to the statement of a physician from that city last night there is now at least seventy cases of that disease in that city among school children and a few older ones as well.

On account of the prevalence of the disease the public schools there have been dismissed until a further spread of the epidemic is prevented.

Antlers Again Changed Hands.

G. D. Burckhardtt, who on Friday, February 4, sold the fixtures and furniture of the Antlers hotel to Mrs. Laura McCarty and son, C. E. McCarty, of Salida, Colo., for $8,000, Saturday repurchased the hotel and assumed charge at noon.

Mr. Burckhardtt, who has a legion of friends in Sedalia, will continue in the management of the place as before his recent selling.

BOOST FOR TARIFF

REPRESENTATIVE RUCKER SATURDAY MADE SEMI-HUMOROUS ATTACK ON PAYNE BILL.

SAID UNCLE JOE IS "DEAD ONE"

Republican Party, Being Constant Violators of Scripture, No Doubt Rejoice at High-Priced Holy Bibles.

International News Service.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Representative Rucker, of Missouri, democrat, made a humorous speech in the house, today, "The Tariff and Its Virus Infecting and Inoculating the People," be the point of the attack.

He suggested that it was perhaps necessary to levy a high tariff on a few articles which only the few rich people use in order to avoid the enactment of an income tax law, and sarcastically characterized the tariff as a "Heroic remedy heroically administered.

He declared that it was too late for the republican sponsors of the tariff to counteract the virus of the bill and referred to Speaker Cannon as "the Iron Duke who might have stood against the world yesterday, but today there he lies."

"The republican party," said Rucker, "has been in insurrection and in a state of rebellion against the teachings of the Bible ever since the Lord of Hosts thundered that great command, 'Thou shalt not steal,' and for that reason he thought the republican party might not regret the increase of the price of Bibles that had followed the enactment of the new tariff law.

SENT COMIC VALENTINES

W. J. Warren Makes Complaint to Postoffice Inspectors.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

W. J. Warren, a farmer of R. F. D. No. 8, Sedalia, Saturday turned over to the postoffice inspectors two "comic" valentines which had been received by his mother, Mrs. Martha A. Warren, of the same address, on St. Valentine's day.

Mr. Warren requested that some action be taken against the sender. According to the complaint, Mrs. Warren is 59 years of age, and in the opinion of the son the sending of the valentines to such an aged person is deserving of punishment.

The inspectors are investigating the case, and last evening learned the name of the sender. What action will be taken is not known at the present.

CAUGHT THE ACTOR HERE

Was Served With Papers in a Divorce Proceedings.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Neil Smith Milton Dawson, a member of the theatrical troupe which played "The Newlyweds and Their Baby" at Wood's opera house Saturday matinee and night, was served with divorce papers while here yesterday by Deputy Sheriff James Card, the suit having been instituted by his wife, Mary Dawson, in Denver county, Colo.

Mrs. Dawson accuses her husband of desertion. They were married at Denver on April 24, 1898, and lived together until February 1, 1905. She asks for the restoration of her maiden name, Mary Keogh.

Damage Suit to Johnson County.

On application of the plaintiff, Judge Louis Hoffman Saturday granted a change of venue in the E. C. White damage suit against the Sedalia Democrat company and sent the case to Judge N. M. Bradley at Warrensburg, Johnson county.

HIS WIFE MISSING

MRS. MELISSA HUGHES, WIFE OF J. W. HUGHES, OF SOUTH MASSACHUSETTS STREET.

LEFT WHILE HUSBAND WAS ABSENT

He Went to Otterville to Look After Business, and on His Return Discovered That His Spouse Had Taken Departure.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Mrs. Melisa Hughes, wife of J. W. Hughes, for the past two years employed as a car repairer at the M. K. & T. shops, residing at 1113 South Massachusetts avenue, deserted her husband last Thursday morning and her whereabouts is unknown.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes formerly lived at Otterville. They were married in Sedalia by O. E. Parsons, formerly judge of the probate court, on June 26, 1905. Mrs. Hughes is a sister of Mrs. Harvey Weed.

Mr. Hughes left home at 5 o'clock Thursday morning to go to Otterville to attend to some business, and returned home Friday evening. During his absence his wife was to stay with her sister, Mrs. Weed.

When Mr. Hughes returned here he proceeded to Mrs. Weed's home to get his wife, and from Mrs. Weed he learned that his wife had deserted him.

Mrs. Weed stated that her sister said she was going to Kansas City instead, the deserted husband says he learned that she went north on the M., K. & T. at 8:50 o'clock Thursday morning.

Mr. Hughes is 48 years of age and his wife is 45. They have no children. According to Mr. Hughes, marital troubles have existed for the past six months.

Mr. Hughes, in conversation with a Democrat-Sentinel reporter yesterday, stated he would make no effort to locate his wife.

THE HIGH SCHOOL PLAY

Audience at Friday Night's Entertainment Delighted.

The play, "The Higher Education" given by the Athenean Literary society of the High school in the school auditorium on Friday night, was a success in every way. About 8:15 o'clock the curtain rose, and from that time on continuous peals of laughter prevailed

The acting of Misses Bonita Sager and Christine Johnston would have done credit to professionals. Paul Smith played the part of the husband who has to act as cook and janitor exceedingly well; and Albert Boughner presented his role in a very natural manner, showing how splendidly he could assume the ease and grace of a professor.

Miss Louise Letts, as Mary Ann, and Ray Murphy, as Antoine, were especially amusing by their queer "lingo," and added much to be mirth of the evening.

Each and everyone in the cast played their parts in a manner which showed diligent preparation and practice, and was very creditable to the teachers who instructed them in the various parts.
